The Editor's column

by STUART R. PADDOCK

We now know why the U. S. army appeared at recent zoning hearings in Elk Grove, warning the developers that their project adjoined O'Hare Field. They realized that after the jet commercial planes are in operation at that field, the residents of adjoining thickly populated areas might raise the same hue and cry as is occurring at Glenview against the Naval station.

At O'Hare the complaint will be the noise of the jet engines which they say is greater than the noise that would be made by all the inhabitants of this world talking at one time.

The presence of the new Boeing 707 jet commercial plane at O'Hare Wednesday morning was an indication of the noise that would be experienced, not alone in Elk Grove township, but in Des Plaines, Bensenville and other adjoining suburbs.

The army just wants to be able to say "we warned you."

Palatine high school district is naturally jubilant over the approval of their building project by the voters last Saturday, but the lack of interest could have had an unfavorable ending.

When less than half of the families who are using that high school go to the polls on such an important election, they must have a lot of faith in God. However, "All's well that ends well."

A resident of Arlington Greens, Arlington Heights, brought to us this week a photostatic copy of the records of the Cook county clerk, giving the result of the vote last November in Arlington Heights and Wheeling township on the annexation to the Metropolitan Sanitary District.

We wonder if Arlington Heights village dads know that the proposition was lost by only 39 votes (4,541 to 4,502) in the village, while it was carried in the township by 477 (6,628 to 6,151.)

Arlington has hired an outside attorney to question the legality of the law. Senator Boughner, at the request of Barrington, has introduced a bill in the state legislature which, if enacted, will allow the majority of the residents and land owners the right to petition the county judge for disconnection of any area of 20 acres or more.

Perhaps the board members think court action is easier than getting 5,000 disconnection signatures.

We will no longer feel sorry for commuters who are being forced to park several blocks from the railroad station.

Women are being told today that if they want to keep their husbands alive, they should serve breakfast early enough to allow their husbands to leave home a few minutes earlier so they could park 6 blocks from the station and get their needed daily exercise by walking that distance.

If the early breakfast is too hard on the wives, their husbands can get the needed exercise and relaxation which is equally important, by a leisurely walk with their wives after dinner.

What is this all about? Too many husbands are dying from heart disease, the doctors say. One last aid for long life is—no scolding by the wife. Try it, gals, and see how much the man of the house will pep up in looks and vigor and increase the household allowance.

We doubt if the water expansion program will be a political issue in the coming Palatine village election.

The village board has reduced its cost by nearly $100,000, and is considering a water rate schedule prepared by Alfred G. Pullman, who strongly opposed the original ordinance.

Some TV viewers who have been interested in the 21 Show in which VanDoren ran up his winnings to $129,000 are feeling sorry for him because Uncle Sam is taking such a big bite out of his winnings.

We have just completed our income tax report. We think that VanDoren is lucky to escape with $29,000. He at least had the money to pay the $100,000 tax.

Here is a tip to candidates. Friday is the last day they can contact this editor prior to the coming elections. We are not running out on the elections. We are going to cast absentee ballots, but we will be a few thousands of miles away from political public relations men until the excitement is over.

We will enjoy the experience.

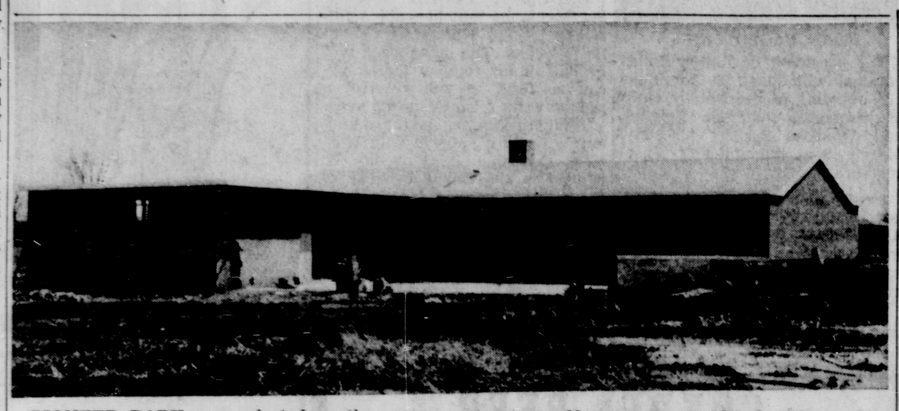
One group of candidates for township offices have asked us to awaken those who reside within corporate areas to the fact that they are a part of township government.

Yes, there are double school elections coming up, as well as park districts and village elections, but the first on the list is the township election and annual town meeting April 2.

Toll Roads To Gouge Out Suburban Lakes?



PIONEER PARK was selected as the name for the new 23-acre park on the south side of Arlington Heights Tuesday night. Pictured is the community building, one of 3 structures 60 per cent completed. The park is bounded by Grove, Fernandez, Kennicott and Fairview sts. The park board anticipates a June 1 opening date.

Elk Grove Resident Protests

Toll roads that will sweep through northwest suburbia will work far-reaching changes in its rural landscape.

One of the possible by-products of the advent of the Northern Illinois toll highway came to light this week with a report that toll road contractors are buying land for the purpose of excavating great quantities of earth for use as fill.

THE REPORT was given to Paddock Publications by an aroused resident of Elk Grove township. It was confirmed by Andrew V. Plummer, assistant to the Cook county superintendent of highways.

Plummer said 3 contractors have been knocking at his door requesting an O.K. on excavation plans. The plans call for creation of lakes "of 10 or 15 acres at least" after the pits are dug.

Land for one of these "ponds" was reportedly purchased in the vicinity of Golf rd. and Rohlwing rd., close to the course of the tollway about 2 miles south of Arlington Heights.

WHY LEAVE a string of water-holes along the path of the toll highway?

There are good reason, not the least of which is the convenience to the contraicors. The nearer their source of earth fill is to the job, the cheaper it is for them.

Also, it.s a wnaie ot a lot less expensive to let underground flow into the diggings than to refill it later with rock.

More important, though, is the fact that the dollar value of the land around the ponds would soar. Anyone who has tried to buy a lakefront site on which to build a home can testify to that.

Somebody could turn a neat profit by selling homesites around the ponds.

WHAT CONTROL will there be over the scoop shovels?

"We're going to study this thing very thoroughly," declares Plummer. "No pits can be dug without a permit from the county board of commissioners and none of these have been handed out — or will be — until a definite policy is.

"We don't intend to allow these things to become eyesores or garbage pits," he asserted.

One of the county commissioners from the northwest suburban area, Fred Fulle of Des Plaines, also knows about the proposal and advised Plummer to withhold approval on all excavations.

ONE DANGER of permitting the proposed operation is that the holes might not fill up with water or stay full as per the drawing board. Park Ridge has a way ot guard against that, according to the ihghway official. He said Park Ridge has made one pond-digger post bond to cover the cost of filling the hole if it turns out to be dry.

One of 2 primary constructors on a 4.2 mile section between Elmhurst and Elk Grove rds. was rumored to be one of those which bought property. A spokesman for the firm, William E. O'Neil Construction co., Chicago, said he "had no information to give out at this time" when questioned about the transaction.

It is up to the county board to set up controls over size, depth and maintenance of the "ponds," say officials. A 500-page specifications book to which tollway contractors must adhere apparently is no "specific" enough.

THE SPECIFICATIONS require that "borrow areas" be left so that they blend into surrounding topography and farmland seeded if it is not to be returned to cultivation. Also, permanent drainage systems must be fixed for the pits and previously existing systems replaced or restored.

If proper measures to control the development and placement of the man-made ponds are forthcoming from county officials, the ponds could well be an asset to the northwest area.

Otherwise, noted one observer, they could become ugly blots on the landscape.

Meyer Quits As Treasurer, Seek Applicants For Post

William F. Meyer will resign as Arlington Heights village treasurer about May 1, he said Tuesday.

Meyer who has become something of a fixture around the village hall during his 20-odd years there, added he would announce his future plans soon. Meyer is also chairman of the zoning commission, which is currently revising a zoning law adopted in 1927.

THE NEW position of village finance director will be created to replace that of treasurer after Meyer's resignation, according to village officials.

Village Manager F. Robert Buechner already has placed advertisements in the "help wanted" sections of trade journals for applicants to fill the new position. Buechner said "of course, the position will also be open to any qualified village resident."

PROVISION FOR the creation of a finance department to be headed by a finance director was included in the village manager ordinance passed 4 months ago.

The village treasurer, who is now a full-time official, will probably become a part-time official under the new set-up. When the village clerk's duties were trimmed from full to part-time in December, one trustee said the treasurer's duties would also be cut.

No salary has been set for the finance director as the ordinance establishing the position has not been approved. However, Buechner said the position will have a salary range of $6,000 to $6,500. Meyer's salary, he noted, is $6,240 yearly.

THE DIRECTOR will supervise all accounting and bookkeeping procedures and over-the-counter cash transactions, the manager explained.

"The man we are seeking must be expertly trained in municipal finance and accounting, be experienced in handling bond issues and know special assessment practices," Buechner continued.

As there will be no full-time clerk after May 1, the finance director will supervise the employees in the clerk's office. They are Mrs. Irene Thompson and Marlene Krambee, both clerk-typists, and Mrs. Dorothy Zammar, account clery in charge of water and sewer billing.

Mrs. Eleanor Cummings, village bookkeeper, will also work under the new director.

2-Hour Brain Operation Fails to Save Heights Girl

A delicate 2-hour operation by a brain surgeon failed to save the life of a 10-year-old Arlington Heights girl stricken with a cerebral brain hemorrhage while playing at a neighbor's house Saturday night.

The girl was Tari Ann Suhr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fredric G. Suhr, 512 S. Lincoln ln. Her father said the parents rushed her to Evanston hospital after she suddenly lost consciousness. She never regained consciousness before her death early Sunday morning.

SUHR SAID the attack "was not caused by a blow of any kind" and that a post-mortem examination had confirmed this.

Tari Ann, a fifth grader at Dryden school, is survived by her parents, sisters Burma Lee, 13, and Dorian Maye, 7, and a brother, Benjamin Harrison II. The grandparents also survive.

Funeral services were held at St. John's Episcopal church in Mt. Prospect Monday and burial was in Memorial park cemetery.

Plan 200-House Subdivision, Donate Land For School

School districts outside Arlington Heights have a staunch friend in the village plan commission.

Once again a district beyond the village limits—in this case Prospect Heights school district—has benefited from the action of the local body.

Prospect Heights school district has received a donation of 3.6 acres of land from a builder, William Harris of Lincolnwood. He hopes to erect some 200 homes on the northeast corner of Buffalo Grove and Palatine rds.

AN ARLINGTON ordinance requires developers, those building outside the village to a limit of 1.5 miles as well as inside, to dedicate 5 per cent of the land area (in subdivisions under 90 acres) for school or park use.

The local commission refused to sign Harris' plat of subdivision until he agreed to the requirement. The commission has so aided other districts in recent months.

George F. Neurnberger, 740 N. Beverly, resigned as a member of the plan commission at its Monday meeting. He will be transferred out of town soon, he said. The commission thanked him for his contribution of time and energy as a member.

William Lathen Chairman For April Cancer Appeal

William C. Lathen, 614 W. Campbell street, Arlington Heights, has been appointed campaign chairman for the April Crusade of the Northwest Suburban chapter of the American Cancer society.

His appointment was announced by George Glow, year-round chairman of the chapter.

Volunteers will be organized by Lathen to conduct a house-to-house canvas during the April Crusade in the suburbs of Arlington Heights, Barrington, Des Plaines, Mt. Prospect, Niles, Orchard Place, Palatine, Park Ridge, Prospect Heights and Wheeling.

Contributions will be solicited and informational cancer literature distributed during the campaign.

"IF THE FLOW of funds continues, scientists, through research, will be able to plan the bold and fresh projects that will bring victory over cancer more quickly," said Lathen. "Widespread public education, together with improved treatment through the service program, is resulting in an increasing awareness of the danger signals and the importance of early treatment.

"About every 4 minutes, another American who had cancer is saved, or about one in every 3 patients. This encouraging ratio can and must be maintained through the support of the April Crusade."

Lathen was born in Marion, Ill., is married and has 2 grown children. He has been associated with the Illinois Bell Telephone company for over 16 years and is a member of the Arlington Heights Lions club.

Summer Casualty

Russ Hansen, 15 W. Orchard, Arlington Heights, was the first summer casualty Sunday when he fell into his swimming pool. Warm temperatures sent Hansen outside to start cleaning winter debris from his pool when in he went. Needless to say, he isn't telling anyone about it. He's dry by now.

Ummm, Goodies!

All home baked items, bread, cakes, pies, cookies and more, will be on sale Saturday, March 16, at Arlington Packing co., 119 W. Campbell.

Camp Fire Girls Now 47 Years Old

Camp Fire girls will celebrate their 47th anniversary next week. It is the oldest girls organization in the country.

Camp Fire members and the Blue Birds will attend the church of their choice Sunday which marks the beginning of the anniversary week celebration.

Demand Exact Figures On Street Widening Cost

A CORPORATE MEMBERSHIP in Arlington Heights Family Service association is presented by Off. Jack Aldrich, juvenile officer of Arlington Heights police department, by Nicholas J. Lattof of Family Service.

Assurances of members of the village board that assessments against owners of strictly residential lots outside of the business district will only be from 10 to 20 per cent of the cost, did not seem to lessen their objection to the northside street widening.

They wanted an exact figure.

The answer from Trustees James E. Millay and Robert B. Bishop: "We don't know either."

FOR THIS reason, and others, residents who will share a portion of the $284,000 cost, objected to the widening project.

Bishop explained why he and Millay have no cost figures.

He said that the cost of street improvements in front of individual homes will be known only by the special assessment commissioner. A commissioner will be appointed by a County court judge after the village passes a widening ordinance.

THE COMMISSIONER will notify persons to be assessed of the estimated assessment. The resident can then ask the commissioner to adjust his assessment or wait until it comes up in court. Bishop said residential assessments will be no higher than the additional "benefit" to property owners.

Trustee John Hoover estimated the village share of the total cost inresidential areas at 80 to 90 per cent, Bishop at 75 per cent. Sales tax and motor fuel tax revenues will pay the village share.

AMONG THE GROUNDS for objection to the proposal were "it will change the character of the neighborhood," "there isn't any traffic congestion on north Dunton to relieve" and "the merchants I talked to said they weren't pressuring anyone for it."

Millay read a letter from a planning expert claiming widening would reduce the "traffic strangulation" of the downntown area, decrease customer resistance to shopping downtown and enhance downtown property values.

Near north side streets proposed for inclusion in the project are Vail, Northwest hwy. to Eastman, Dunton, Northwest hwy. to Euclid; Evergreen, Miner to Eastman; Eastman, Highland to State, and Miner, Dunton to State.

Seek Approval Buy School Site,

Voters in Arlington Heights high school district will be asked to approve 2 important referendums in a special election April 14.

At stake will be a proposition to purchase a 38-acre high school site at Hintz and Buffalo Grove rds., as well as a request to increase the maximum educational fund tax rate from 96 cents to $1.17 per $100 of assessed valuation.

The referendums were approved by the high school board at its regular March meeting Monday night.

The board is seeking approval for the Wheeling site at a cost of $1,500 an acre with authorization for the sale of bonds in an amount not to exceed $60,000. No brokerage fees are involved.

Although there are no plans at present for building on the proposed site, its purchase is part of long-range planning for the district.

WITH ENROLLMENTS by the mid-1960's projected at more than 10,000 high school pupils, the board is attempting to secure essential property now to avoid the plight of other districts which have had to pay much higher prices for land or settle for less desirable school sites.

A fourth site is being negotiated for in the center of a projected 6700-home community in Elk Grove.

Spread over the total assessed valuation of the district, the cost of the site will have virtually no effect upon the tax rate and it is anticipated that the rental until its actual use for a school will more than carry the property on the tax roles. The site is on high ground and is well suited for school use.

THE SECOND referendum asks public support for the increase in maximum educational fund tax rate per $100 assessed valuation.

The actual rate for 1956, affecting this year's bills, was only .786. However, the anticipated increase in enrollment, opening of the Prospect high school, and increases in teachers' salaries all make the increase imperative in order to insure continuation of the district's excellent financial condition.

As the wave of enrollments has moved from grade to high school, similar action has been taken or may be anticipated in neighboring districts. Most grade schools already have as high or higher maximum tax rates.

Old Customs Never Die In Arlington

Elsewhere, customs may pass away but in Arlington Heights they go on and on and on.

ONE OLD custom — that of buying badges for many village officials — popped up last week. Trustees had a chance to bury it but didn't so the village will spend $38 for 2 shiny new badges.

The symbols of public office will go to 2 fire and police commissioners who don't have them — Dr. J. A. Cousins and William B. McKaig. It will be their only recompense.

A third badge will be sported by Max G. Mayrer, representative of the village on the 4-town northwest water commission.

NO ONE seems to know when or how the custom started but even some of the salaried officals could — if need be — flash a badge. Other owners are said to include the village treasurer, clerk and inspector.

That $19 per badge cost is supposed to cover the cost of enscribing the name of the owner on the back.

'Tops In Pops'— Dads Model Duds

Plans for the first fund raising project of the Women's auxiliary of the Northwest Community hospital center were discussed at a kaffee klatsch given by Mrs. Ralph Adams last Thursday.

"Tops in Pops" is the theme the committee has chosen for its unusual project. It will be a men's fashion show, with men from this area modeling, and will be presented May 17 at the high school.

Announce Platform

The Home Service party, which has named candidates for Arlington Heights village offices, announced this week the 6-point platform upon which they will seek election.

They pledge:

1. To make the Arlington Heights master plan a reality.

2. To bring Lake Michigan water into homes.

3. To preserve and defend representative government in the village.

4. To insure the success of managerial form of government.

5. To expand the police force and improve its facilities.

6. To prosecute with all possible vigor the suit against the Ready-Mix plant.

The candidates are: village president, Edward Jackson; village clerk, Eleanor Anderson; trustees, Dan Senne, Leo J. Mueller and Walter Kehe.

SHERIFF LOHMAN

Sheriff Joseph D. Lohman of Cook county will discuss supervision at a Tuesday meeting of the PTA at Ridge school in Arlington Heights.

The sheriff's talk, entitled "Supervising Children Is a Full-Time Job," will be given at 8:15 p.m. at the school.

Lohman joined the faculty of the University of Chicago in 1947 and taught courses in sociology, criminology and labor management. He has been a consultant on police problems for many large cities and made 3 trips to Korea and Japan in 1953 as a civilian advisor to the United Nations Command.

The sheriff is a member of the Capital Planning commission in Washington, D. C. He conducts a weekly television program, "Searchlight on Delinquency," on Channel 11.

Cancer Lecture Here March 18

Dr. Gerald McDonald, assistant professor of surgery at the college of medicine at University of Illinois, will discuss "New Uses of Drugs in the Treatment of Cancer" at a meeting of the Northwest Suburban chapter of the American Cancer society.

The lecture, open to the public, will be at 8 p.m. Monday in Mt. Prospect village hall.

Girl Scouts Plan March 24 Rally

Girl scouts in Arlington Heights are busy working on the Girl Scout rally to be held Sunday, March 24, in the boy's gym of the high school. The rally should be interesting for Arlington Heights girl scouts of district 4, as the senior scouts of ship 95 have written the dialogue and painted the scenery. The theme will be International.

Each neighborhood will represent a country and will have one girl in native costume and one in the Scout uniform of that country.

Practice will be held Saturday, March 23, at 1:30 p.m., in the Arlington high school boy's gym.

Musical Therapy Program For Heights Women

Dr. Alan M. Wells, musical director of Downey General Veteran's hospital, Downey, has chosen musical therapy as his subject when he addresses the music study group members of the Arlington Heights Womans club Tuesday, March 19. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Albert Peters, 403 N. Belmont ave., at 1:30 p.m.

Dr. Wells, regional vice president of the National association of Musical Therapy, has a bachelor of music degree from Michigan, a masters of music from the Eastman school of music, master of arts from Harvard; he has taught at the New England Conservatory of Music and the St. Louis Conservatory and he has been on the staff of Downey hospital since 1951.

Club members planning to attend this final music study group meeting of this year should phone one of the following committee members: Mrs. T. O. Grisell, chairman, Mrs. M. S. Brand, Mrs. R. S. Conabee, Mrs. S. Jurco or Mrs. W. Willy. (A

Hammer Is First On New Program

Building Commissioner Fred Hammer will be the first Arlington Heights village employee to take advantage of a new village policy on leaves of absence for military reserve training.

Hammer, who recently enlisted in the naval reserve, will undergo 2 weeks of training starting March 18. He has the rating of chief petty officer and belongs to a mobilization unit in Chicago.

UNDER A POLICY adopted last week, he will be paid a full salary by the village for one of the 2 weeks. The other week will be half of his regular 2-week vacation. Thus he will receive a second week off later in the year.

Though Hammer is the only employee in a reserve unit, trustees said the policy would be needed in the future because of the military service demands on all young men. Employees will be eligible to participate in the program immediately after starting to work for the village. (A

We have nothing but contempt for Mr. Dior's latest fashion edict—that the figure should bulge a bit, both fore and aft.

Imagine the hope of added life that offers to a well-spent girdle.

Next time you can't get a decent bridge hand, you might find sympathy for the frustrated termite who dreamt it dwelled in marble halls.

Our apologies to those who thought our mention of cotton dresses last week referred to house dresses. You can wear them around the house, if you like, but they're the kind that like to go visiting, too.

In case you missed it, we latched onto a special group of Spring and Summer cottons—delightful little things. Since they are above and beyond our normal inventory, we cut the prices from $14.95, $12.95, and $9.95—to only $9.

No, you're not too late if you hurry.

After a week with a pretty irritable family, we'll go along with the person who described a honeymoon as the thrill of a wife-time.

WHERE IS SUCCESS?

'Wrong Time, Wrong Place'

by CHARLES HAYES

A young Prospect Heights bricklayer is aiming for a singing career.

Don't be surprised if he makes it — for this guy, whose voice is reminiscent of a younger Gordon MacRae, is a baritone who packs a wallop.

He admits ruefully, however, that he's dubious about how his name is going to look in lights.

"I can see it now—Fabian Myslinski!"

A name's unimportant, however, when there's genuine talent behind it. Hearing Myslinski sing is to ask "Why isn't this fellow on TV or radio or the stage?"

Fabian, whose friends call him "Ski," hasn't the answer. Except, perhaps, that he's been in the wrong place at the wrong time. "Show business is 99 per cent lady luck," he smiles.

Not only has he tux and will travel, but he's got a ready-made accompanist on 24-hour call.

They're a mutual admiration society.

"She's the greatest," grins Ski in extolling the virtues of his accompanist-wife, Maxine.

A versatile pianist in her own right, she's quick to say of her singer-husband: "He's tops!"

THIS YOUNG couple resides at 106 N. Elmhurst rd., Prospect Heights, in a new home where they recently moved from 628 Bob-O-Link rd., Prospect Meadows.

Myslinski is a bricklayer for Northern Builders, Inc., 4002 W. Addison, Chicago. He also works part-time at Mt. Prospect bowling alleys as bartender.

But his background is solid music.

He started singing — as a baritone — at the age of 7 and he's never stopped.

As a boy baritone, he sang for Polish Alliance concerts, weddings, banquets, and private gatherings.

As a teenager, he sang for dances while a student at Taft high school in Chicago.

IN 1947 he was selected for the male lead in the Footlight Players production of "Rio Rita."

It was shortly before this that he began seriously studying music and dramatics.

During a stint with the Marine Corps, Ski sang with the San Diego Marine Recruiting depot military band, appeared twice a week on a radio show, and toured the west coast.

While on Marine security duty at Moffett Field near San Francisco, he spent off-duty hours singing at lounges, night clubs, and at weddings and banquets.

HE STUDIED for some time in San Jose with Nace Hill, famed leading tenor of the San Francisco Opera company. It was Hill who has most encouraged Myslinksi.

It was in San Fra. cisco where Ski met his future wife, whose mother was a well-known vaudeville star and pops singer. He recalls vividly his first meeting with Maxine.

"She was playing the piano," laughed Ski, "and I thought: Wow, what an accompanist."

The couple now has 2 children — Michael, 4, and Morine, 2.

THIS EX-MARINE, who's also an ex-weight lifter, hopes someday he can also be an ex-bricklayer and a full-time singer.

He has the talent.

All he needs is the luck.

Tollway Commission End Repurchase Plan

With the imminence of construction on Illinois' tollways, the toll highway commission has decided to end March 31 a policy under which property owners could re-purchase their buildings for 10 per cent of the appraised value or of the judgment award.

The commission took this action to avoid delays to construction schedules which call for completion of the entire 193-mile toll highway by December 31, 1958. Previously, there has been time for purchasers of buildings to obtain new sites, prepare foundations, and complete moving.

SEVEN CONTRACTS totaling $26,254,865.21 and covering construction of 9.6 miles of the Tri-State tollway as well as sizable structural steel, pre-cast prestressed concrete, and cylinder pile requirements were awarded Friday.

The action brought a total of 114.37 of the project's 193 miles under construction contract and increased the total awards for construction and supply to more than $119,600,000. (B7

Resurrection Auxiliary to Hear Dorothy Bond

Dorothy Bond, the world's leading woman cartoonist, and creator of the "The Ladies," will appear in a program for the Resurrection Hospital auxiliary after the monthly business meeting Friday, March 22, at 1 p.m. in the hospital staff room, 7435 W. Talcott ave.

The president, Mrs. Joseph P. Immel, Chicago, announces the appointment of Mrs. W. H. Argabrite Jr. Park Ridge, as new chairman of the committee assisting in the operation of hospital radio station WELL.

Mrs. Otto Eckert, of Glenview, chairman of the sewing committee, reports that hand puppets are now being made by her group as gifts for patients in the pediatric ward. Each child will be allowed to keep his puppet upon release from the hospital. The dolls are being dressed in cherry red pinafores and white terry cloth blouses to duplicate the uniform worn by all auxiliary volunteers. At present they have 41 puppets and have received 8 yards of cherry red broadcloth as a donation from the Angelica Uniform Co.

Mrs. Harry Linn, Chicago, general chairman of volunteer services, announces that a new duty being assumed by volunteers is the distribution to patients of selective daily menus. (S

MUELLER'S STATIONERY

In the Heart of Arlington Heights 13 E. Campbell

CL 3-1839 Open Friday to 9

Child's Behavior Takes Its Cue From Parental Example

Parents are frequently unaware how often they indicate to the child what behavior they expect from him.

We give ourselves away unconsciously and many times reinforce his behavior with our side remarks.

SOMETIMES this behavior is not to the child's best interest and yet we continue to reinforce it because we find it amusing for the present or see something very individual in it.

Frequently certain behavior on the part of the child confirms a hidden or unrecognized opinion of our own — one which we wouldn't dare admit openly.

As parents, we should be constantly aware of the need to help our children in growth toward willing and useful participation in group living. When the child shows behavior contrary to this development and we reinforce it, we are doing him harm.

A MOTHER and her friend were shopping in the grocery store. The 5-year-old son insisted on pushing the grocery cart.

His mother immediately cautioned him against bumping anyone with the cart.

Then, apparently assuming that the child was out of earshot or else entirely stupid, said to her friend, "He just will push that cart into people."

Sure enough, within a matter of seconds the boy had edged the cart into the heals of another shopper.

"See what I mean?" the mother exclaimed as she hurried to redirect the cart and again admonished the boy.

HE CONTINUED with apparent innocence to push the cart into other shoppers and the mother wound up having a row with the boy who promptly threw a temper tantrum.

In an effort to stop the scene the mother again turned the cart over to him, extracting a promise not to bump people. He continued bumping and the shopping trip was miserable for all concerned.

Another mother accompanied by her 11-year-old daughter entered a shoe store.

When the clerk approached and asked if he might help them, the daughter ducked behiind her mother with a frightened gesture.

The mother commented to the clerk, "She is afraid of all men — except her father."

The non-plussed clerk answered, "Well, I suppose that's a good way to be."

Having demonstrated her fear of men and being under the close protection of her mother, the daughter permitted the clerk to fit her with shoes. Nevertheless, she continued to cling to her mother's arm and hide her face against her mother's shoulder at frequent intervals.

IN THESE instances, both of these mothers have reinforced the illustrated anti-social behavior of their children.

Each has shown that she expects this sort of behavior from her child and has declared her defeat in the face of the behavior.

It is certainly to be doubted that either mother really wishes her child to be anti-social.

Surely, neither mother has given thought to the meaning and result of such behavior.

We need to be more aware of the result of our responses to the behavior of our children.

County Health Chief Urges Polio Shots For Everyone

"To insure maximum polio protection everyone under 40 years of age and all pregnant women are urged to make arrangement with their family physicians to either complete the series of three polio injections or to begin the vaccination series," Dr. John S. Hall, director of the Cook county Department of Public Health, announced this week.

"Until December 15, 1956 polio vaccine was available free to physicians for the inoculation of children up to 20 years of age and for pregnant women," Dr. Hall stated. "During August 1956 free vaccination clinics were established because of the high incidence of polio in specific areas. This activity was more widespread in Chicago because the suburbs had the lowest incidence of polio in 1956, since 1948."

"THE HEALTH department has a continuing program for the immunization for children of medically indigent parents. Other people must secure their polio vaccine through their private physicians," Dr. Hall indicated. "It is estimated that 4 out of 5 children have received polio immunization in suburban Cook county.

"It will take several years to determine whether vaccination will reduce the number of cases of polio. Even without vaccination, records show that the incidence of the disease comes in cycles with high incidence years and low incidence years," Dr. Hall pointed out. "One year's experience will not indicate a true trend, however there is evidence that vaccination reduces the paralytic effects of polio. Those persons receiving three injections develop a much greater degree of protection."

"We would like to stress the importance of everyone under 40 years of age and all pregnant women accepting their responsibility in making arrangements with their family physician to receive the full series of 3 polio injections," Dr. Hall concluded.

Chamber Singers

Northwestern university chamber singers, who specialize in music written for small vocal ensembles, will take the audience back to 16th and 17th century England during a concert at 4 p.m. Sunday, March 10.

They will present Five English Catches — lively rounds that were sung by Englishmen in the "pubs" of that period. Catches is the anglicized version of the Italian word, caccia, meaning chase.

The concert, which is open to the public without charge, will be held in Lutkin hall, University pl. and Orrington ave., Evanston.

Community Chest

THIS IS AN ARTIST'S RENDERING of a playground and drainage retention basin which Hasbrook Construction Co. will construct in a subdivision if Arlington Heights annexes its 140 acres. The tract is north of the village limits, between Thomas st. and Palatine rd., west of N. State rd. From 6 to 9 acres in the 18-acre park and basin would be usable for a playground. The remaining area will be dry but fenced off to safely accept excessive storm water during periods of unusually heavy rainfall. The basin and play area, with an estimated total value of about $150,000 would be dedicated to the village. Inset shows a cross section of the drainage basin, which would drain water through underground drain tiles connecting to the village storm sewer system. Approaches to the basin would be graded to moderate slopes and maximum depth will be 6 feet. It could be flooded for ice skating. It would be dry most of the year and planted to grass.

Marian Malcolmson Is 'Tender Trap' Director

MARIAN MALCOLMSON

Marian Malcolmson will direct Village Theatre's spring play "The Tender Trap" to be given April 25, 26, 27, in the Arlington High school little theatre. She has chosen her cast and rehearsals have begun.

As a charter member, and the first president of Village Theatre, she has successfully directed other major productions. She also played starring and supporting roles, the last being "Myrtle Mae" in the play "Harvey."

Besides this, her management and help behind the scenes are ever present during all the working hours too. She has an excellent theatre background with a bachelor of arts degree in theatre from Smith College in Massachusetts, and summer stock work.

MARIAN IS married to Dennis Malcolmson and they have 2 boys. Dennis, also a charter member and past president of Village Theatre, is suprenitendent of Prospect Heights schools.

The Malcolmsons are typical of the busy suburban families who partake in the many community activities. Their interests in Presbyterian church groups and 100 Couples Club round out a busy program. Marian's fine workmanship and enthusiasm has kindled great enjoyment in this players group and she will share this delight with the public while directing the humorous, adult story of "The Tender Trap."

Suburban YMCA Tells Summer Camping Program

Water skiing, sailing, swimming, canoe trips, fishing, riding, archery, and many other activities add up to fun and more of it for boys and girls who will attend the camping program of the Northwest Suburban Y.M.C.A. this summer.

Three types of program will be offered — a day camp, a caravan camp trip and a regular camp trip to Rodney Kroehler Y.M.C.A. camp. In addition 17 other Y.M.C.A. camps will be available.

THE DAY CAMP program will begin on July 1, and continue in session for six weeks. Campers may enroll for periods of 2 weeks. Boys and girls will be picked up by chartered bus in Des Plaines, Mt. Prospect, Arlington Heights, and Rolling Meadows, and driven by competent drivers to the day camp site in Deer Grove. All expenses including transportation, insurance, swim fees, and milk is provided in the one low fee.

The away from home camp program includes a 2 week period from June 16 to July 1, for boys from 9 - 16 years of age at Kroehler Y.M.C.A. camp near Hayward, Wis. Girls will enjoy a 3 week camp period from August 10 to 31.

The caravan camp trip is still in the planning stage, but boys from 11 to 16 who would enjoy a 10-14 day trip to the Rockies or to some other point of interest should indicate their interest to Cliff Lothery of the Y.M.C.A. staff. The boys travel by station wagon, sleeping in camping areas in tents and visiting points of interest as they go. Cost of the trip is divided among the participants.

No more than 15 boys will be accepted so those interested should apply for further information as soon as possible.

FOR ADDITIONAL information call the Y.M.C.A. office at VA 4-4156.

Old and new members of the YMCA-Journal Golf league will hold an organizational meeting at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday, in the "Y" office, 1488 Miner, Des Plaines.

THE WOMEN will continue to play at the Mt. Prospect Country club as was done last year. Thursday morning at 9:30 a.m. has been tentatively set as the playing time. B7)

High School Musicians In Concert

Arlington high school music Department will present a concert at 3 p.m. Sunday in the boys gym. The concert will feature the A capella choir, under the direction of June Leick, and the concert band, under the direction of Fredrick C. Schmoyer. Admission is free.

The choir will feature a group of sacred numbers, including "Go Not Far From Me, O God" by Zingarelli, in its first appearance, and will conclude its portion of the program with a group of popular numbers, including a medley from "Showboat," and a novelty number from "Where's Charley."

The concert band has programmed such old favorites as "Dance of the Tumblers" and "Stradella" Overture. Selections in the modern idiom include a beguine called "El Dorado" and three movements from Ralph Hermann's "Kiddie Ballet" suite. (ACM

Hospital Auxiliary To Hear Mrs. Root On Bazzaar Plans

Women's auxiliary of Northwest Community hospital center, covering 6 townships, will meet March 20 at 8:30 p.m. in Arlington Heights field house. Speaker will be Mrs. John Root of Norwood Park who will speak to members on organizing a Christmas bazaar.

Mrs. Root, a past president of Resurrection hospital auxiliary and chairman of the successful Resurrection auxiliary bazaar last year, is one of 5 persons to receive a citation for extraordinary services from the Chicago Hospital council.

Women of the 6-township auxiliary have chosen the bazaar as a means of raising money to help their goal of equipping an emergency room of the new hospital. They have pledged $25,000 in a 30-month period toward this goal. The bazaar, to be held in early November, is the first major fund-raising project of the auxiliary.

Mrs. Everett Wagner, president of the auxiliary, announces that dues are now payable to Mrs. Earl K. Riley, 738 S. Mitchell, Arlington Heights. (S

New Party Seeks Aid In Campaign

The new All-American party of Wheeling township will meet Tuesday at 8 p.m. in Arlington House restaurant, Rand and Euclid rds., to discuss their campaign for the township election April 2.

Acting as chairman for the meeting will be Bill McNeil, who has extended an invitation to attend for any resident of Wheeling township interested in helping with the campaign. All candidates will be presented to meet workers.

This is the first time in 27 years that a full slate of candidates has opposed the incumbents seeking re-election under the Regular party banner. (ACM

Round 'n About Westgate

Westgate Community Association

Wednesday, March 20, at 8 p.m., the association will hold its monthly meeting in the cafeteria of the Junior High school. Six guest speakers will be on hand from the 3 parties running in the forthcoming election. Guests who will each speak for 10 minutes, with a written question period after the completion of the talks, are: Caucus party, Edward Carlise, mayoraty candidate, and a candidate for trustee will be on hand; mayoralty candidate, Edward Jackson and a candidate for trustee from the Home Service party; People's party, C. L. Griffith, candidate for trustee and one other candidate for trustee at the meeting. This will be the first attempt on having a program and a good turn-out is expected. It is the intention of the association to sponsor a program and refreshments at all future meetings. Four hostesses will serve cake and coffee.

Gene Ballou, president, has succeeded in obtaining members to serve on the various committees. More volunteers are needed on the social, civic affairs and membership committees, but help on any committee is welcomed. Residents interested in serving are asked to contact any of the officers, district men or chairman of the various committees for further information.

Following are the various committees and the chairmen: civic affairs, Steve Stein; membership, Ray Herda; publicity, Frank DeRosa; social, Ralph Hawkes; financial, Bill Henn; program, Ken Purcell.

With The Blue Birds

Minnehaha Bluebirds

Minnehaha bluebirds welcomed 2 new members, Christine Tranker and Brenda Weirich. The girls discussed the forthcoming mother-daughter luncheon and learned new bluebird songs. Officers were appointed for the next month, and the meeting closed with the friendship circle.

Forest View Bluebirds

Forest View bluebirds tried some new games, "Beast, Bird or Fish," "All Change" and "Poison Spot." New officers are Joan Sundblad, president; Carol Currier, secretary; and Patricia Cleary, treasurer. Hostess of the day, Peggy Sidor, served cupcakes before meeting. After making place cards for the mother-daughter luncheon, girls played more games and sang Bluebird Wish before closing circle.

Helping Pixies

After the meeting and opening circle, Helping Pixies made flowers for the mother-daughter luncheon. Lynn Schomburg brought the treat and was hostess for the day. Girls sang round songs till time for closing circle.

Blue Feathers

Blue Feathers met March 5 at the leader's home, Cleta Herda and welcomed a new member, Carol Ann Williams. The girls enjoyed cupcakes furnished by Mary Jo Welton, as she was hostess. After the opening circle, the girls made flowers for the mother-daughter luncheon and then danced and played games till time for the friendship circle.

Happy Birthday

Catherine Wrobel celebrated her 11th birthday February 27. School friends were invited to a party to help her celebrate the day. Sunday a family party was held in her honor. Cathy resides at 1404 Fremont with her parents, Phyllis and Clarence Wrobel.

Deborah Joy Downing celebrated her first birthday March 8, at which time a family party was held. Debbie is the daughter of Violet and Ray Downing, 407 Yale.

A luncheon was held March 5 to help Maureen Callahan celebrate her fifth birthday. Her guests were Linda and Cherryl Huster, Andrea Graczyk, Raymond Herigodt, Pat and Pam Townsend, Maureen McDonald, Gayle Collins, Stephanie Stein, Kim Rothery, her sister, Barbara, and cousin, Renee. Maureen is the daughter of Bernice and Barney Callahan, 1510 W. Fremont.

Entertain

A dinner party was held Saturday evening at the home of Carol and Chris Lorenzen, 311 Reuter. Their guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Day of Glenview, Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Klenner of Glen Ellyn, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Pugh of LaGrange

Staff Entertained

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Griffin of the Wayne Griffin Travel service entertained their office staff, Mrs. Ernest Ross and Mrs. Stanley Fletcher, at Arlington House March 4. Also present was John Rip of the Overseas Travel company, who explained the workings of his company and offered tips on the planning of European travel.

Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Bill Thrasher entertained her twin sisters and their families, the George Pouloses, Martha and George and the Stanley Germers. The Germer's daughter, Carol, was unable to be there as she is attending the University of Wisconsin. Mrs. Thrasher's mother, Mrs. Jeannette Tortorici, who makes her home with the Thrashers, was happy to have her 3 daughters together for the buffet supper.

The Joseph Pecoraros had a nice weekend. Saturday they went to the Congress hotel to the convention of the Independent Order of Foresters, of which both are members. The evening began with cocktails at 7:00, dinner at 8:00 and dancing afterward. The next day there was a family reunion in Chicago at the home of his parents, the Angelo Pecoraros. His 2 sisters and their families came from Michigan to make the party complete.

The senior Arnold Koriaths spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ed James from Rockford. The 2 families have been friends since World War II, when the men met in service at Camp Campbell, Kentucky. They have kept in touch with one another ever since. It had been 7 years since they had seen each other, so they had to catch up on the latest news about their mutual friends in the service, as well as themselves.

Second Son

There is a new baby at the George J. Topp's house. Bruce was born March 2 in Resurrection hospital, Chicago, and weighed in at 9 pounds 2 ounces. His brother, Michael, 2½, is happy that he has a brother and is looking forward to the time when Bruce will be old enough to play with him.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Garasha celebrated 2 birthdays in one March 4. Timmy was 13 the previous week and his father's birthday was March 9, but they set the celebration at March 4 so that the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Garasha from Chicago, could be there. Mr. Garasha's sister, Mrs. David Foster, was also there with her husband and 4 sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle E. Huntley entertained his parents, the Harry Huntleys of Eldora, Iowa, for a week recently.

Over the weekend Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Inselberger entertained her brother, Edgar Meyer, and his wife from Chicago and Mr. Inselberger's sister, Mrs. Engel Dahl, also of Chicago. The Louis Lesniaks also stopped to see them after visiting their grandson in Elgin. The Lesniaks live in Sheboygan, Wis. and were on their way to Hastings, Neb.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Giorgi have the diapers and baby bottles out once more. They have just brought home Richard Vincent, whom they plan to adopt. Richard, or Rickey, as they will call him, is 8 months old. He has a 2-year-old sister, Robin, who is also adopted.

Elect Temporary Officers

At the February 15 meeting of Seabee Island 21, the temporary officers were elected as follows: president, Delmar Grishkowsky; vice president, George Lyoa; treasurer, Art Kneupfer; secretary, Bernard Ladenthin. Two other members who joined the island at that meeting are Richard Stevens and Clement Lambert. The last meeting was held March 13 at 8 p.m. at Pinecrest Inn, Arlington Heights, and Rand rds., where one of the rooms was offered to the group through the courtesy of the owner. Each month they will meet in a different village to help get members for the island. All seabees who join by June 30, 1957, will be listed as charter members. Anyone desiring more information about this group should call Bernard Ladenthin, CL 3-8639.

The Ladenthins just returned from a 4-day trip to visit her family in Albert Lea, Minn. Of course, everyone was delighted to see the children, Gloria and Tommy.

Here For Spring Vacation

The Roger Ryden's son, David, will be arriving Saturday from Colorado A. and M. in Ft. Collins for his spring vacation. He is a junior, majoring in business administration. With him will be Carl Coffman, son of the David H. Coffmans, who is also a student there.

The Joseph Moricis had a party for their son, Herbie, Sunday to celebrate his sixth birthday. Besides his brothers and sisters, his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Max Rhodes were there with their children, 'Dusty, Sandy and Rocky. Kenneth Terry and Bernadette Schamne also came for supper, ice cream and cake. When the children tired of playing games, Mr. Rhodes showed movies of a recent trip to Florida and Cuba.

Roberta Olsta was 3 March 6 and to celebrate she had a birthday party. Those who came were Jane Cantieri, Jan Kelly, Mary MacSweeney, Susie Novak, Linda and Barbara Rogers and Patty and Cathy O'Connor. All the guests went home with prizes.

March 1 Mrs. Olsta's club had a housewarming at her house and invited all the husbands. There were cocktails and a buffet supper with the following couples present: the Al Briels, the James Clarks, the Robert Dotens, the Alfred Lolls, the Carl Scholmanns, the Fred Webers and the Norbert Willgings.

Meetings

There was a board meeting of the Ridge Park Community association March 11 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Mockenhaupt. The association meeting March 18 at the VFW Hall, 8:15 p.m., will be of special interest to everyone as it will feature 5 minute speeches by the candidates of all parties in the forthcoming election.

There will be a PTA meeting March 19 at 8:15 p.m. at Ridge school. Sheriff Lohman will speak on "Supervising Children is a Full-time Job." (A

Fred Walters Will Manage Campaign

The Home Service party has appointed Fred W. Walters, 415 E. St. James, to manage its campaign to elect a new village president, clerk and 3 trustees for Arlington Heights.

Walters is a staff assistant specializing in contracts and accounting methods for the Pullman co. He has been active locally in the Scouting movement.

Heading the Home Service ticket is Edward S. Jackson, mayoralty candidate. He is a 39-year-old attorney who last week resigned his position as chairman of the village zoning board of appeals. He and his wife, a teacher at Wilson school, and 2 children reside at 645 S. Belmont.

WALTERS SAID the 5 Home Service candidates represent "a cross section of Arlington Heights citizens." Trustee candidates are Walter C. Kehe, 33, a shipping supervisor who lives at 923 N. Walnut; Leo J. Mueller, 50, of 110 S. Vail, an attorney and plan commission member, and Daniel W. Senne, 42, of 416 E. Park, a managing partner of the Emerald shop. Senne's wife teaches in Chicago; Mrs. Kehe is a dental assistant.

Seeking election as village clerk is Mrs. Eleanor Anderson, a widow with 2 adopted children, whose experience includes employment as a cashier, secretary and saleswoman.

Local Residents Hold 'Lucky Keys'

Arlington Heights, Mt. Prospect and Rolling Meadows residents were among those fortunate enough to hold the right key to Arlington Furniture Mart's treasure chest.

Mrs. George Frejd, Mt. Prospect, received the sectional davenport, Mrs. George Tunison, Arlington Heights, the all wool Wilton carpet, Mrs. Paul Gehrig, 123 S. Mitchell, Arlington Heights, the reclining chair. Receiving tables; Mrs. M. E. Patter and Mrs. Lorraine Horn, both of Arlington Heights. Mrs. A. H. Mueller, Rolling Meadows, won a $20 gift certificate. Many other useful gifts were presented.

Wins Clock-Radio At Store Opening

Mrs. R. A. Burkett, 1405 W. Euclid, Arlington Heights, was the winner of the G. E. electric clock radio presented by Westgate Bootery, Westgate Park & Shop on the occasion of its grand opening last weekend.

Mrs. Burkett's name was drawn by Sol Gottlieb, assistant manager of the new store that features shoes for the entire family. (A

This Week with PTA

Last Call To The Book Fair

By 10 a.m. Saturday doors of the Junior high gymnasium will open to show an interior transformed into a book fair. Tables stacked high with books will line the walls. Books will be separated according to age groups to facilitate shopping and handling. Members of the PTA will be on hand to answer questions, replenish stock, write sales tickets, and keep things running smoothly until 4 p.m.

Make a jaunt to the book fair a family outing! You can browse through interesting books and help the children make their selections. Choose the books you will read together at home for, educators tell us that, even though a child can read, there is benefit derived from the family reading circle. It will make for a satisfying experience.

Besides enriching your home libraries by buying books at the book fair you also help to enlarge the school libraries, since proceeds from the sale are used to buy new books for each of the 5 libraries. Last year the book fair proceeds enabled Mrs. Sorokin and Miss Wardrope, librarians, to place about 200 new books on the library shelves.

March PTA Meetings

The third week of the month is just around the weekend so line up the baby sitter for Tuesday evening, March 19. The March schedule of PTA meetings promises much that is interesting and entertaining.

Dryden And North Schools

Dryden and North schools repeat the format so much enjoyed last year at Dryden. Demonstration night begins at 7:30 p.m. at North and 7:45 p.m .at Dryden and will consist of faculty supervised demonstrations and exhibits, by the children, of projects completed in connection with their social and natural science studies. Because the children will participate in the program, no refreshments will be served.

Park School

Tuesday evening, March 19, at 8:15 p.m. parents and teachers of Park (South) school may hear an interesting panel discussion in the Junior high school gymnasium. The panel, moderated by Ralph E. Clabaugh, superintendent of schools, will discuss the topic, "What about Home-School Relations?" Other members of the panel are John McComb, representing the parents; Miss Marilou M2e2n2e2l2l2a, fifth grade teacher; Mrs. Doris Moseley, fifth grade teacher; and Mrs. Eleanor Hauslein, second grade teacher.

Preceding the panel discussion, a group of students of Melvin Kasen, director of instrumental music in the Arlington Heights schools, will present a program of instrumental music.

Hostesses will be mothers of third grade and second-third (combined) students.

Ridge School

Sheriff Joseph D. Lohman will speak on "Supervising Children is a Full-Time Job" at Ridge school Tuesday, March 19, at 8:15 p.m.

Mr. Lohman is well-qualified by training and professional experience. In addition to his current position as Sheriff of Cook county, he has served in many capacities, on both the local and national scene. Mr. Lohman is the author of many articles on crime, human relations and community problems, and brings an extensive and interesting background to bear on a subject of broad current importance. (A

GEORGE HARRIS

'Twill soon be a great day for the Irish, so this is George O'Harris coming at you through the medium of Paddock Publications. Saint Patrick's Day is one of the many fine days recognized in this country, so today we wish all of our many fine Irish friends the best of all things.

All of these holidays bring to mind the many greeting cards we handle for all occasions. I believe we have the largest display of greeting cards to be found in these parts and you're at liberty to browse around and find the one that suits any occasion. We certainly celebrate almost every holiday, but we often forget to send that greeting that would bring a little happiness into someone's life. It only takes a short time to pick out the card and send it on its way, so why not drop in and send a greeting on this wonderful St. Patrick's Day.

'Tis said, "that St. Patrick's Day is the time for the wearing of the green" and this I believe to be true. And speaking of green, you can save plenty of that "long green" (money to youse guys and gals) if you will do your shopping at Harris or Arlington Heights Pharmacies. This is O'Harris, saying "Have a wonderful day."

Birthdays

Diane Rogers, 14-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Rogers, 501 N. Lincoln, celebrated her birthday Saturday with a slumber party for 10 of her classmates from St. James school. The girls gathered at the Rogers' home in time for a pizza dinner, which was followed by dancing and games. Sunday morning, after very little slumbering, they attended mass together and returned for brunch to close the birthday festivities.

A family dinner was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Fitz-Patrick, 319 N. Beverly, to celebrate Mr. Fitz-Patrick's birthday.

Homer Nielsen, 403 N. Brighton, whose birthday was last Wednesday, celebrated it Saturday with a party for some of his friends from Chicago.

Two celebrations were on the agenda last weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Cockrell, 905 E. Euclid, where their daughter, Mary Elizabeth, was celebrating her 12 birthday. Friday 11 of her classmates from St. James school jined her for a party. A dinner was held in Mary Elizabeth's honor Sunday with 15 family members from Chicago and the suburbs attending.

Square dancing was in order Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burrow, 213 N. Dryden, to celebrate Bob's birthday. Two couples from Arlington Heights, the George Rezners and the Richard Bokelmanns, and the Wilbert Gramzins of Mt. Prospect were the guests.

New residents of Eastwood are Mrs. Truma White and her 2 children, Bill and Barbara, who moved to 503 N. Hickory last week. Mrs. White is the sixth grade teacher at Fairview school, Mt. Prospect.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Carosella, formerly of 811 E. Euclid, are now settled in their new home at 217 S. Brighton in Stonegate.

William Inman, 513 N. Douglas, returned home Tuesday from a 10-day trip to Florida. While there he stayed at Passa Grille Island near St. Petersburg.

Home from a 5-day trip to St. Louis are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wallace, 820 E. Euclid. Mr. Wallace attended the convention of the National Association of Commissioned Lumber Salesmen while there.

Helen Kasper, 302 N. Lincoln, and Casey Mutti, 314 N. Beverly, spent last Wednesday at Wind Lake visiting Mrs. Kasper's mother, Mrs. Cecelia Suhi.

Although business trips are not usually out of the ordinary for James Rogers, 501 N. Lincoln, his New York trip last week ended on an exciting note when his plane was forced to land in Detroit. A fire had started in the tail section.

Scouts

At the monthly court of honor for the Northwest Suburban Council of Boy Scouts held at St. James school hall last Wednesday, 2 Eastwood boys from troop 66 received promotions. Billy Kasper was promoted to first class scout and Jack Mutti made life scout. Also from Eastwood, Raymond Schmiezer was admitted as a tenderfoot.

Here and There

Weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Gleason, 410 N. Hickory, were the Willard Millers of Peoria, former neighbors of the Gleasons.

Ruth and Frank Patton, Wilma and Bill Guilfoil and Nyna and Norm Hoym were present Saturvillage offices by the Caucus party and the Service party. It is

Thoughtfully Yours For Another 25 Years

• Since the first Jewel Food Store opened in 1932, Jewel folks have had just one aim—TO SERVE AND PLEASE YOU!

This week we are celebrating our 25th Birthday. Though many things have changed through the years, Jewel aims have not.

These are our "reasons for being" today—as they have been for a quarter of a century:

- To offer at all times the quality and the variety of food and grocery products you want, at the lowest possible prices.
- To keep Jewel Stores clean and attractive for you, always remembering that cleanliness and food go together.
- To give you quick, friendly and efficient service, being too busy to be cheerful and courteous.
- To be available at all times for helpful service and thoughtful assistance in every department of our stores.
- To be a good neighbor in your community, meeting with your highest expectations.
- To continue to open modern, up-to-the-minute Jewel Food Stores where they will serve homemakers most conveniently.

Most important of all: never to forget that YOU have made it possible for us to enjoy a happy Birthday. It has been your patronage and your confidence which have given Jewel folks the incentive to do their level best to serve you—as you would like to be served.

During this, our 25th Birthday Week, we look forward to another 25 years of happy association in your service.

Thoughtfully Yours For Another 25 Years

"Give us stores with friendly, helpful people"!

That's what you, Chicagoland housewives, told us 25 years ago when we asked how we could make your food shopping more fun. So Jewel stepped into the food business with nice people . . . more courteous, more friendly, more thoughtful.

This week, as we celebrate our 25th Birthday, Jewel Stores are modern, much bigger . . . but that same old-fashioned friendliness of 25 years ago is still there. It comes from people who are sincerely interested in you and want you to keep coming back week after week as you have been.

Won't you join us in our Birthday celebration this weekend?

GROUND WAS BROKEN and work begun this past week on the parish education unit for St. Mark Lutheran church in Mt. Prospect, H. J. Rasmussen, pastor. The building will be 2 stories and will provide on the first floor, 10 classrooms, a lounge and 3 offices. Second floor will be given to 15 classrooms. This is the fourth phase of the building program of this 10-year-old congregation. In 1947 the parsonage and first unit of the church were constructed. In 1952 the present parish house in the form of a Georgian home was built. The present church was completed in the fall of 1954. The congregation now numbers over 1,400 of which more than 800 are communicant members. Sunday school attendance averages well over 500. It is hoped to complete the present structure by next fall; architect is Walter Kroeber of Arlington Heights and the general contractor is Ray Lantz of Glenview.

On the building committee are Dr. N. M. Nesset of Palatine; Darwin Blix, Clifton Hesness and Herbert Sass of Arlington Heights; Robert Newgard, Harold Edwall, Roland Becker and Stan Deming of Mt. Prospect; Dan Borgen of Prospect Heights, Wallace Moen and Roy Mathison of Glenview and Carl Pedersen of Des Plaines. (B7

A MOUNTAIN OF WORK is involved in handling approximately 15,000 Northwest Community Hospital pledge cards. A crew of workers attacks the job daily at the hospital headquarters, most of them serving on a volunteer basis. Shown working are, from left: Mrs. Sara Bauer, Mrs. Doris Jarvis, Mrs. Anita Kuhl, Harold B. Rose, Mrs. Helen Kleinofen, Mrs. Doris Jacobson, Mrs. Ruth Kutchera, and Mrs. Louise Stoehr. Mrs. Bauer and Mrs. Kuhl are paid employees, the rest, including Rose, secretary of the hospital board of trustees, are volunteers. Champion time-donater at last report was Mrs. Kutchera, with more than 170 hours. More volunteers are needed, particularly on a half or full-day basis.

State Police Pay Hike Gets Sheriffs Okay

The Illinois Sheriffs' association will lend its support to any movement by Gov. Stratton to obtain a salary increase for the state police.

This was disclosed last week in a joint statement by Sheriff Leonard Wood of Mt. Vernon, Jefferson county, president of the ISA, and State Treasurer Elmer J. Hoffman, secretary-treasurer.

The sheriffs' association will also actively support efforts to obtain more assistance for the Bureau of Identification in Springfield, an investigative agency which has been of material aid to city, village and rural law enforcement agencies.

WOOD ASSERTED that Illinois sheriffs believe that improving the pay of all law enforcement employes will tend to bring more qualified workers into that field.

Sheriffs are opposed to more state police, claiming that the present staff is large enough if their duties are confined to highway patrol the purpose of their organization years ago - and not to criminal investigation, which, the sheriffs contend, usurps the field of local law agencies.

State Chamber Of Commerce Oppose Federal School Aid

State and local governments are able to finance their school building needs without help from the federal government, a spokesman for the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce told a congressional committee in Washington last week.

The chamber protested proposed federal aid to the states for school construction at a hearing on pending federal aid bills. Testimony was submitted by Joseph W. Cavataio, chairman of the State Chamber's subcommittee on school construction.

All federal aid proposals likely to receive serious consideration by Congress would require Illinois to contribute in federal taxes and matching funds considerably more than would be returned in benefits.

For example, the Administration bill would require Illinois taxpayers in each of the next four years to contribute $23.5 million in federal taxes to finance the federal aid program. The return to Illinois would be $11.1 million in federal aid. In addition, it would be necessary that the state and local governments provide $22.3 million in matching funds for aid.

UNDER THE Kelly bill, Illinois taxpayers in each of the next six years would pay $43.9 million in Taxes, get back $30.4 million in federal aid and be required to put out a like amount in matching funds.

Cavataio contended that Illinois is solving its own classroom problems. He noted that "Illinois school districts have spent over $800 million for new school buildings and grounds since 1950, with the annual rate now running well over $150 million. Nine out of every ten bond issue elections are being approved by the voters."

He acknowledged that there are about 60 school districts in Illinois which already are at or are nearing the limits of their bonding power for classroom construction. But he said the need of these and other needy districts would be adequately met if a proposed $14 million school building construction revolving fund, advocated by the Illinois School Problems Commission and supported by the State Chamber of Commerce, is approved by the General Assembly.

"MUCH CONFUSION apparently has been caused," Cavatio said, "by a federal report purporting to show a need for 3,435 additional classrooms in Illinois. Because of the wide variance of this figure with a survey of our own state School Problems Commission showing a distress need for only 875 classrooms, we sought an explanation for the difference. The most plausible is one given us by M. M. Cruft, building consultant in the office of the Illinois Superintendent of Public Instruction.

"Cruft says that in his opinion the federal estimate does not mean classrooms needed in schools districts where bonding powers have been exhausted but instead means that all Illinois school districts, regardless of ability to pay, have need for this number of classrooms. It's easy to see how the federal figure might be misinterpreted."

Gems Of Thought

FASHION

Custom, education, and fashion form the transient standards of mortals.

Mary Baker Eddy

Fashion is a word which knaves and fools may use to excuse their knavery and folly.

Churchill

Every generation laughs at the old fashion, but follows religiously the new.

Thoreau

The way of the world is to make laws, but follow customs.

Montaigne

Be not so bigoted to any custom as to worship it at the expense of truth.

Zimmerman

Fashion is something barbarous, for it produces innovation without reason and imitation without benefit.

Look who upset the "Low-price" Applecart!

This one's had them rubbing their eyes ever since it landed smack in the middle of the "low-price" field! The handsome rebel you see right here is upsetting tradition right and left on what a modest budget should buy. It's pricing a big 122-inch wheelbase right down with cars from four to seven inches shorter! It's adding a big bonus of extra road-hugging heft—and powering it with an all-new 347 cu. in., 10 to 1 compression ratio Strato-Streak V-8 for highest horsepower per pound in the field! A lot of might and muscle for sure—but it's gentled like nothing else on the road by Pontiac's exclusive Level-Line Ride and Precision-Touch Controls. And remember—the Chieftain's standards of luxury and quality were set by the same men who gave America the incomparable Custom Star Chief Catalinas. What we're leading up to is this: If smaller cars have gotten you down, you can actually buy a Chieftain Pontiac for less than 30 models of the "low-price three"! Why wait any longer to give your spirits and your budget the lift of a lifetime?

Legal Notice

Public Notice is hereby given by the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners of the Village of Arlington Heights, Illinois, that it will hold an examination for the purpose of making appointments to the position of regular firemen within the Fire Department of the Village of Arlington Heights.

All applicants shall be under 35 years of age and over 23 years of age, be actual residents of the Village of Arlington Heights for at least six months next preceding the date of examination, and meet the requirements of the following physical schedule:

Height	Minimum Weight	Maximum Weight	Minimum Circumference of Chest Quiescent
5 ft. 8 in.	145 pounds	185 pounds	34 inches
5 ft. 9 in.	150 "	190 "	34½ "
5 ft. 10 in.	155 "	195 "	35 "
5 ft. 11 in.	160 "	205 "	36 "
6 ft.	165 "	210 "	36½ "
6 ft. 1 in.	170 "	215 "	36½ "
6 ft. 2 in.	175 "	225 "	37½ "

6 ft. 4 in.	185 "	235 "	39½ "
6 ft. 5 in.	195 "	250 "	42 "

Applicants must have a chest expansion of not less than 3 inches.

The foregoing age limitation shall not apply in the case of any person having previous employment status as a fireman in a regularly constituted fire department of any municipality.

The salary of a fireman has presently been fixed at $4,740.00 per year. Appointed firemen will tentatively work a shift of 24 hours every other day. This means they will be on duty 72 hours one week and 96 hours the following week and alternately thereafter.

Such examination will be at the Village Hall, Municipal Building, Arlington Heights, Illinois, on the 6th day of April, 1957, at the hour of 9 o'clock in the forenoon. Successful applicants shall thereafter be required to pass a medical and physical examination which shall qualify them to sustain the labors and exposures of a fireman.

All applicants, who desire to submit themselves for such examination, shall so advise the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners by filing a written application with the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners in care of Mr. Carl H. Weinrich, Village Clerk, prior to the 5th day of April, 1957. Application blanks may be obtained at the Village Hall.

Testimonial Banquet

Testimonial banquet came off with flying colors. Guests of honor for the evening included former State Representative Bernice T. Van der Vries, Mr. and Mrs. Francis E. Kelly, attorney for Arlington Crest, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Edmonds, attorney for the firm representing Arlington Park. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Thomas were unable to attend due to other commitments.

Art Hern, TV star of the Crest, was toastmaster for the evening. Address of welcome was given by association president, Albert Matz and introduction of honor guests was made by Johanes A. Stenzel, outstanding civic leader. Dis-annexation committee, consisting of John Stenzel, Walt Twarowski and Bob Nordstrom, and former alderman, Wayne Goodpasture, were also given thanks for a job well done.

Entertainment was in the spotlight by talented performers, Bob Nordstrom, Walt Twarowski and Joe Thome, doing their version of the Andrew sisters. Accordianist Frankie Cicero provided old time and popular music for the community singing. John Stenzel wrote the special songs for the guests of honor.

Mt. Prospect country club proved to be an ideal place for this occasion. The flower arrangements were later given to the guests. Programs and identification tags were made by the committee chairman, Walt Twarowski, who did a wonderful job for this occasion. The entertainment committee wishes to thank everyone for the response and cooperation shown them.

Scouts

A boy scout troop in the Crest has become a reality. The first meeting was Sunday at the Zahorski residence. The boys were working on their requirements so they can register with the troop after final approval from their sponsor, the Arlington Crest Civic association. The next meeting will be March 21 at the Zahorski residence. Letters will be sent to all scouts informing them of further meetings and activities.

Cub scout parents will meet March 18, March 25 and April 1. Letters will be sent to parents informing them of meeting pace.

Birthday Celebrations

Mrs. Helen Thome had an enjoyable weekend celebrating her birthday. Saturday evening she celebrated at the banquet with friends and neighbors. Sunday afternoon was spent celebrating with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Thome, and Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Beer of Chicago. Sunday evening a surprise party was given her by her friends from the Crest.

Mrs. Sally Balducci spent Tuesday and Wednesday at the hospital with her daughter, Terry, for examination due to her recent operation.

Mrs. Pauline Zahorski attended a hairdresser's convention at the Sherman hotel in Chicago March 3. (AP

Community Hospital Names Major Committee Members

The names of committee members who will be charged with major duties in connection with the Northwest Community hospital project were announced by the hospital board of trustees last week.

Principal committees and their chairmen are as follows: financial development committee, Nicholas M. Lattof; buildings and grounds, John R. Bartizal; finance, Herbert F. Bruning; Legal, Leroy A. Garr; nominating, Louis G. Langpop, and public education, Perry R. Thomas.

The executive committee of the hospital organization will include these committee chairmen and the following officers and members of the board of trustees: Lattof, chairman; Fred S. Lockwood, Walter R. Sundling and Earl K. Riley, vice-chairmen; Carl Hammerl, treasurer; Harold B. Rose, secretary; Dorothy Wagner, chairman, Woman's Auxiliary; and William H. Ball, Carl P. Clare, Jack D. Hughes, Hugh E. Nichols, M. P. Venema, and Charles J. Walters.

The building and grounds committee, headed by Bartizal, includes Andersen, Clare, Florence, William Gerbosi, Hughes,

MEMBERS OF the nominating committee are Ball, Garr, Hughes, Nichols, Peterson, Thomas, and Ziehm.

Working with Thomas on the public education committee will be Richard Bronwell, Fred A. Fulle, Stuart R. Paddock, Ted C. Seiler, LeRoy G. Tabbert, and R. C. Wessell.

Payments on pledges coming into the hospital headquarters have increased measurably in the past few weeks, according to Rose. He emphasized the importance of getting as large a cash reserve as possible as a prerequisite to obtaining the expected grant of federal funds.

Contributors to the hospital fund are being advised by letter that the hospital office is not sending out regular notices of pledges due because of the heavy cost to the hospital fund. Contributors are being asked to plan their own schedule of payments.

Beisler Chairman Of Zoning Board

Victor H. Beisler, 501 N. State rd., a member of the Arlington Heights zoning board of appeals, last week was named chairman of the board. He replaces Edward S. Jackson, who resigned as chairman after entering the village mayoralty race on the Home Service slate. (AF

Walter Kirchhoff, Langpop, Mr. Lockwood, and the Rev. H. J. Rasmussen.

The finance committee members under Bruning, Mr. Ball, Buehler, Hammerl, Langpop, and Venema.

Garr's legal committee will include Mr. Lockwood and Mr. Walters.

Illinois Farmers Launch State-Wide Egg Promotion

Calling homemakers' attention to the good food buys available when they purchase eggs, Illinois farmers are launching a statewide egg promotion program.

This promotion effort is part of the voluntary marketing and promotion program sponsored by county Farm Bureaus and conducted in each county by the marketing committee, E. V. Stadel, associate secretary of marketing for the Illinois Agricultural association, said today in announcing this campaign.

SLOGAN for this Farm Bureau-sponsored product promotion drive is "Control Your Curves — Eat Eggs," and as part of the campaign thousands of automobile bumper strips are being distributed.

Eggs can be served in so many ways and they make a fine food for the diet-conscious homemaker. Eggs may be used in beverages, breads, cakes, cookies, desserts, salads, sandwiches, main dishes for lunch, and frostings and fillings.

For breakfast, few things are better than eggs — perhaps ham and fried eggs, or bacon and a couple of soft-boiled eggs. Eggs scrambled or served as an omelet.

IN ADDITION, eggs are moderately low in calories. They are a good source of protein, iron, vitamin A, vitamin D, and riboflavin. Illinois is one of the 47 states which has a fresh egg law, assuring the consumer of fresh, high-quality eggs at all times.

"This drive coincides with the high season of egg production. Eggs are an excellent source of high quality protein, available at low cost.

The Mothers club hot dog sale February 28 was a success. A great deal of the credit must go to Mrs. S. Swan, who is in charge, and her committee.

Nancy Ingram was part of a bridal party March 2. As a bridesmaid, she wore a ballerina length nylon chiffon dress of lilac, and carried white carnations and was a very thrilled girl.

Cub Scout pack 58, of which the Elk Grove Mothers club is sponsor, held its annual blue and golf pot luck dinner. A new cub, Jimmy Jensen of Oakton st., was welcomed. Chuck Lemke Jr. received his lion badge. About 85 cubs and scouts and their parents attended.

Present Farewell Gifts

Lawndale Women's club met at the home of Mrs. Russ Wilder and presented Mrs. Wilder and Mrs. Roy Hightower train cases as farewell gifts. Both ladies will soon be leaving the community.

Elk Grove Mothers club had an enjoyable outing March 8. Twenty-seven of them went to a broadcast of station WHFC and heard and saw an interview with Miss Fran Allison and Dr. Marion Langner. Many of the attending mothers received prizes: Mrs. Lemke, hosiery; Mrs. Adams, Milburn and Woss, dinners at various eating places. Also, cans of tomato juice and other household articles were taken home. The Mothers club received a case of tomato juice and a case of chicken broth for attending.

Attend Nephew's Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lemke and the Charles Lemke family attended the wedding of their nephew, Dick Newford, at the VFW hall in Des Plaines. Mrs. Ella Newford, Dick's mother, has always been a hit at Mothers club shows. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lemke had overnight guests from Huntington, Ind.

Mrs. Don Mollenkamp has returned from South Dakota where she had been visiting her ill father. Friends are glad to hear that Evelyn's dad has improved.

Former Residents Visit

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Christie, formerly from Elk Grove, visited from Holcomb, Wis., this last weekend. Roy and Ann are fine and enjoy living in the north woods.

Mrs. Roland Knaack's mother has been very ill. She has been staying with the Knaack family on Lincoln lane. It is hoped she will soon be well again.

In Guam Hospital

Robert Carl Horbus, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Horbus, Lincoln lane, Roselle, and brother of Susan, 13, and Guy, 6, is in the naval hospital in Guam after being severely injured when the pick-up truck he was driving skidded on coral rock and overturned.

The family received a telegram from the navy Thursday, March 7, informing them of the accident. The Horbuses called Guam later that day and learned the extent of the injuries: broken jaw, facial injuries and laceration to the scalp. The doctors were more concerned about his loss of blood. Sunday a wire from the navy stated that his condition was improved.

Bob attended Arlington high school until he enlisted at the age of 17 in September, 1955. He took his boot training at Great Lakes and left for Guam March 3, 1956, where he has been storekeeper in the naval magazine.

As Bob will be hospitalized for some time, cards and letters will be appreciated and should be addressed: Horbus, R. C., 479-38-73, U. S. Naval Hospital, Navy N. R. 296, % Fleet Post Office, San Francisco, Calif.

Bob Krause was home from March 7 to 9. He was on leave from the navy at Norfolk, Va., where he is now stationed. Bob was accompanied by Edward Levitt. After returning to Norfolk he went to Washington, D. C. for 5 days schooling.

Pat Krause was able to see her brother, as she was home Friday and Saturday from Mt. Sinai Nursing school.

Birthday Celebration

Included in the relatives and friends at the birthday celebration of Mrs. Albert Gathmann were the Fred Ollmanns, Harold Ollmanns and Keith Beines. The celebration was held at the Albert Gathmann home Sunday.

Saturday evening the Ed Ostrowskis were guests at the home of the E. J. Rudnik family in Lincolnwood.

Doug Wuestenfeld has been home from school since March 6 with an abcessed tooth.

Happy birthday wishes are due to Tommy Albinak March 16.

The results of the election were: president, Erling Blast; vice president, Robert Mayhew; secretary, Mary Blast; treasurer, Ernest Brezinski. There was also a vacancy on the trustees and Al Schroeder was elected for a 3-year-term.

It was voted that the second Sunday of every month be a regular meeting day. Refreshments were donated by Mrs. Schroeder, Mrs. DePalma and Mrs. Blast. (A-10

Election Tempo Is Picking Up

The tempo of politics—fairly slow up to now—will pick up next week in Arlington Heights.

Two neighborhood associations have invited all 3 political parties to send representatives to their meetings.

Monday night at 8:15 p.m. the recently-revived Ridge-Park Community association will hear the pros and cons, whys and wherefores of the election. A member noted that with 3 parties competing for votes, "it is more important than ever to meet all the candidates and hear all sides." The meeting is at the VFW hall.

THE WESTGATE Community association Wednesday meeting in the Junior high school will hear 2 mayoralty candidates and several trustee candidates from the Home Service, Caucus and People's parties.

A member of the Ridge-Park group said outsiders are welcome to attend the discussions.

This time of the year my assistant and I spend several days speaking to high school juniors and seniors at their "Occupational Conferences" or "Career Day" meeting. Needless to say we talk to them about careers in agriculture.

At the last meeting, I asked the students how many would be willing to invest $10 if they could get $100 in return. Nearly all of them responded in the affirmative. When they asked me how it could be done, I told them if they would invest in a college education their average earnings during their lifetime would be approximately $72,000 more.

STATISTICIANS have checked and found that people who have graduated from college will earn approximately this much more during their life. Some will earn more, some less. Some college graduates even earn less than high school graduates. Here we speak of average thought.

But the value of a college education should not and cannot be measured in terms of dollars and cents alone. It must be measured in terms of what it does for the individual and what he in turn is able to do for the society in which he lives. Regardless of whether he is farming, teaching, selling, managing a business, or dairy research, the agricultural graduate has ample opportunity to use his education for the improvement of the world in which he lives. If you are graduating from high school this year, give serious consideration to continuing your education.

Amorous Italians Want To Know Legality Of Kiss

Two Candidates

Vying for the office of Barrington village president in April 16 elections will be Martin H. Schreiber, village board president, and Joseph W. Meehan, former village trustee.

by BILL DILLINGHAM

MILAN—When is a kiss legal?

Italian law is strict with the youth. A kiss in public brings a fine of 600 lire (about one dollar) if a policeman sees the act. This is considered a heavy penalty because it represents a half day's pay for most Italians.

A more liberal attitude is taken towards kisses between men. Being an established custom in Italy and originating from noble sentiments, the 600-lire fine is in this case waived.

Other exceptions, too are allowed: train-departure and arrival scenes, family greetings, etc. But a sharp curb is placed upon the public kiss between young people of the opposite sex. "Necking" is just not allowed. All places outside the home are regarded as public, so that many a gallant young man has had to run substantial economic risks to kiss his girl.

This law, however, is not thought of as proving any lack of romantic activity on the part of the youth. Stockholm, Sweden, the Italians point out, also imposes a fine for a public kiss, and that Scandinavian country ironically shows nude films to the public which are generally banned even in Paris.

RECENTLY another question has arisen to thoughtful Italians:

When is a kiss sinful?

A reader of the magazine "Palestra del Clero" asked the question by postcard, and his answer came back in published form.

The magazine said: "A kiss does not always constitute sin—if the intention is pure. When exchanged between people who have no blood relationship, it might also not be sinful, but one must be on guard, because sexual passion is always ready to intervene. Each case must be examined separately. But anyway, it is better to be more strict than generous with youth, because their spiritual direction is more delicate — and powerful stimulants of evil endanger them . . ."

Couples of the opposite sex may not lie down on the grass in public parks unless one meter (about three feet) separates them. This makes it easier for policemen to detect the "illegal kiss".

What, then, is the permitted expression of affection for Italian youth?

Holding hands, a concentrated study of each others' eyes, perhaps buying the young lady a "gelati" (ice cream) — these are the signs of genuine and proper emotion, explained one elderly Italian woman to this reporter.

Needless to say, Frenchmen visiting Italy find life difficult.

Wilson School

To those interested in running for member of the board of education, district 24, Arlington Heights, Cook county, there are 2 positions on the board, which are open for candidacy. The secretary of the board, Robert G. Parsons has nominating petitions and statements of candidacy, which can be obtained from him at Wilson school. The petition and statement must be returned to Mr. Parsons by March 22. The election will be held, Saturday, April 13.

During the recent Northern Illinois District Solo and Ensemble contest at Libertyville, March 2, Douglas Rice won a first place medal for flute solo and Tim Coniglio won first place with the trumpet solo. Douglas also played a duet with Carl Harrington, Prospect Heights, for which both received first place medals. This will entitle the boys to compete in the state contest, which will be held in April in Plainfield.

Mrs. Jackson's third grade represented a young United Nations Friday, as they wore various national costumes and assumed a name proper to the nation represented, Mrs. Jackson included. The class recently completed a unit on children of the world.

Mr. Meiners fifth grade displayed an interesting exhibit of wildlife common to this vicinity. Many of the birds and animals on display were mounted by the amateur taxidermists in the class.

Wilson PTA

PTA nominating committee presented candidates for April election of officers: Mrs. Samuel Coniglio for president; Mrs. William Casteel, vice president; Mrs. Leo Kneer, trasurer; Mrs. Gail Gunnison, secretary. Nominations from the floor were in order during the March 12 PTA meeting.

PTA is sponsoring a spaghetti dinner, Monday April 1. Dinner will be served from 5:30 through 7:30 p.m. Anyone wishing to buy tickets may contact ticket chairman, Mrs. Lillian Seppala, CL. 3-3225.

A group of eighth grade mothers attended a parent visitation week at Arlington high school March 6, for lunch and a tour of the school. Those present were Mesdames Huebner, East, Burke, Hinricks, Wetzel, Simondson and Rice.

Mr. Wiston of the Cook county highway department met recently with Mrs. Leo Kneer, Mrs. Olav Knudsen, Mrs. Pat Coniglio and Mrs. Nelly Neal as a result of a telephone call made by Mrs. Kneer. The meeting was called to determine what measures might be taken to slow traffic on Palatine rd., by the school. Mr. Wiston stated that the county had no authority to post speed limit signs, but a radar check will be made within a week to determine the speed of traffic on Palatine rd., in the vicinity of the school The "school" signs will be replaced by caution signs, which Mr. Wiston claims will be more effective. The west signs will be moved farther west so they can be seen by traffic coming over the hill.

Cub Scout pack 234 will hold its meeting Friday, March 15, at 7:30 p.m., in the new addition at Wilson school.

Return From Florida

David and Lottie Borgardt, Rand rd., and daughter, Kathy, recently returned from a month's vacation in Lakeland, Fla. The Borgardts resided with Mr. and Mrs. U. Oliger, who moved to Florida 5 years ago. A visit to Cypress Gardens, Tampa and swimming at Clearwater were among the diversions they enjoyed while in Florida. Lottie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ladewig, Bartlett, flew down during the last 2 weeks of their vacation and drove home with the Borgardts.

The Pinegate Recreation club met at the home of Agnes Laier, Pine st., March 7. Dorothy Lee, Bonnie Lathan, Dorothy Sertzel, Jean Strobach and Ida DeBussman were those present. They sewed and enjoyed cake and coffee afterwards. The next meeting will take place at Jean Strobach's, during the first week in April.

Attend Anniversary Celebration

Mr. and Mrs. Olav Knudsen, 1627 N. Vail, were among those present at the 45th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. T. Tollefson, Mrs. Knudsen's parents, in Madison, Wis. Sunday Mrs. Knudsen's sister held a dinner in honor of the parent's anniversary, with 20 persons present. The Knudsens arrived home late Sunday from their weekend vacation.

Chuck and Sally Opela, 1520 N. State rd., spent Saturday night renewing friendships by visits with friends, Matt Dennis and Chubby Jackson, who are currently appearing in Chicago with their orchestras at separate night clubs. (B7

Name Chairman For $1.2 Million Hospital Appeal

A general chairman has been named to spearhead the $1,250,000 building fund campaign to help finance construction of a new 200-bed, $5,000,000 Lutheran General hospital on Dempster street just east of Maine Township high school.

He is Kenneth G. Meyer, prominent attorney and mayor of his native City of Des Plaines for the past 8 years.

Announcement that the top campaign post had been filled was made by Paul C. Johnson of Park Ridge, vice president of the hospital's board of trustees and chairman of the campaign executive committee. Johnson is editor-in-chief of the Prairie Farmer, farm magazine published in Chicago.

DURING THE NEXT several weeks, Meyer said he would devote himself to recruiting top leadership in each of the communities within the hospital service area.

Mayor of Des Plaines since 1949, Meyer has been active in a host of civic and philanthropic endeavors in his native city and the surrounding area. He was one of the motivating forces in organizing the Boy Scout movement in Des Plaines in 1927 and took a leading role in the formation of the Des Plaines Nurse and Welfare association.

He has served as a director of the Community Chest for a number of years, is a member and past president of the Lions club and served as chairman of the Des Plaines Red Cross campaign 2 different years and was chairman of the Cancer Fund in his community.

A practicing attorney since 1925, he is a graduate of Chicago Kent College of Law and a member of the Illinois Bar association. (B7

The Mailman's Corner

We're Better Off Than We Think...

by LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

A sense of comparative values, a willingness to look at things as they are, and as they might be, at what we have, but could be easily deprived of, should remind us that most of us are better off than we think.

Come a streak of hard luck, and most of us start to complain. Some of us are habitual complainers, always self made hardship cases. We like sympathy and recognition, and some of us form the habit of getting it through complaining. But the satisfaction gained by complaining is never full, because we are never quite sure, but that people are only bored with our complaining, or are insincere in their sympathy.

HAPPINESS comes from being satisfied with what we have, and grateful for new things we want and are able to get. Simply counting our blessings will enable us to see how childlike it is to be dissatisfied. Food, house, wife, children, clothing, health, such as we have, are blessings.

Complete security, no one on earth can have. We may be financially secure, yet feel unwanted because we lack friends we can trust; we may be rich, and sick; we can live in safe surroundings, yet live in fear.

The wealthiest person on earth never has all his wishes satisfied. Nothing on earth can be perfect. The art of being happy comes from within, from faith in God, being satisfied with what we have, and grateful that our work and friends make it possible to receive more.

TOO MANY OF us value ourselves too highly. When others take us at face value, we feel unhappy and abused. All of us are inflationists, placing inflated value on ourselves, and when some one punctures that self esteem, we are deflated and depressed.

We should count our blessings, recognizing, with plain horse sense, that much of our dissatisfaction is of our own making. (BW

Virginia Terrace News

Peculiar Charms

Mothers who thought their children were enlarging upon the truth when they reported seeing a cow in the back yard were proven wrong last week when a frightened animal apparently loose from a neighboring farm, galloped over freshly thawed lawns and managed to create much excitement as mothers gathered their preschoolers indoors and realized that suburban living has its own peculiar charms.

Two Terrace residents, Sheldon Mells and Davis Whittier, are candidates for the Wheeling township elections to be held April 2. Shel, an attorney, who lives at 1608 Oakton, is a candidate for justice of the peace and Dave Whittier, a former alderman from Menominee, Mich., who lives at 1219 N. Wilke, is a candidate for constable. Both American ticket.

Bill Balow, 1424 N. Illinois, was recently promoted to the position of production manager of Indak Manufacturing corporation, Northbrook.

In the news these days is Assistant U. S. District Attorney John Bickley, 1337 N. Chicago, who will prosecute Paul "the waiter" Ricca concerning denaturalization and deportation proceedings in a trial which will begin April 8 in Chicago.

Enlarge Scope

This reported would like to enlarge the scope of the column to include more news of the business and professional achievements of the men in Virginia Terrace and would appreciate hearing of any changes in jobs, promotions or interesting projects undertaken by Terrace residents.

The Chicago metropolitan daily papers carried pictures of Nancy Dever, 1430 N. Race, last week modeling the new nurses uniform for the recently merged Presbyterian-St. Luke school of nursing at a tea given by the women's boards of the 2 hospitals. Other nurses representing the hospitals and several board members modeled present and past uniforms worn since 1886.

Meeting

At the Thursday night meeting of the Greens association, the candidates from 2 political parties, Home party and Caucus party, were well received. With an attendance of 34 persons, John Hedberg, 1104 Pine ct. took home the attendance award. Jack Kerz explained the sanitary district problems about which further discussion will take place at the next meeting. According to Bill Miller, membership chairman, there is a membership of 155 persons in the association at this time.

Babies

A baby girl was born to George and Lillian Pisors, 711 Clarendon, in St. Elizabeth hospital, Chicago, February 26. Mary Francis weighed in at 8½ pounds and will be christened in St. James church Sunday, March 24. Her godparents will be Mr. and Mrs. Ed Weirich, 715 Clarendon. Her brothers and sisters are Jean, 14, George, 12, Marie, 9, Bobbie, 6, and Ellen, 2½.

Word comes from Rockford that a baby girl was born to Kay and Bill Baer, formerly of Beverly lane in the Greens.

Circus

Sally Stout, 620 Clarendon, den mother of den 2, pack 32, took the group to the Shrine circus at Medinah temple, Chicago, Monday afternoon. In the group were Carl Anderson, who got the tickets for the outing, Lee Anderson, Clark Sims, Billy Compton, Earl Stout, Michael Boehm, Jackie Johnson, Donald Miller, Ginny Sims and her daughter, Penny, Dick and Mildren Compton and their daughter, Missy.

Gert and Bill Miller, 1218 Hickory, spent last weekend in Milwaukee at the home of Gert's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Frank White and family.

Maryn Johnson, 815 Olive, who was hostess for the Olive st. sewing circle Monday night, turned the evening into a baby shower for this reporter. The mother-to-be was over whelmed with the personal remembrances from Rosemary Buttstadt, Ruth Epsky, Dorothy Kalkhoff, Dene Bosso, Jean Cooney and Lorraine Loos.

Jean Cooney, 901 Olive, will model in the fashion show to be given for the members of the St. James Mothers club at their monthly meeting Thursday night, March 14, in the school basement. (A

Newcomers

Newcomers to the Terrace are Bill and Marilyn Roser, who have purchased the home at 1211 N. Wilke, formerly owned by the Gedneys. The Rosers, who moved here from Franklin, Ind., are originally from Libertyville and have 4 children and 2 pet cats. Nine-year-old Billy and Linda, 7, attend St. James school, while Terry, 5, and Mary Kay,2, are at home. Bill is a claims examiner for the Mid-States Insurance company.

Elinor Huebner, chairman of the ways and means committee of the Wilson school PTA, has announced that the second major fund raising project for the PTA will be a spaghetti dinner to be given from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. April 1.

A birthday celebration took the form of a party planned by his wife, Dorothy for Gene Domingue Saturday evening. The well wishers included the Dick Quinns, the Bob Klines, the Charles Millhousers, the Harry Stevens, the Don Walters, the Shel Mells, the Charles Marshalls, the Rex McBrides, the Les Pokluns, the Bob Parkins and the Lee Vincents of Evanston.

A Terrace bridge club rounded out its second year of play with an evening at Tom and Lynn Smith's Friday. Other members include Bob and Gwen Horter, Bea and Don Harper, Liz and Joe Silverman, Bob and Carolyn Menick and Jody and Bob Morrill.

Lee and Shirley Russell spent a whirlwind weekend entertaining old friends from Colorado, Capt. and Mrs. James Rowden and their sons, Jimmy and Bobby, who were driving to an air force base in Newfoundland.

New Arrivals

J. Edgar and Margaret Fennie are the parents of an 8½ pound son, Joseph Edgar, who was born March 1 in St. Joseph hospital, Elgin. The Fennies have 2 other children, Patrick and Christopher.

Another recent arrival to the Terrace was Frederick Miller II, who was born January 25 in St. Francis hospital, Evanston, to Fred and Anne Miller, 1256 N. Illinois. Young Fred has 2 older sisters Theresa and Mary.

Scott Whittier, the new son of Dave and JoAnne Whittier was born March 4 in Sherman hospital, Elgin. Dave's mother, Mrs. A. G. Whittier, has been visiting from Chicago with the Whittier's other children, Steven and Susan.

Six Blocks Of Miner St. To Be Paved For Pupils

A 6-block stretch of E. Miner st. will be paved to give access to Arlington Heights junior high school at Dryden pl. and Miner st., slated to open next fall.

About half of the stretch is now in use as a street, but the paving is substandard. The work will probably be done with a combination of special assessment and motor fuel tax funds, it was disclosed at a meeting of the village board of local improvements last week.

The state might approve use of motor fuel tax funds if Miner were made an arterial street between Dryden and Douglas. The improvement would be made between Douglas and Derbyshire, the latter a short distance east of the school property.

THE SCHOOL is at the southeast corner of Dryden, also scheduled for improvement soon, and Miner. Paving of Miner will also improve access to the Arlington Market shopping center. It will be built this year on the west side of Dryden between Foundry rd. and Miner st.

Trustee Richard Bronwell said the Eastwood property owners' association has asked for the Miner st. project. The board will hold an informal hearing soon with home owners who would be assessed for the work. (A

Open Season On Busse Elk; Herd Too Large To Feed

A dozen of the 35 elk in Busse forest preserve in Elk Grove township have received their death sentence.

They will be shot and fed to the lions at Brookfield because, claims the preserve, the herd is getting too large for its feed supply.

THE ACTION was defended by Charles G. Sauers, general superintendent of the forest preserve district. He said thinning out of the herd, the only one in the Midwest, is needed. Sauers says elk are in such plentiful supply that no other zoo or preserve has put a claim in for his surplus ones.

Two years ago Sauers was about to banish the entire herd when northwest area residents got wind of it, signed petitions circulated by Paddock Publications and prevented it.

THE STATELY elk feed on grass in their fenced-in pasture in the summer and are given a supplementary diet in winter.

Sauers has complained of the public's lack of attention to the elk except when they are threatened. (B7AF

Local Bus Line to Seek ICC Approval for Fare Hike

Harvel Motor Coach co., which operates buses serving commuters and school children in the Arlington Heights area, will seek permission to raise its fares.

The company will appear before the Illinois Commerce commission (ICC) on the request. Only 3 of the firm's 17 buses operate on routes which are franchised by the ICC but the raises will be applied to all other routes, if granted, a spokesman said Tuesday.

The company makes 7 morning trips and 9 evening trips daily carrying commuters to and from the Arlington Heights railway depot. It also transports pupils to all but one of the village's elementary schools.

ON THE COMMUTER routes a raise in the single ride cash fare from 13 to 20 cents will be sought. The firm also wants to raise the tariff on its summer service to the race track from 15 to 25 cents a ride.

Bus tokens, now selling at 10 for $1, would no longer be sold under the proposal.

The cost of a monthly pass for grade school students, good for one round trip on school days only, would be set at a flat $4. Village children now pay $3 a month; rural children, $3.50. Schools do not pay for bus transportation unless pupils live 1.5 miles away.

The firm last was awarded an increase on Dec. 15, 1948. Mrs. Howard Harvel, wife of the owner, said steadily rising costs had forced the firm to ask for its first fare hike in more than 8 years. (AF

Baptist Church To Feature Speaker On African Freedom

Speaking on the subject of "Freedom in Africa" Fay Richardson, treasurer of the Conservative Baptist Foreign Mission society, will be guest at the 7 p.m. service of the First Baptist Church of Arlington Heights March 17 it was announced this week by Rev. George Beckstrom, pastor.

Mr. Richardson has just returned from a 3-month tour of the African Gold Coast and will illustrate his lecture with colored slides taken by him on the trip. From his travels in this land which has the eyes of the world upon it, the speaker can give first-hand accounts of the turmoil within the newly-independent Ghana as it boiled toward recent events. This influence will be far-reaching, not only in Africa where history is moving so rapidly, but throughout all countries with racial and political problems.

"If you are aware of the importance of current affairs in Africa and the Middle East in the light of their role in history and God's plan for the future," stated Rev. Beckstrom, "then you cannot afford to miss this understanding lecture."

The public is invited. (A

Business Picking Up In Village's Parking Lot

Business is slowly picking up in Arlington Heights' first village-owned parking lot.

After a "discouraging" first 2 weeks after installation of the meters on the 80-car lot, the pennies and nickels are now starting to trickle into the meters.

THE LOT adjoins the Dunton Court shopping plaza and extends from Dunton ave. to Vail ave. The village spent more than $125,000 in buying and improving the facility but trustees doubted if anyone knew this after viewing initial receipts.

In the 2 weeks that ended February the meters yielded an average of 10 cents each per week. But in the week that ended March 6 revenue shot up to 41 cents per meter.

WHAT HAPPENED, say officials, is that shoppers became used to parking free. The lot was completed December 10 and as a boon to Christmas shoppers and merchants, the village held off on installing meters. There was "customer resistance" when the meters were put in during the second week in February.

The lot is still not crammed to capacity except at peak shopping hours but more persons are using it daily.

Trustees last week approved changing 20 one-hour meters to 12-hour operation to accommodate store employees. AF)

The Electric dryer is fully automatic, fume-free, fast and thrifty!

Poor father! If they had an electric dryer he'd have a dozen clean, dry diapers by now. Baby-soft, clean-smelling—the way they always dry in an electric.

Nearest thing there is to sunshine. Electric heat is clean, dry, radiant heat. Fume-free. So everything you dry electrically comes out smelling sweet as clover.

Electric dryers are all fully automatic, and just 6¢ worth of electricity will dry a big load.

Take a look at the new electric dryers soon. You'll notice that all the "no-vent" dryers are electric. (So your laundry area stays clean, dry and comfortable.) Are you listening, father?

Big Saving—ask your dealer about our Share-the-Cost Installation Plan. It's the low-cost way to get the modern 100-amp home wiring you need for today's electric living appliances.

If you own an electric range, you save up to $25 on a new dryer! In fact if you have any 240-volt appliance your home probably has modern wiring already. This means the complete, installed price of your new electric dryer will be less than any other kind.

It's Time For A Change!

Wheeling township government has grown complacent and over-confident. Incumbent officers have been virtually unopposed and unchallenged in the performance of their public duties for 27 years. This is an unhealthy and undemocratic condition for any level of government and an invitation to carelessness and malfeasance. The All American party, in presenting its full slate of candidates for township officers, recognizes the need for broader representation from the whole township as well as the need for public-spirited leaders with a desire and capacity to restore a progressive spirit and a new vigor into Wheeling township leadership.

The All American party program is based upon equality, efficiency, and economy. It pledges to the electorate:

(1) We pledge economical, efficient, and enlightened administration of township funds.

(2) We pledge new vigor and performance in township law enforcement with equal treatment for all, regardless of residence or political affiliation.

(3) We pledge reform in tax assessment policies to provide a "fair and equal" deal to all residents.

(4) We pledge a vigorous road improvement program and specifically, we pledge action to get our share of state motor fuel tax monies. We pledge more equitable distribution of road improvement with special attention to areas long neglected.

(5) We pledge to restore the office of justice of the peace to its proper status as township judicial office and provide equal treatment to all.

(6) We pledge fair and efficient administration of available township relief monies and full cooperation with school, church, county and state agencies.

In the Days After . . .

Many bereaved families are surprised to learn of the many thoughtful services our firm renders during the days after the funeral. We stand ready to help in selecting acknowledgement cards, handling clergy gratuities, obtaining insurance forms or duplicate death certificates, and in any other manner where our experience can relieve a family's burden.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

The fact that the man of God's creating is not at the mercy of accidents, chance, or discord of any kind will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday, March 17.

Scriptural readings in the Lesson-Sermon on "Substance" will include the account of Paul's healing of Eutychus "who fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead" (Acts 20: 7-12).

Selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include the following (424:5): "Accidents are unknown to God, or immortal Mind, and we must leave the mortal basis of belief and unite with the one mind, in order to change the notion of chance to the proper sense of God's unerring direction and thus bring out harmony."

The Golden Text is from Ecclesiastes (3:14): "I know that, whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it."

These Lutheran Churches, Call You to Lenten Worship

WHAT THINK YE OF CHRIST?

Pharisees, what do you think?
"He eateth with publicans and sinners!"
You, high in the church, Mr. Caiaphas, what do you say?
"He is guilty. He is a blasphemer because he said, 'Hereafter shall ye see the Son of Man sitting on the right hand of power and coming in the clouds of Heaven'!"
You, Mr. Governor (Pilate), what is your decision?
"I find no fault with this man.
And you, silver lover, how much is He worth to you? (Judas).
"I have sinned in that I have betrayed innocent blood."
Mr. Sargeant, you led Him to the Cross. How do you salute Him?
Centurion: "Truly, this was the Son of God."
Do you hear the criminal, alibi in death row?
"No! This man hath done nothing amiss."
Disciple Peter, what do you say of Christ?"
"Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God."
Heavenly Father, you know everybody, what say you?"
"This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. Hear ye Him."
READER, WHAT THINK YOU OF CHRIST?

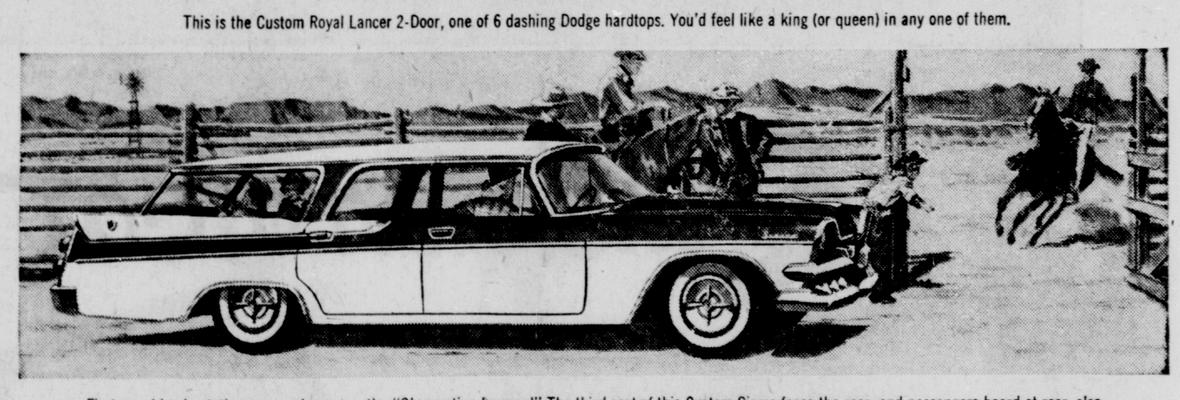
This is the Custom Royal Lancer 2-Door, one of 6 dashing Dodge hardtops. You'd feel like a king (or queen) in any one of them.



First new idea in station wagons in years—the "Observation Lounge!" The third seat of this Custom Sierra faces the rear, and passengers board at rear, also.

Here's sports car lowness with sports car handling. You sweep along in a "Realm of Silence," master curves with race-car torsion bars. Up to 310 hp. V-8.

Swept·Wing sweeps country!
Orders doubled on '57 Dodge!

It unleashes a hurricane of power
It breaks through the vibration barrier
It is swept-wing mastery of motion

Look around you. People everywhere are stepping up to the fun and pride of owning a Swept-Wing '57 Dodge. (Including a great many who have been sold on other makes for years!)

What's caused this swing to Swept-Wing that has doubled orders over last year? Styling so fresh it makes other cars look "old hat" by comparison.

The greatest advances of 1957: Torsion-Aire Ride, Push-Button TorqueFlite, Total-Contact Brakes. Luxury car looks and performance at a price just above the very lowest.

Find out for yourself why Swept-Wing is sweeping the country. See your nearby Dodge dealer and join the swing . . . Go Swept-Wing!

Student Traveler Finds Edinburgh Is Fascinating

(Second in a Series)

by MARY ELIZABETH KINGSLEY

Despite the vivid descriptions I had of Edinburgh before I arrived, I was quite unprepared for what I found.

Edinburgh is literally built on or around 7 hills, each of distinctive beauty.

There are, as well, the Pentland Hills, a sort of pocket size mountain range just outside the city limits on the south. The Scots, like the English, are enthusiastic gardeners, and flowers bloom in profusion in the countless city parks from March to December.

SCOTS' HOSPITALITY has kept most of us from being homesick. For example, one evening at the theater I chanced to sit next to a local minister and his wife. They have invited me to tea several times since, besides introducing me to the young peoples group at their church, through which I have gained an entirely new circle of friends.

Our American accents give us away as soon as we speak, not to mention the characteristic way we dress. Kneesocks are worn here only by boys under 10 and American college girls. The fellows crewcuts are their distinction.

There is no lack of things to do in Edinburgh. During the fall term we enjoyed week long visits from the Italian Opera Company, Sadler Wells Theater Ballet and Jose Greco and his Spanish dancers, just to mention the most outstanding attractions.

The Scottish National Orchestra gives a concert each Friday evening all year round. Most of the best (and many of the worst) American movies find their way here and have enthusiastic audiences.

BILL HALEY and his Comets are scheduled to appear soon, incidentally. Rock n' Roll is as much a household word as in America. Happily, admission prices put all of these attractions well within the range of nearly everyone. Gallery seats are 30 cents, 20 cents at Saturday matinees. Consquently, most Edinburgh people have an extensive knowledge and enormous appreciation of the theater and the arts.

After 11 p.m. Edinburgh goes to sleep. The local bus system, which is very extensive, closes operation at 11 and this rather effectively closes down the town. By law, pubs close at 10 p.m., dances usually end by 11:30 and by midnight there is nary a store or restaurant still open. I have walked clear across town at midnight and seen not a single vehicle on the streets.

Student life is marked by a large measure of freedom, since most students live in rooming houses and have few rules to abide by. Societies are organized for every interest from debating to Scottish country dance to Scottish nationalism. Every Saturday evening there is an informal dance at the men's union to which both men and women go stag.

WE AMERICAN students have grown quite fond of Edinburgh for a variety of reasons. For where else would you find whole families going for Sunday walks together all in their kilts? Where besides here can you watch the lamp lighter go around on his bicycle to light the gas lamps?

The sunset over the Pentlands, the cobblestone streets of the Old Town — I love it all. The pace is delightfully slow and easy and somehow there is time to enjoy life to the fullest.

(Next week: A holiday trip to Paris, Switzerland and the Black Forest of Germany). (B7

Visitors

Weekend visitors of the Adam Kwiecinskis were the Walter Kwiecinskis and son, Eddie, of Madison, Wis.

A "poker session" was held at Les and Betty Schneider's Sunday evening. Guests included the William Whitelaws, Bill Marchettis, the Clyde Houses, Arthur Cisewskis and Grace Sylvester.

Janis and Mike Kwiecinski have been confined with chicken pox this last week.

Greg Combs had a slight accident Monday afternoon, which turned into a major operation Tuesday morning. He had stepped on a needle. Part of it remained in his foot, too near the bone, so surgery was necessary in the Northwest hospital, Chicago. Greg returned home Tuesday evening. His playmates wish him speedy recovery.

The Triangle club met at the home of Mary Ann Haapoja Tuesday evening and the rummage sale was discussed. Once again, the members wish to remind everyone to save rummage and white elephants for the sale, which is to be April 5 and 6. To have anything picked up, any member of the Triangle club may be called and they will be glad to pick it up.

Pre-Easter Plans

Friday morning a special meeting of the Auxiliary of the Wedgewood Improvement association was called at the home of Irene Becker. Plans for pre-Easter activities were discussed.

Forest View mothers club met Tuesday at the school. The present officers of the club are to be the nominating committee for next year's officers. They hope members will be willing to have their names put up for nomination. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Eunice Hutchings and Mrs. Van Dyke.

Volunteers are still needed to help stitch on the quilt for the bazaar. For information contact Mrs. Avis Fisher, CL 5-0805.

Scout News

The monthly pack meeting for den 5 of Forest View school will be held at Dryden school Monday, March 25, at 7:30 p.m. The boys are to wear the Indian costumes they have been making this past month.

Congratulations

Congratulations were extended Mr. and Mrs. Howard Koepke of S. Belmont, who celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary March 12.

Several children are home from school this week with measles. Included are the 3 Grismer children, Dickie Currier and Gene Hutchings.

Return Home

The Stan Luczak family have returned from vacationing in Florida. They spent the time sightseeing and visiting friends in Lakeland and Tampa.

The Richard Fishers returned home Sunday after visiting friends in Madison, Wis., over the first weekend and then friends in Lexington, Ky., during the week.

At the recent safety award meeting of Shell Oil company, Argo division, Gale Best received an award in recognition of 2 eyars accident free driving.

Attend Convention

Mr. and Mrs. George Mailfold and Mrs. Jack Fingle attended the convention of the Independent Order of Foresters at the Congress hotel, Chicago, Saturday.

Pat Burditt spent a recent weekend in Bensenville visiting Pat Floring and Barbara Julseth. They attended the Fenton high school game, where Pat met several old friends.

Magazine Drive

There is still time to renew subscriptions for magazines through the upper grade students, who are holding their magazine drive this week. New subscriptions are also welcome. (AC

Don't Wait for a Polio Epidemic

Immunization against polio consists of three injections. The first two are given two to six weeks apart. The third is given seven to ten months later. Maximum protection does not develop until after the last injection. So don't wait for a polio epidemic. Be immunized now. See your family physician.

Northwest Realty Board To Hear Of Family Service

The monthly dinner meeting today of the Northwest Suburban Realtors Association will be devoted to hearing the Family Service organization. The meeting will be held at Jack Gunnell's restaurant, Rand Road, Mt. Prospect.

Wade T. Searles of the Welfare Council of Metropolitan Chicago, director of the council's suburban project will speak. He has been working with suburban communities in Cook, DuPage and Lake Counties, advising them on health, recreation and welfare problems. The rapid growth of our suburban villages has brought with it many social welfare problems.

IN THE past year, Searles has assisted Niles township, LaGrange, Lake Forest and 18 communities in South Cook County develop family service programs.

Dr. Ralph Clabaugh, local superintendent of schools, will discuss local needs and Attorney Stephen Jurco will outline the organization of the Northwest Suburban Family Service Association. (AMP

KICKIN' IT AROUND

by Bob Paddock

CONFERENCE RUNNER-UP heavyweight in the Midwest conference wrestling meet at Cedar Rapids was big Bruce Wilkerson, 240-pound Grinnell college sophomore from Arlington Heights . . . Wilkerson won 2 matches, 1 by a pin and 1 by decision, before bowing to Charles Machacek, Carleton senior, in the finals by a close decision. An ankle sprain suffered in the semi-finals handicapped Wilkerson in the title match . . . During the dual-meet season Wilkerson lost only 1 match, and numbered Machacek among his victims . . . Wilkerson won a varsity grid letter at Grinnell.

Bruce Wilkerson

Dennis Maher of Arlington is a member of the Jonathan Edwards college basketball squad at Yale . . . Jonathan Edwards is one of the 10 residential colleges at Yale . . . The intercollege athletic plan at Yale provides competition for upperclassmen at various levels of competition throughout the year . . . Maher played freshman basketball and football last year, winning his numeral in both sports . . . He is working toward a degree in chemical engineering.

THIS COULD BE declared Tom Jacobsen week on the sports pages serving Paddock papers within Arlington high school district . . . Tom made the headline for the all-star cage team, he won the free throw trophy, and is only letterman back for state champion golf squad . . . Last week he was declared individual scoring champ of the WSC in basketball . . . For benefit of fans, by the way, Paddock Publications sports pages currently have 3-5 different sports make-ups each week, depending upon which high and grade school, and which Little League, is being served.

Of 10 boys named to the WSC all-star cage team are 6 juniors and 1 sophomore . . . Large number of juniors used on teams throughout the area made this possible, and possibly was the reason caliber of play was down this year, largely due to inexperience and immaturity of many of the boys.

Not 1 LaGrange boy was named among the first 10 . . . We also carry this week the first all-star wrestling team for the WSC . . . It's another step making the fast-growing sport full-fledged within the league, though we don't agree with naming 2 boys at each of the 12 weights as a first all-star team . . . That's too high a percentage of everyone competing . . . Heights had 4 boys named.

WSC champ LaGrange had 6 boys selected, the team of 8 seniors having a 54-6-3 record in 4 years of dual competition.

Two years as frosh-sophs brought the group 11-0-2 and 15-2-0, then 14-1-1 and 14-3-0 as varsity . . . Named most valuable grappler at LaGrange was Mike Ferguson with Tom Edwards selected honorary captain . . . Winning most pins was Bob Andrews with 5 with Jim Agnew garnering most take downs, 30.

FIRST REACTION from our paragraph last week anent the Paddock golf tournament came in Thursday . . . Bensenville VFW golf league will have 2 divisions of 32 men each this year . . . It will be considered to be 2 different leagues, just like Mt. Prospect's 2 leagues when tournament time comes . . . Once again we suggest golf leagues set aside enough money to pay for tourney entry fee to make winning a tourney berth that much more attractive . . . Each golfer will then indirectly kick in about 40c with a chance to gain a free round of golf, plus possible honors, etc.

Another golf league splitting into 2 divisions due to rapid growth is the St. Raymond group competing at Mt. Prospect . . . This year's lineup will include 2-8 team divisions with 5 men per team.

Arlington high school golf hopefuls have reported 50 strong in quest of repeat WSC, district, state and national titles, but only 1 letterman is back . . . That record low 281 of Coach Curtis Larsen's title-winning squad a year ago has yet to be beaten in high school golf across the nation, according to various trade journals . . . This will be the tenth straight season, by the way, for Cardinal duffers to use Old Orchard golf course free of charge for all practice and matches through courtesy of pro Ben Riley.

Such arrangements are almost unheard in high school circles, and has certainly been the largest single contributing factor to winning golf.

Lake Park high golf mentor Jerry Carpenter hails from Iowa where girls compete in golf matches, same as the boys . . . Iowa believes in inter-school sports for both boys and girls, even has the Iowa and Texas state girls' cage champs meet each other every year.

IT ISN'T OFTEN we give a commercial in this column, but The Blue Book of facts, figures and records of IHSA series of basketball tournaments put out by Duff-Wightman of Farmer City, Ill., is an unbeatable record of the sweet 16 tournaments clear back to 1908. The book, which sells for $2, includes a list of state champs, runners-up, title game scores, state finalists and other schools in the final "16" tournaments. There's a record of number of times in the tourney, a consistency chart, total points, winners average, losers average, average point spread, etc., for each year.

There is the usual listing of "mostest" everything under the sun, team and individual, which includes names of coaches taking 3 different schools to the state tournament.

We found Palatine coach Jack Fabri listed here, taking Springfield Cathedral in '42, Collinsville in '46 and LaSalle-Peru in '48. Then there's the list of pairings and complete results for the state tournaments for all those years, plus box scores of all championship games, plus listing of major all-state cage teams. We know we'll prize our copy.

ONE OF THE AMERICAN LEAGUE'S most exclusive and hard-to-crash clubs—"The Lifetime .300 Hitters"—has a brand new member who looks like a good bet to some day occupy its top chair. He is Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees. After the 1955 season, the blond New York star had a lifetime hitting average of .298 compiled through 658 games. In 1956, with a fat .353 season average, Mickey boosted his lifetime mark, through 808 games, to a fine .308, a gain of 10 points. It is not unlikely that the kid from Oklahoma some day will be the top man in this .300 circle, a position long held by Boston's Ted Williams.

Through 1956, and a total of 1815 games which began in 1939, Williams holds a .348 lifetime bat mark.

As the 1957 season nears, the league has 9 players holding better than .300 plate marks, all of whom have played in more than 300 games. Below the leading figure of Williams is that of Bill Skowron of New York. The husky first sacker, in 329 games, has averaged .319 with his bat. Harvey Kuenn, Detroit's shortstop star, has been in 620 games and holds a .313 lifetime figure. These stars follow in order: (with the first figure being games played) Al Kaline, Detroit, 473-.311; Mantle, 808-.308; Minny Minoso, Chicago, 896-.307; George Kell, Baltimore, 1,696-.307; Billy Goodman, Boston, 1,159-.306; and Enos Slaughter, New York, 2,122-.303.

Seniors and juniors on the Arlington high school varsity cage squad this year will be guests of the athletic department at the super-sectional at McGaw hall, Northwestern university, Tuesday evening. Managers will also be included. Junior lettermen Jack Weber, Bob Lockwood and Bruce Bjorklund will see the Elite 8 finals at Champaign Friday and Saturday of next week. (Sp

Tom Jacobsen and Bob Lockwood of Arlington high school were named to the West Suburban conference all-star basketball aggregation this week as coaches selected the mythical team. Glenbard placed 3 boys, York 2, and Downers Grove, Maine and Hinsdale 1 each.

Neither La Grange nor Riverside-Brookfield placed anyone on the first list, though these 2 schools did gain places in the honorable mention list.

Rich Edwards of Glenbard is smallest boy on the squad, standing 5-9. Otherwise it is 6 boys standing 6-4, and 1 standing 6-3, the tallest group in several years since the days of Voss of Riverside and Vawter of Arlington, both 6-7 boys.

BOB LOCKWOOD, 6-3 junior for Arlington, is outstanding under the boards, the sixth best scorer in the conference. He is aggressive, very coachable, strong physically, a boy who improved his defensive play during the season. Bob had his difficulties at the free throw circle early in the season but managed to iron out many of his problems.

Tom Jacobsen, 6-4 senior, developed into a fine leader, captain of the Cardinal team. Normally a forward, Tom moved to guard when the team was in need of strength at that position. He won individual scoring title in the league, as well as the team's free throw award as he led his team to the school's best mark in WSC competition.

An excellent rebounder and adept ball handler, Tom became an outstanding shot in spite of every club planning a defense to stop him.

BILL PALMER gained honorable mention, is a 6-4 senior, a center. Bill developed a good outside shot, became an outstanding defensive rebounder. Palmer is a good driver who was handicapped by an ankle injury and shoulder operation, the only regular back from a year ago.

Jack Weber, 6-3 junior forward, is an excellent feeder, the team's top rebounder. Jack is a fair scorer, a man who improved over the season more than any boy on the squad, an excellent competitor.

BOB GRUBER of Maine, 6' junior guard, is perhaps the outstanding outside shooter in the league, a fine ball handler and dribbler. Bob's a lefty, fifth best scorer in the WSC, an aggressive defensive player. As Gruber went, so did Maine.

Ken Lutgens, 6-4 soph forward from Downers Grove, is a strong rebounder, an excellent outside shooter with better than average speed for driving shots. Ken will probably be the first 10-letter man in school history, after winning a lettter with the conference championship baseball team last spring, plus a football award this past fall. Ken is a good "B" student with great desire to improve himself.

WAYNE MILLIES, 6-4 junior York center, is an excellent rebounder, pivot shooter and passer, second in league scoring. Wayne has a variety of interests, runs dashes and middles distances, and high jumps, in track, has a large classical music collection. He's cooperative, a good competitor, modest.

Len Mahony, 6-4 junior guard from York, is a good ball handler, dribbler and outside shooter, a fine defensive rebounder. Len is a modest, cooperative, easy-going boy who loves classical music, and plays baseball in spring and summer.

Walter Celusta, 6-4 Hinsdale junior forward, also played center when necessary, tallied 258 points in the WSC. He averaged 18.5 per game, could develop into a fine college player.

BILL BIEDERMAN, 6-1 senior forward, is a repeat Glenbard performer on the all-star team. He made it last year as a guard. An outstanding competitor, Bill is the best all-around player on the team. He scored 320 points in 23 games, shot 45.5 per cent from the field and 74.8 per cent from the free throw circle.

Tom Thomson, 6-4 junior Glenbard guard, is fast for his 190 pounds, is the team's leading rebounder and top scorer with 400 points. A very fine shooter close to the basket, Tom had a 46.8 per cent average for the year.

Rich Edwards, 5-9 senior Glenbard guard, shot 42 per cent from the field with most of his shots in the 18-24 foot range. His best assets are speed and accuracy. Rich sank 80 per cent of his free throws with 44 good ones of 55 attempts.

Agase Speaker At Booster Club Banquet March 20

Alex Agase, Northwestern line coach and former football All-American from Illinois, will be at Arlington high school Wednesday evening, March 20, as the Cardinals Booster club holds its annual spring sports banquet for high school athletes.

The affair, set for 6:45 p.m. in the high school cafeteria, will give special recognition to the winter sports of basketball, wrestling and gymnastics, plus a "send-off" for the spring sports of track, golf, baseball and tennis. The athletes will be special guests of the Booster club and parents, Booster club members and others interested in the high school athletic program invited to attend at $2 per ticket.

GUEST SPEAKER Alex Agase is a native of Evanston, and gained fame at the University of Illinois, where he was an All-American guard and tackle for 3 years. He was a Rose Bowl star in 1947 with Illinois, and after graduation in '47 played professional football first with the old Chicago Rockets and later with the Cleveland Browns.

In 1954 and 1955 Agase was line coach at Iowa State college. Last year when Ara Parseghian was appointed head coach at Northwestern, he lured Agase away from Iowa State and no one has ever been sorry since, except Iowa State.

MUCH CREDIT for Northwestern's success on the gridiron last Fall must go to the line coaching. Wildcat lines gained the reputation of being fast, aggressive and hard-hitting. Agase will be introduced at the banquet by a former Northwestern football star, Robert Nelson, well-known Arlington Heights real estate broker. Bob played halfback on the Wildcats Rose Bowl team of 1949.

Booster club banquets in the past have been well attended. Tickets are usually sold out a day or two prior to the banquet, so parents and others are urged to get their tickets in advance. Limited seating space in the cafeteria naturally limits the number of tickets that can be sold. (Sp

Oak Park vs Evanston In Arlington Sectional

Oak Park and Evanston will meet in the Arlington sectional tournament Thursday night of this week, with the winner meeting the winner of Wednesday night's Barrington-Leyden game.

Championship game is scheduled for 8 p.m. Friday night, with a full house almost assured for that night. Fans can probably pick up tickets in the business office of Arlington high school during the day, and probably at the door Thursday night, but they are urged to acquire them ahead of time for Friday night's session.

JUST WHO is favored in the Heights sectional is problematical. It's the type of tournament that could make a liar out of any sports writer. The clash between Leyden Eagles and Barrington Bronchos hasn't been played as this is written, yet will be past history before this reaches the eyes of fans.

Tournament promoters are hoping it will be Barrington. Gate receipts, which always pay the freight for any athletic program at any high school, are certain to benefit if Barrington fans will again turn out en masse Friday night.

IN FACT, if Oak Park should whip Evanston Thursday night, we're going to personally hide in a corner of the gym as soon as school is out Friday afternoon to be certain of getting a seat. All games are slated to start at 8 p.m.

Admission to all sessions is $1 for all comers. Student tickets can be acquired in advance at 75 cents. Officiating the tourney will be Ed Bronson of Evergreen Park, and Tony Sacco of Oak Park. As of Tuesday just 1 radio station, WNUR-FM, the Northwestern university station, had contracted to carry the Evanston game or games. (Sp

50 Report For Golf At Heights

Fifty boys reported Tuesday to golf coaches Curtis Larsen and Rusty Dowell with every title in the books up for defense at Arlington high school.

Last year's teams won both varsity and frosh-soph titles within the West Suburban league. Varsity copped district honor, and took the state, too. That low 281 for the year for the team also ranged first nationally, according to a constant search of trade journals by Coach Larsen.

BUT ALL will be forgotten this year when only 1 letterman will be back, Tom Jacobsen, who has been keeping in shape for golf by reaching for the hoop in basketball all winter as he tucked away the WSC individual scoring title.

Gone from the hallowed Cardinal walls are Wayne Rolfs, Mike Spinello, Bud Holm, Bob McDonald and Denny Evans. Coming up to the varsity from last year's frosh-soph champs will be Rick Lindstrom, John Moehling, John Murry and Jim Goodling.

THE SQUAD of 50 boys will be cut to a composite group of 15 boys by Easter, with 36-hole elimination matches during Easter vacation determining just who stays. There are some promising sophomores present, plus a lot of frosh. Varsity positions are wide open with enthusiastic competition for these coveted spots certain to help the school record in golf.

First matches for Heights are scheduled at Glenbrook April 9, with Palatine April 11, at Waukegan April 18 and the WSC opener with York April 22. Once again the high school team will be able to use Old Orchard golf course free of charge for all practices and matches. Jacobsen will miss those first matches while vacationing in Florida with his parents. (Sp

Hts Gymnasts In State Meet

Ten Arlington high school gymnasts will compete in the state meet at Champaign this weekend, a 2-day affair starting with eliminations Friday evening and the finals Saturday.

Interesting feature of this year's group making the trip with coaches Gay Hughes and Rick Farris is that nary a single boy is a senior. Every 1 will be back next year for more, a bright outlook after the varsity's dismal mark this season.

JUNIORS Bruce Robb and Ed Wilson will be competing in all-around, which includes all 5 kinds of apparatus. Three more juniors included are Ed Wolf on rings, Marty Green on horizontal bar and parallel bars, and Ed Kelly on side horse.

The sophomores making the trip include Gary Moreland on trampoline and tumbling, Mike Lyons and Terry Loveless on trampoline, and Bob Schoepke in tumbling. Freshman Dick Anderson will compete in tumbling.

Top 10 boys of each event Friday night will compete in the finals for team points Saturday.

Card 9 Needs Good Hurlers

Grapefruit league has nothing on Arlington high school where varsity baseball candidates are scheduled to report to Coach Howard Lester Monday. Frosh-soph and freshman hopefuls are not expected to be called out by Coaches "Bus" Ormsbee and Frank Bohac until the weather turns warmer.

Big problem for the Card varsity 9 will be pitching. Gone from the premises are John Sujack, Alan Smeby and Bob Getts. This trio won most of the Heights games last year and have graduated. Otherwise the squad is expected to be composed of veterans.

The opener is still a month away.

SEVERAL TWIRLERS will be available, including seniors Bob Miller, Pat Brownell, Jerry Klement, and junior Denny Thill, who was with the varsity last season. A junior transfer from New York state with a pitcher's rating who may be of help is Wayne Knight.

Up from last year's frosh-soph 9 is John O'Berg. Two sophomores expected to be of help to Coach Lester are Vern Soenksen and Don Gerken. (Sp

Old Orchard Lady Golfers To Dine, Organize For Year

Tuesday Old Orchard ladies golf league will hold its annual pre-season breakfast at Brandt's restaurant in Palatine April 9, starting at 9:30.

The league will open competition Tuesday morning, May 14, at Old Orchard country club. Guests and interested golfers are welcome to attend the breakfast where plans for the coming season will be made.

Information about the league can be gained by calling Harriet Rahn, president, at CLearbrook 3-0813. Breakfast reservations must be made by calling Jane Salzman, social chairman, at CLearbrook 3-3057. All such reservations must be made by April 2. (Sp

Mt. Prospect Golfers Plan April 29 Start

Mt. Prospect twilight golf league will start its 17th season of competition Monday, April 29.

Officers for the coming season held their first meeting Tuesday, March 5 at the home of senior president "Red" Barrow. The meeting was more or less a general discussion concerning minor rule changes and methods of handling operations for the season. Any changes made will be incorporated in the yearly golf book.

Cards were mailed Monday, March 9 to regular and alternate members of last season. These must be filled out and returned by March 25 at which time another meeting will be held to form teams for the season. (Sp

MAC SAYS

by G. A. McELROY

LOCALLY THE basketball season is over except from a spectator standpoint. Fans were watching the sectional at Arlington Heights this week where Barrington opposed Leyden and Evanston, took on Oak Park Wednesday and Thursday in first round games with the winners clashing Friday night for the right to play the Chicago champ, probably Crane Tech, in the first round of the state at Northwestern University next Tuesday. The Arlington sectional shapes up as a very tight tournament. We like Barrington and Evanston for the final. In the other Chicago area sectionals it looks like Elgin and either Bloom or Thornton would clash in the first game of the state to be played at Hinsdale.

BOB MADDING

Only the champions of the North Suburban and Northwest conferences won more than 1 tournament game this year. It was fitting the champs should meet in the Barrington regional finals with Barrington beating Grant 64-57 in a very good ball game. Antioch and Palatine, who tied for second in the Northwest, each won 1 tournament game and failed in the regional semi-finals. Palatine's 71-66 victory over Maine at Glenbrook was one of the most nearly mechanically perfect games a Palatine team has ever played.

A record of 27 out of 30 free throws by the Pirates and a total of 41 out of 47 by two teams is an outstanding record. Maine shot 40% from the field and 14 of 17 free throws and lost.

Roy Hahnfeld's 11 straight free throws set a record for Palatine players as did the team total for Palatine teams. Twenty-two field goals in 44 shots was certainly a Palatine tournament record. One night the Pirates made only 6 mechanical errors and 2 nights later they went to the other extreme in their one-sided defeat at the hands of Leyden but ended a very fine season with an 11-11 record, a long way from that 2-22 mark of 1956. Coach Fabri developed a team which had remarkable morale and was one of Palatine's very best from the standpoint of cooperation, observance of training rules, team play, and defense.

FENTON PASSED OUT of the tournament picture at the hands of York as one of the greatest of Bison athletes, Lars Henriksen, played his last game. Handicapped by lack of height and an early season injury which sidelined Bernie Sell until mid-January, the Bisons tied for 4th in the conference with a season split but, like Palatine, did not fare very well in non-league competition with larger schools.

Barrington's regional championship was their 6th in the last 8 years but was Coach Bob Madding's first in 3 years.

The past two years Arlington had upset favored Broncho teams and last Friday night Madding saw visions of the same thing as Grant rallied to come within 2 points of Barrington with 2 minutes to play. Madding has done a good job at Barrington and with Thorpe and Berg returning and fine material coming up the Bronchos are expected to be a top team for at least another 3 years. Only trouble at Barrington is that among their fine athletes there never seems to be one of the 6-5 or 6-6 size to give them that needed height at center so necessary for a good team to become really great.

DUNDEE WON the Little Seven basketball championship for the 13th time in the last 16 years. This is their last year in the circuit which they have dominated so successfully the past 2 decades. Next year Dundee's Car-Dun-Als coached by "Gene" deLacey will try to increase their cage prestige in the North Suburban conference. Dundee under deLacey has had phenomenal records. They won 70 Little Seven games in a row before being whipped in an overtime by Wheaton in 1944. After that they had another string of 55 in a row.

Dundee won the state title in 1938 with Capt. Don Blanken, who was captain and a 3 year regular at Purdue, and Chris Hanson, who starred 3 years on Bradley's "Wonder Five."

They had a 3rd in 1946 and sectional titles in 1937, 1938, 1941 and 1946. Dundee would have been in the state many other times but for the fact they have always been in the same regional with another great basketball school, neighboring Elgin. Among other great college players developed at Dundee by deLacey are Ed Unruh, Bud Grover, and Bill Dobler of Bradley; Don Schuberg of University of Oregon; Ken Menke of the Illinois Whiz Kid team; Jim Schuldt, Illinois regular 3 years; Glenn Adams of Marquette; and Ron Schumacher of Northwestern University. Many boys just as good as the college stars did not go on to school.

Dundee's fast break, well conditioned teams with their tight shifting man for man defense will add much to North Suburban competition where Barrington, Libertyville, and Crystal Lake will be real tough opposition next season.

10 YEARS AGO—March 14, 1947—The all-star team selected in the Northeast Conference included Bill Kleiner and Allan Stroker of Arlington Heights, Bob Nelson and Don Holt of Crystal Lake, and Bornell of Libertyville . . . On the second team were Krause, Scully, and Franz of Crystal Lake, Price of Lake Forest, and Huffman of Leyden . . . Dundee won the state regional tournament at Woodstock by beating McHenry in the first round, Crystal Lake in the semi-finals, and Elgin 37-26 in the final. Arlington Heights lost to Hebron 40-31 and Palatine was wiped out by Elgin 57-23 . . . Arlington had a fine 17-5 season with leading scorers Al Stroker 271, Bill Kleiner 245, Vic Heimsoth 132, Bill Robinson 108, Dan Magnus 68, Len Garms 54, Burt Dahlstrom 53, and Will Hogreve 43 . . . The Palatine Realtors independent team coached by "Bud" Nangle and sponsored by Roy LaLonde, Palatine real estate broker, finally lost a game after winning 18 in a row, losing to the Elmhurst Rockets. The next night they beat Highwood for 19 out of 20 for the season prior to tournament play.

20 YEARS AGO—March 12, 1937—Art Meyer of Glenview won scoring honors in the area Lutheran League with 127 in the first half of the season and 128 in the second half. His average of 17 points a game was unusual for basketball in the thirties. George Beyer of Palatine had an 11.7 average while Ray Hinrichs had 9.7 and Harvey Helms 8.6 . . . A "new deal" Northwest conference basketball schedule was approved calling for 10 games for each of the 13 schools in the league. The schedule calls for each school to play home and home with 3 neighbors and single games with 4 others in their area with 5 members of the league not scheduled.

A TOTAL of as many as 2,500,000 persons will see the state finals at Champaign in basketball on Saturday afternoon and evening March 23 through the medium of television sponsored by the Illinois Bell Telephone Company. This is fortunate considering that the University of Illinois, largest school in the Big Ten, has the poorest sports facilities and is the only member without a field house.

Huff gym seats only 6,500 and a lot of those seats are partly obscured by posts from a view of the whole basketball court.

Jack Thome, Palatine High senior, may be a new record holder before the season is over in track. Last week Jack pole vaulted 11 feet against Maine. Palatine's school record held by Dick Stinson and made in 1943 is 11 feet 3 inches.

JACOBSEN WINS FREE THROW TROPHY

First winner of the VFW's Warren Henken memorial trophy for having the best record in free throws this past varsity is Tom Jacobsen, West Suburban league's leading scorer.

Tom sank 112 free throws of 157 attempts for the season, a 71% mark that was just ahead of Dan Vittum with 68%. Twice Tom made all of his free throws in games, once 11 of 11, and once 9 of 9. In other games it was 10 of 11, 9 of 10, 3 of 4.

Bruce Bjorklund sank 67%. So did Tom Grey. Jack Weber made 63%. Bill Palmer counted 61%. The team counted 429 charities of 590 shots, for an overall mark of 62%. Here's the complete rundown:

Tom Jasobsen	112-157	71%
Dan Vittum	15-22	68%
Bruce Bjorklund	38-57	67%
Tom Grey	12-18	67%
Jack Weber	61-96	63%
Bill Palmer	77-125	61%
Jerry Klement	8-14	59%
Denny Thill	6-11	55%
Bob oLckwood	93-176	52%
Pat Brownell	5-12	41%
Bob Mors	2-2	100%

Palatine Bows Out Of Frosh Cage Tourney

Evergreen Park and North Chicago were slated to clash in the finals of the Elmwood Park freshman invitational tournament Wednesday night as a result of beating Palatine and the host school in the semi-finals Monday. Palatine lost to Evergreen Park 47-45 in an overtime after having advanced at the expense of Lake Park on Saturday by a count of 39-37.

Palatine came from behind to outscore Lake Park 10-4 in the last quarter and win their first round game 39-37. They were tied at 17 all at the half but fell behind 33-29 in the third quarter.

MONDAY NIGHT Evergreen Park scored 5 points in the overtime after the game ended 41 all. Palatine trailed 22-14 at the half and 34-28 going into the last quarter. Dietrich, Sanborn, and Link led the last period rally which tied the score but Evergreen Park had too much in the overtime as 3 Palatine regulars were out of the game on 5 fouls.

Bill Dietrich scored 12 to lead the Pirates while Nickol had 9 and DePue 7. Schultz of Evergreen Park scored 14 and LaDore 17. (Sp

Card Thinclads 2nd In Meet

Arlington high school track squads came out second best in a triangular at Maine with Niles Tuesday afternoon. Maine carded 80½ at varsity level with Arlington getting 30 and Niles 17½. At frosh-soph level it was Maine 73 1/4, Heights 51½ and Niles 3.

Stan Norman was the only "gold medal" winner for Heights with firsts in broad jump at 20-4½ and high jump at 5-103/4. Kurtz winished second in 880 and Carl Klehm copped second in shot with a toss of 50-4½. Winning toss was by Ornberg of Maine at 53-2. Further varsity points for Arlington were gained by Koopman in 880, Weber in shot, Norman in 50 yard dash, Weber in both low and high hurdles.

THE FROSH-SOPH story was somewhat different. Whitelaw won high hurdles in :07.1. O'Neil took the lows in :06.6. Marks won the mile in 4:56.4. Whitelaw copped the high jump at 5-3. McDowell pole vaulted major factor in the contest.

Arlington had moved past Maryville Academy in first round competition by a towering 94-50 score. Bob Lockwood tallied 31 points as all 10 Arlington players got into the scoring column.

Bad 2nd Half Costs Cards Regional Win

Leyden walked off with the honors at the Glenbrook regional Friday night by whipping Niles, 56-53. The winners won the right to enter the Arlington Heights sectional, being staged this week.

Arlington's Cardinals and Palatine bowed out of competition in Thursday night's play. Arlington lost to Niles 74-66 while Leyden walked over the Pirates, 63-35.

THE CARDS couldn't find the range in the second half of the Niles encounter. The Trojans overcame a first half deficit to lead throughout the second half of play. The two teams had put up a terrific battle of good basketball before the chilling halftime intermission.

Bruce Bjorklund's 12 points in the first quarter sent Arlington into a 22-17 lead. Larry Van Mersbergan kept the Trojans within striking distance with his deadly jump shot and rebounding ability.

ARLINGTON was still in command, 42-38, at halftime. However, Arlington started missing the basket with shots which had scored in the first half. Next to go was the control of the boards. When Niles had taken over the control of the ball, the conquest was complete.

Niles led 54-51 at the end of the third quarter. With only 1 minute to play, the Cards trailed by an insurmountable 12 points. Bob Lockwood's 4 points at the game's close narrowed the gap to the final 74-66 ending.

PALATINE was powerless against the rangier Leyden crew. The Eagles' defense kept the losers at a distance. In the third quarter Palatine got off only 5 shots and scored only 1 of those. The Pirates shot only 15 times in the second half. It is interesting to note that Palatine could have made all of their shots in the second half and still have lost the game.

Leyden led 43-20 at halftime and 45-22 at the three-quarter mark. Poor ball-handling was a

Grade School Wrestling Tourney At Heights High

Grade school wrestling tournament, sponsored by Arlington VFW Post 981, will be held Saturday morning and afternoon, March 30, with all 7th and 8th graders of Arlington high school district 214 eligible.

Most of the grade schools of the area cooperating with high school coaches Dick Mudge and Maurice Kellogg in the tournament, with the Heights VFW donating a beautiful traveling team trophy, plus ribbons to the first 4 places in each of 12 weight divisions.

SOME SCHOOLS in the area have developed a full program of wrestling, fastest growing sport at high school level in the state. Others have skeleton programs picking up momentum as time goes on. Eight schools have already signified interest in the tournament, with other seventh and eighth graders eligible to compete individually if they wish.

"We believe there is tremendous interest in wrestling," stated high school mentor Dick Mudge, "and when the VFW suggested the tournament as part of their youth program we agreed to go all out in operating the meet. Every seventh and eighth grade boy within the area served by Arlington high school is eligible.

"WE HAVE BEEN offering limited instruction at several grade schools the past 5 years, tossing mats in the station wagon and traveling from school to school. Our own boys have helped in this instruction. This year we don't have enough boys to give instruction at every school within the district, but several of the schools of the area have a full program that the tournament is certain to attract a lot of interest."

Any seventh and eighth grade boys wishing to enter the tournament can do so by contacting Coach Dick Mudge at the high school. Competition is scheduled in 77, 83, 90, 97, 105, 112, 118, 125, 135, 155 and heavyweight divisions. Instruction is scheduled at some of the schools preparatory to the tournament.

THE SCHOOLS indicating interest in the tournament, and planning team entries, include the following grade schools, with name of coach indicated:

Arlington Heights junior high, coach Bob Spinks.

Prospect Heights, coach Ben Kozlik.

Wheeling, coach John Berry.
Wilson, coach Bob Siednius.
Elk Grove, coach Tony Kuzich.
St. Peter, coach Lester Rush.

Many of the coaches met Thursday night, March 7, in a review of rules and fundamentals with Coach Mudge directing. (Sp

Another first has been scored in the West Suburban conference with the naming of the all-star wrestling team.

Grappling is the fastest growing high school sport in the state, and this first selection of an all-league team within the WSC includes 2 boys at each weight who did outstanding jobs for their schools.

On the Arlington front Jerry Bonn, Ralph Carlino, Pat Harris and Dean Schneck were named, York had 5 boys selected, with LaGrange garnering 6.

JERRY BONN of Arlington qualified for state finals as a sophomore at 95, same as he did as a freshman a year ago. Jerry had a 9-2 record in duals 15-4 overall. He beat ace competitor Chuck Alessi of York in the sectional 2 years running, though Chuck won in dual competition. Jerry took third in the strong Waukegan holiday tourney.

Ralph Carlino, 1 of the co-captains of the Heights squad, had an unblemished 11-0 mark in duals and stood 17-1 overall, is a junior who has qualified for the state at 95, 103 and 112 3 years running. He took second in the sectional as a freshman, copped sectional title and third in state as a sophomore, and second in sectional as a junior.

Ralph is the first Arlington boy ever to qualify for state finals in any sport as a freshman. Jerry Bonn is the second, by the way.

PAT HARRIS is the other co-captain for Arlington, is a senior with a 9-1 record in duals, 11-3 overall. Pat finished third in the sectional a year ago, took first this time at 127. His only dual loss was to Evans of Waukegan, who won the state championship.

Dean Schneck, the guy who "didn't have to worry about making weight, just wrestle," Arlington heavyweight, was also named and justly so. Dean had pressure on his shoulders all year, being the last 1 to compete in every WSC meet except 1.

In that thrilling sectional finish Dean's victory meant a team title for Heights with Schneck discovering Tuesday he had suffered a cracked bone in the wrist, putting him out of state finals competition. Dean's only dual loss was to Rosengren of Leyden.

MARV GETTY, all-league at 120 from Riverside-Brookfield, was undefeated in WSC competition, took third in sectional at Reavis. Because of transfer Marv was eligible to wrestle only since Jan. 29, but was named captain of the team. He lost to Finn of Oak Lawn, 3-2, in the sectional, who finished third in the state 2 years running.

Gary Doolen, all-league R-B grappler at 138, had a 4-1-1 mark in the conference, is an honor student and president of his class. He defeated Blaker of Maine, state champ, in dual competition.

Senior Dennis Weise of Downers Grove placed third at 175 in Reavis sectional after capturing the crown last year at Palatine. His record this season includes just 2 losses in 18 matches.

JIM AGNEW, 133 pound senior from LaGrange, had an 18-2-1 record, was sectional champ at Reavis, the top take-down on the squad with 30 for the year. During the season he defeated 127-pound state champ Bob Evans of Waukegan and 133-pound state champ Berndt Temmler of Proviso. His 4-year record is 53-9-1.

Bob Meyers, 112 pound LaGrange junior, had a season record of 13-4-1, took third at Reavis sectional. He placed fourth in the state finals a year ago at 95.

Paul Sliva, 145 pound LaGrange senior, had a 15-3-1 record, fourth in sectional at Reavis, was unbeaten in conference competition.

MIKE FERGUSON, 165 pound senior from LaGrange, had a 19-4-1 record for the year, was sectional champ 2 years in a row. Mike was state champ at 154 last year, and outstanding team man who wrestled at 3 weights during the year, wherever he could help the team most. Mike had a 4 year mark of 72-7-1.

Roy Smith, 154 pound LaGrange junior, had a 14-5-1 record, finished second in the sectional. Roy had 24 take downs for the year.

Tom Edwards, 175 pound LaGrange senior, had a 10-5-3 record, including 5-0-1 in the conference, is a good team man. (Sp

BRUCE ROBB will be 1 of the top performers for Arlington high school in the state gymnastics meet at Champaign this weekend, performing in "all-around," which includes 5 pieces of equipment. Bruce competed in a couple of meets last year for Coach Gay Hughes, and missed a trip downstate by a hair. Bruce recently suffered a pulled back muscle, but has recovered enough for the state meet. He's shown here doing a handstand cast for giant swings on horizontal bar, if our terminology is correct.

Navy Plays Host To Mariners For Great Lakes Tour

Seventeen girls from Arlington Heights Mariner Scout ship 95, led by Mrs. John Cordaro and Mrs. Robert Wolfe, recently toured Great Lake Naval Training center.

The scouts were the guests of local Navy Recruiters Fred J. Oehmke, ADC, and Dennis C. Barber, SW, whose office is located in Arlington Heights village hall.

PARTICIPATING in the tour were Jean Edgecumbe, Linda Hackbarth, Sue Knoepfle, Lois Lippold, Judy Lips, Cyndy Long, Joan Pauley, Babs Rasmussen, Sue Shogren, Gail Smith, Jean Sullivan, Pam Wickens, Judy Willer, Julianne Zimmerman, Judy Koeling, Myna Cordaro and Judy Fitz-Patrick.

The girls had a whirlwind tour of the mammouth naval station. They tourned the various training schools, including a visit to Journalist Class A school where the girls were met by the commanding officer. He explained the 12-week course. Examining the classrooms, the scouts saw the layout and make-up of newspapers and how the radio section operated. Here they tried a "spot announcement" on a radio set.

At Electronics Technician school, the commanding officer explained the 24-week course and led a tour to the radar and sonar rooms.

THE NEXT STOP on the tour was the gunners mate school where the girls were met by the school's commanding officer who showed them the large guns, explained what their range was, size of guns, how loaded and each guns use.

They also saw a gun recently set up and so large that a special barge had to be built to float the gun to Great Lakes.

The large guns in this school have platforms built around them representing 3 or more decks and the ammunition for mock firing comes up on elevators the same as aboard ship. Gunners Mate school is in a building with all blue translucent glass walls and is about 4 stories high and is therefore called the "Glass House" inside of this building is another building located in the center.

The center building is about 3 stories high and houses all the classrooms and is completely air conditioned, with the guns along the outer glass walls.

NEXT THE GIRLS were taken to the steam house of the Machinists mate school. This building is set up like the boiler room of a ship and it was explained how the speed of the engines were controlled in the engine room and how the water for use in the boilers and drinking is purified.

It was also explained how the steam generator, generates the electrical power for the ship.

The girls were taken to the galley where they ate their lunch, Navy style. (Pic

SHOWN IN FRONT of a twin-barreled 40 mm anti-aircraft gun at Great Lakes Naval Training center are Linda Hackbarth and Gail Smith of Arlington Heights and Jean Edgecumbe of Mount Prospect. In the background is the outer glass wall of the Gunners Mate school.

STANDING IN FRONT of a 5/38 gun in the Gunners Mate school at Great Lakes Naval Training center are Cyndy Long of Mount Prospect, group leader Mrs. John Cordaro, Babs Rasmussen and Pam Wickens of Arlington Heights. They were among 17 Mariner scouts who toured the center as guests of the local Navy recruiter.

Illinois Gas Added New Consumer Every 3 Minutes

Sparked by the continuing residential growth in the 260 communities it serves, Northern Illinois Gas company connected a record 1-year increase of 37,511 new customers to its system in 1956, President Marvin Chandler reported to stockholders in the utility's annual report released Friday.

This record - breaking achievement means that Northern Illinois Gas connected a new customer to its system at the rate of about 1 every 3½ minutes of every working day during 1956!

THE TOTAL of 562,880 served at the end of the year, Chandler said, represents an increase of 75 per cent during the past 10 years, and is reflected in the utility's total gas revenues that approximated $80,000,000 (a new high) in 1956. This compares to total revenues of about $69,200,000 in 1955.

Highlighting 1956 operations, Chandler mentioned that about $17,400,000 was spent on construction work in 1956. Optimistic about the continuing growth in the gas company's 20-county territory in northern Illinois, he reported plans to spend some $75,000,000 on construction work during the 1957-60 period, including about $21,000,000 this year.

To aid in this expansion program, Northern Illinois Gas sold $15,000,000 of 3-¾ per cent bonds in May, 1956. It probably will seek additional funds for 1957 construction projects during the latter half of this year.

INCLUDED in the construction program is land acquired for a headquarters building in Crystal Lake, construction of which is expected to be completed in 1958.

While public attention usually is directed to the company's long gas heat waiting list, the fact that the number of gas heat customers has increased from about 30,000 in 1946 (when the restriction order went into affect) to approximately 235,000 today attests to the ceaseless efforts of Northern Illinois Gas and its suppliers to challenge the number one problem — the natural gas supply. Interesting to note, the company estimates that it is now serving gas heat to about 55 per cent of all single family dwellings in its territory.

Despite the strides made during the past decade, Northern Illinois Gas has been unable to keep up with continuing demands for gas heat.

Chandler is not optimistic that Northern Illinois Gas can reduce its residential gas heat waiting list further until it can obtain the 45 per cent increase in its natural gas pipeline supply which Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America proposes to bring from the Rocky Mountain area and the southwestern gas fields. Natural Gas Pipeline's request for permission to construct this pipeline is now pending before the Federal Power Commission.

As long range solutions to the supply problem, Northern Illinois Gas is continuing its study of the possibilities of locating and developing geological structures in northern Illinois similar to the Herscher Dome, and its suppliers are hopeful of developing certain depleted gas and oil fields in downstate Illinois.

All of these studies are pointed toward the volume storage of natural gas in the summer months for withdrawal in the winter months.

National Tea Sales Up For Second Period

H. V. McNamara, president, National Tea co., last week announced continued increases in sales for the second 4 week period of 1957, although the trend is not as strong in this direction as a year ago.

Consolidated sales of National Food Stores and subsidiaries for the 4 weeks ending February 23, 1957 totaled $48,218,123, which was an increase of $1,567,318 for a gain of 3.36 per cent over the same period of 1956, when sales were $46,650,805.

So far this year, the company has opened 11 new stores, and as of February 23rd, was operating a total of 756 stores, as compared to 749 stores in operation at the same time last year. An additional 98 stores have been leased for opening as soon as installations can be completed.

Deluxe In All Ways

This quality "Trude-Built" home is one of the most immaculate we have ever listed. The living room, dining room and 3 bedrooms are completely carpeted. The magazine kitchen offers gas "built-ins" and a dishwasher and disposal. This corner location is close to our south side schools and park. Every window in the home is Thermo-Pane. $35,900.

Deluxe Ranch

This 3-bedroom home is situated in beautiful Eastwood, where the park, schools and shopping are all close by. The very efficient floor plan leads to a lovely living room-dining room combination, ceramic bath and an excellent birch cabinet kitchen. Besides, the full basement affords a very warm recreation room. Be sure to see this one-owner home — at only $24,900.

3 Twin-Sized Bedrooms

Situated on a landscaped 85-ft. lot is this face brick ranch home featuring a lovely family-sized kitchen and vanity bath. A convenient shower stall is in the second bath. This home is most immaculate and the transferred owner is asking only $23,600.

Ranch In Eastwood

There is no more charming and immaculate home in our fair village than this appealing example. It has 2 bedrooms and a large paneled den, a lannon stone fireplace, ceramic bath, attached garage and a host of very desirable extras. The owner has issued instructions to sell the house immediately. $23,250.

Excellent Value

Located on a beautiful wooded lot on Arlington's north side — close to schools and shopping. This charming home is one of our best values offering a newly remodeled kitchen, a master bedroom with double closets and 2 other bedrooms. If you are looking for a very charming and comfortable home in our excellent neighborhood at a low price — be sure to see this home at only $17,900.

These are only a few of our choice new and exclusive listings. You'll be wise to always check with us before you buy — many fine families are happy they did.

Herzog Forms New Prefab Home Construction Co.

Formation of a new manufacturing operation in the prefabricated homes industry was announced last week by E. A. Herzog, president of E. A. Herzog Construction company, Herzog Realty company and Herzog Building corporation, all of Des Plaines.

The Herzog interests have purchased plants and assets of Hendrix Homes, Inc., Le Roy, Illinois, and formed Stylecraft Homes, Inc., with executive and sale offices at 1032 Lee street, Des Plaines. Manufacturing will be continued at the Le Roy plant.

OFFICERS of the new corporation are: E. A. Herzog, president; A. W. Pipenhagen, executive vice-president and treasurer; Harold J. Fasbender, vice-president in charge of production at Le Roy; and E. C. Herzog secretary. H. H. Clark is purchasing agent, located in Le Roy.

Pipenhagen was formerly vice-president and general manager of Harnischfeger Homes Acceptance Corporation and a director of Harnischfeger Homes, Inc., of Port Washington, Wisconsin. Fasbender, former vice-president in charge of manfacturing of Harnischfeger Homes, and Clark, its former purchasing agent, recently became associated with the Herzog interests.

Stylecraft Homes will shortly begin manufacture of a new line of three and four-bedroom prefabricated homes in the medium-price brackets from $13,000 to $25,000, depending on local land and construction costs. Both ranch type and bi-level homes are contemplated. Initial production of Stylecraft will for the next few months go exclusively to the Herzog enterprises for use in its Dunhurst Heights subdivisions near Wheeling, Illinois.

AMONG STANDARD services Stylecraft Homes will offer its builder-dealers are counsel on land planning, financing, sales promotion and advertising, as well as technical services and sources.

Corporation Fee Takes Declines

Collections of corporation franchise fees and taxes picked up during February, but the total for the first 2 months of the year is still slightly below the amount received at the same time last year, Secretary of State Charles F. Carpentier reported this week.

The 2 month total is $239,065.48, a decrease of $2,867.40 from last year. For February alone, collections were $100,937.8(an increase of $3,917.62 over the same month last year, Carpentier said.

ORGANIZATION of new corporations declined considerably in the 2 months, the 1,607 granted charters or issued certificates of authority to operate in Illinois being 236 below last year's level at the same time.

There were 1,193 Illinois business corporations granted charters, a decrease of 139, and 149 out-of-state business groups issued certificates of authority, a decrease of 16. (B10

HOME OWNERS' QUESTION BOX

Q—Is it true that painting the inside walls of a house with a rubber base paint will help keep paint from peeling on the exterior siding? If so, why?

A—Many authorities on condensation agree that a rubber base paint or one with a high varnish content will act as an effective vapor barrier. In this respect, it prevents moisture inside the house from condensing in exterior surfaces. It is this type of condensation which usually causes paint peeling.

Q—The home we're building will have an exposed-beam ceiling following the slight pitch of the roof. Since the underside of the roof deck will be the ceiling, how can we make the roof absolutely free from leaks?

A—The most popular roofing used in today's home construction, asphalt shingles, can be safely applied to roofs with a pitch as low as two inches per horizontal foot. This is made possible by a recently developed 'low-slope" method of applying three-tab, square-butt strip shingles. Asphalt shingles come in many solid colors and color blends. Even an almost-flat roof is plainly visible from the ground, so that attractive roofing material enhances the overall appearance of the house.

A—Plastic tile can be cut with a coping saw. (DL

PRIZE — REFRESHMENTS

NEEDLE in the GROOVE

by PAUL LITTLE

Mercury's single-microphone technique has won critical praise throughout the nation for clarity and full orchestral range. Three new 12-inch platters demonstrate this superlative hi-fi sound and provide ideal listening pleasure into the bargain. Two of the albums were recorded in England, as a result of Mercury's contract with a major English sonic firm, and feature the Halle Orchestra of Manchester (of which Sir John Barbirolli is regular conductor under the baton of George Weldon.

....One is MG-50117, pairing Chopin's "Les Sylphides" with Paul Dukas' tone poem "La Peri." The former is a famous classical ballet, drawn from orchestra arrangements of Chopin's most notable piano and abounds in romantic melody and tonal beauty. The latter, by the composer of the Sorcerer's Apprentice" which you will recall Paul Paray and the Detroit Symphony disced so magnificently on an earlier Mercury lp), is one of the most poetic and imaginative orchestral scores to come from France, though unfortunately rarely heard at "Live" concerts. But the breathtaking tonal splendor of this disc more than makes up for that neglect!

THE OTHER is MG-50126, with the same fine orchestra and the 30-year-old New Zealand pianist Richard Farrell making his disc debut as soloist in the Grieg A Minor and Liszt E Flat Major Piano Concerti. Here are two of the most melodious and popular concerti in the entire repertory, played with zest and brilliant technique, and again the sound is stunning. In the Liszt score, the famous passages for triangle—which caused the noted Viennese critic Hanslick to refer to it contemptuously as the "Triangle Concerto' — come through with a crisp definition that makes the performer seem right next to you!

Then, in "pops" vein, Mercury offers its first true "pops" disc a la Boston "Pops" (Which Victor has featured for decades!) in a delectable 12-incher by the Eastman-Rochester "Pops" Orchestra under Frederick Fennell in a program of music by Leroy Anderson. Anderson writes witty, tuneful scores for full orchestra and converts many a popular tune into a really exciting musical experience. You'll revel in his "Sleigh Ride" complete with bells, "The Syncopated Clock" and many others. And if you're a hi-fi "bug," this disc is a must for your collection!

Norm Granz has two hi-fi jazz waxings on his Clef label, both 12-inchers. One features Lionel Hampton on the vibes, with Oscar Peterson at the piano, Buddy Rich's exciting drums and Buddy de Franco on clarinet. The other is called "Sweets," after Harry Sweets' "Edison," one of the warmest tenor sax tone-dispellers in the business. Here's modern jazz at its best. (G

'The Rainmaker' At The Catlow

The gripping story of a smooth-talking con man and the ranch girl he teaches to be beautiful, teams Burt Lancaster and Katharine Hepburn in a memorable film, Hal Wallis' "The Rainmaker," a movie that may well run off with top screen honors. Acclaimed as one of the year's great pictures, it opens Sunday at the Catlow Theatre in Barrington. (Bill

Swine Day Fete Set April 16

Taesday, April 16, will be "Swine Day" at the University of Illinois.

Guest speakers for the day will include L. L. Stewart, Frankfort, Ind., swine grower, telling about his hog program, and J. C. Milton, American Meat Institute Foundation, Chicago, discussing modern pork merchandising.

Research reports from members of the staff of the swine division at the UI college of agriculture will be concerned with different feeding programs and their effects. Larry Simerl, extension economist at the college, is scheduled to give his annual outlook report for the swine industry.

PRESIDENT David D. Henry of the University of Illinois will welcome the guests at the start of the afternoon session at 1:15 in the University Auditorium.

Informal inspection of the Swine Farm is set for 8 to 10 a.m. Guests can also see beef cattle and sheep on experiments at the beef and sheep farms if they wish. A barbecue pork chop luncheon will be served at noon in the Stock Pavilion by members of the Block and Bridle club. (Fm

Divided

The upper peninusla of Michigan contains about 1-third of the area of the entire state.

Industry Took 15% Of State's '56 Corn Crop

What happened to Illinois' record 1956 corn crop?

If the national consumption scale can be applied to Illinois, about 85 per cent of the record-smashing production of 598,672,000 bushels was fed to hogs, cattle and poultry, being ultimately consumed by people in the form of meat, milk and eggs.

The remaining 15 per cent is filling an increasingly important role in the nation's food and non-food industries, according to Corn Industries Research Foundation, Inc.

ALTHOUGH Illinois corn acreage was down in 1956, it led the nation in its big contribution to the national harvest of 3,451,000,000 bushels, second greatest on record. It was the largest corn production year in Illinois history and the fifth time in nine years the crop has exceeded 500 million bushels.

In addition, the Illinois yield of 68 bushels per acre, another state record, was 50 per cent greater than the national average, according to U. S. Department of Agriculture reports. Records reveal the current yield is nearly double the average Illinois yield of 30 years ago.

Thus, the rich bounty of Illinois farmlands is adding to the growing problem of surplus corn and, in turn, helping to increase the tempo of research activities in the search for new uses for the golden kernel.

IN THE expanded industrial uses for products derived from corn, many industry and government leaders see an answer to the problems of surplus and current excess farm production.

In one way or another, every part of the corn kernel — starch gluten, germ and hull—is transformed by the corn refining industry into products needed in industry, homes, farms and the world of science.

Most versatile of all corn products is starch, well known for its kitchen and laundry uses. Less familiar are its many food industry functions: in the manufacture of bakery products, candy, beer, prepared desserts, sausages and ground-meat products, salt and even powdered sugar.

Largest industrial consumer of starch is the paper-manufacturing industry, which uses half a billion pounds yearly for sizings and coatings. Such contrasting products as dynamite sticks, aspirin tablets and match heads are held together by starch.

STEEPWATER, a valuable corn by-product resulting from steeping the kernels in warm water to loosen the hulls and corn germs, is the chief food for molds which produce penicillin, aureomycin and other life-savng drugs.

In the effort to unfold more secrets of the carbohydrate molecule for new industrial applications, member companies of the Corn Industries Research Foundation sponsor research studies at colleges, universities, government and private science centers.

At the individual company level, scientists and technicians are pushing applied research studies in the development of their own products.

Under consideration is a large scale program of government-sponsored research projects to investigate the possibilities for:

Further utilization of starch by metallurgical industries; starch as an integral part of paper; cotton-and-starch combinations; development of wood-like structural materials utilizing starch; materials useful in soil conditioning and highway construction; starch as a raw material for synthetic chemicals; utilization of starch in insecticides and defoliating formulations.

Commenting on these proposed investigations, one corn industry spokesman said:

"If only a few of these projects were to yield significant new knowledge the resulting increased use of corn might go far to reduce the burden of surplus under which taxpayers now stagger."

Protests Against Plan For A 'United Fund' In Suburbs

(The following letter was written to The Fence Post by Vera Folkman, formerly of Arlington Heights and now publicity director for the Illinois Heart association in Springfield.)

I could not let your recent editorial on United fund raising go by the board without comment.

A United Fund, Community Chest or whatever name you might choose to give it, definitly has its place in every community, but it also has its limits. It cannot, and in the majority of areas where such a plan is in operation, does not meet the needs of the major voluntary health agencies.

These agencies are set up, not only to give local service, but to support research into the causes and cures of the diseases that are responsible for thousands of untimely death each year.

Millions of dollars are spent yearly on research by each of the major health agencies and this kind of money is available only because these agencies hold independent fund raising drives.

Do you think polio could have come up with its vaccine if it had depended on money raised through United Fund to support its research program?

DO YOU THINK the heart association, which has poured $20,000,000 into research since 1948, could have come up with the answers of how to prevent rheumatic fever, which ultimately leads to the prevention of rheumatic heart disease, or could have perfected the amazing new heart surgery techniques responsible for giving new lives to thousands today?

Not if you see the statistics compiled by the American Heart association based on its experience in the United fund movement. In areas where the heart association participated in United fund drives its income increased only 6½ per cent over a 4-year period as compared with an increase of 221 per cent in areas where it held independent drives during the same 4 years.

This is reason enough in itself to explain why all agencies can not be included in a United fund drive, but let me cite a few other objejctions to United fund raising.

IN THE FIRST PLACE, the participating agencies tend to lose their identity, and lose an opportunity to tell about their work. You call at a home with your one "ask-it basket," and very few could tell you what agencies were sharing in the gift they are being asked to give.

The majority of the United fund drives may be successful the first year or 2 they are tried and then gradually they bog down and fail to meet their goals. This results in the participating agencies having to cut their budgets and this means a stagnated program for all participants, as well as less support for research in the case of any voluntary health agency who is included in the drive.

Your editorial mentioned that Des Plaines is the nearest city which held a United drive with "conspicuous success."

It would be well to ask every agency included in the drive how much they had to reduce their original budgets in order to set the United fund goal that made possible the so-called "conspicuous success."

It would also be interesting to note how many of the participating agencies still sell memberships, sell cookies or hold other special events, which, no matter what you call them, are still fund raising drives to supplement the budget the United Fund could not meet.

IN ADDITION, people should be free to choose the charity they want to support. The United fund claims they can designate which of the charities they want their money to go to. But these designations are meaningless. A budget committee, not individual contributors, makes all decisions.

People may be tired of having someone knock on their door each week for a contribution, but the one "ask-it basket" idea as I've seen it work in communities throughout the state does not seem to be the answer.

When, too, emotional appeal enters into most everyone's giving. When someone you love is stricken with polio, TB, cancer, and heart attack or any other disease, it's just natural that that is the health agency you want to get behind and support.

I WATCHED with interest the results of the various health drives in Arlington Heights last year and, if I remember correctly, every one went over its goal. Not only that, but hundreds of volunteers were willing to go out and ring doorbells to help the agency they were interested in.

Have a United fund drive to raise funds to support local agencies, such as boy scouts, girl scouts, camp fire girls, family service, school for blind and retarded children, to name a few.

But, if you want to win the battle against the diseases that are taking thousands of lives each year and leaving millions of others invalid,-then let the major voluntary health agencies hold their independent drives.

Only through this type of fund raising can enough money be raised for research which will eventually find the answers that may help save your life and mine.

Medinah Menace

A letter entitled "Medinah Madness" which appeared in the last issue of the "Register" was a fine revelation into the trouble that this community is saddled with and the "group of selfish people" which the writer refers to is a group which calls itself the 'Tax Awareness committee." (?)

In the same edition in which the article appeared one of the most violent objectors to the school addition wrote an article for the Medinah News section advocating the purchase of trees for street planting.

Now, the school addition will cost between 20 and 30, dependent on the size of the property, per year, but this member of the group that recognizes that we need a larger school but maintains the community is already taxed too high and that they cannot afford another increase, suggests that we all pant trees costing as much as $20 per tree.

Does this sound like 'level headed" or "square headed" thinking? Don't spend a buck to further the education of the children but "Plant Those Trees" at 20 bucks a crack.

ANOTHER MEMBER of this also succeeded in making himself look ridiculous by standing up at a meeting armed with clippings and notes.

He stated that various other communities have constructed schools at a fraction of the cost of the one proposed by clear thinking members of our school board.

When his facts and figures were delved into a bit deeper it was found that these communities built these low cost schools with the aid of land grants, material and labor grants made by various contractors.

This is an example of the misleading information and half-truths that this group has fed into the school addition. They say we should wait for our Tax "Manna' from Heaven' to build the school with no money for schools, but "Plant Those Trees."

ANOTHER EXTREMELY active member of this group who is also a pipeline for the distorted propaganda (which in one case was actually illegal) that helped defeat the bond issue is on record for complaining about the children being outdoors at recess time during inclement weather.

Her complaint is without reason, since she is openly opposed to the multi-purpose room which could be used for recesses in bad weather.

At another community meeting she asked the architect to give her in "Black and White" a statement that this particular school addition would only cost a certain amount. Anyone with an iota of reasoning would know that an architect cannot certify costs until he has received bids from contractors.

No bond issues for this segment of the Tax Awareness committee, no multi-purpose rooms, no classrooms, but "Plant Those Trees."

FINALLY WE have the one member of the school board who is against the erection of the addition. He publicly stated that he can afford a tax increase but he is against the addition because he feels that others cannot afford these luxuries(?)

He is on record as being if favor of the split shift which is being crammed down our throats. He also claims that the teachers deliberately sabotage split shift schools.

In the same breath he mouths patriotic (he thinks) sounding phrases showing his concern for the national, state and local tax burdens that we are leaving our children with, he then does a complete 180 degree turn and wants to deprive the children of their full education.

Education, the one weapon that our children have to help them combat the heritage of public debt that we gave them, no gym classes, no music program, no assemblies, but "Plant Those Trees."

YES, NEIGHBORS of Medinah, by all means, plant those trees for if this group succeeds in depriving and robbing our children of their chance at receiving an education they may well need them, to swing through, like their illiterate ancestors. Perhaps this group should change its name to the "Menace of Medinah."

Cracker-Jack

It seems odd for an editor to urge that only those financially affected should be allowed to participate in public hearings on street widening matters. Why is money the only criterion by which he judges this proposal? Does not it affect the whole character of our village?

Editors are the first to bewail the apathy of citizens in civic affairs, yet quick to ridicule those who question whether this is a "much needed improvement." We are called "emotional" and against progress. Progress is defined as betterment and betterment as improvement, but no mention is made of money.

IF I WERE a downtown merchant, I would be in favor of the proposal. I would hope that Campbell and Dunton would someday approximate State and Madison. But as a homeowner, I am against wider streets and vapor lights in residential areas to save the downtown shopping district. I believe most of us moved to Arlington Heights becuase of its beautiful residential nature. I fail to see why changing it is of benefit to those who moved here for that reason.

In some towns, they try every expedient to avoid street widening. They even make one way streets. We tried it, but because there were some pained expressions from the business men, Paddock Publications conducted a poll. As I recall, the vote showed the residents favored it seven to one. So those financially affected appealed to the village authorities, and one-way streets were no more.

Now, let us widen the streets. By golly we're going to have the most bustling, up-to-date, cracker-jack city in these here parts. You can't stop progress, no siree, not unless we let the opposition talk. And as the editor says, that's so foolish, they're not financially affected.

Favors Caucus

Since I am not a candidate for re-election I do not wish to become an issue in the coming campaign. However, since Forrest Davis has linked my name with his in his 'hassle" with the Caucus group I would not want anyone to assume that by my silence I share his views—for, such is not the case.

I do not have the slightest doubt that the Caucus movement was initiated in absolute sincerity. Its purpose: to give the people of Arlington Heights, for the first time, a real voice in the selection of candidates for village office. . . .and, it was realized in a fair, impartial and completely democratic manner.

I ATTEMPTED to become one of the Caucus candidates, but, was eliminated by the majority vote of the people in attendance at the February 4th meeting. I am content to abide by this decision not only because I have favored the Caucus movement since its inception, but also because I consider the people who were in attendance at the February 4th meeting as representative.

I favor the Caucus group because they have adopted as the cardinal principle full support to the Village Manager form of government.

Sincere Thanks

The players, managers and coaches of the St. Theresa basketball team wish to express sincere thanks and appreciation to Paddock Publications for its generous support of our athletic program. The printing of the accounts of our games has kept all those interested in the boys informed of their progress.

We would also like to thank Mr. McElroy of Palatine high school for arranging a place for us to play, and his unselfish donation of many hours of his own time.

They Want Park

In Rolling Meadows there are about 2000 homes. The average family has 2 or 3 children. This is a lot of kids. In Rolling Meadows there isn't a good park except the barn and the school where the Junior High fellowship goes on Friday and Monday.

We kids have decided to work a half a day for a week at 35 cents an hour, because we need a Pony league field. We would clear away the weeds and plant grass seed.

W would be happy if the city will furnish the equipment and adult supervision.

Unheralded Resolution Vital To Pocketbooks

by REP. PAUL SIMON

Last week the House of Representatives passed a resolution which you probably didn't read about. The resolution doesn't make very exciting reading — but it could be important to your pocketbook.

SIX OF US (3 Democrats and 3 Republicans) sponsored a resolution which called for 2 things:

1. All members of the House must receive detailed information on all appropriations at least 2 legislative days prior to the day set for amending the bill.

2. Members of the Appropriations committee must receive details at least 2 days before they consider requests for money.

It may sound unbelievable to you, but in the past we have passed appropriations with items like this: "Contractual services, $3,600,000."

And not a word of explanation.

THE THEORY is that the Budgetary Commission and the Appropriations committee have gone over these matters and we need no explanation.

Yet the law places this responsibility on all the legislators and without adequate explanation it's impossible for us to cast an informed vote.

I can best illustrate the importance of this by pointing out what happened during the last session.

ORVILLE HODGE had 2 appropriations bills. Both passed the Senate unanimously and passed the House 129-2 and 127-2. Rep. Ralph Stephenson of Moline and I were the 2 who voted against the Hodge appropriations.

I would have to admit I've received more praise and publicity for that vote than I deserve. I didn't have the vaguest idea of the extent of the operations in Hodge's office.

The reason I happened to vote against it was really rather simple. At the beginning of the session the Illinois Taxpayers Federation handed out some little booklets pointing out the expenditures made by the various offices over a period of years. I kept the booklet and when Hodge's requests came up I saw that they represented an increase of almost two million dollars with hardly any explanation. I had practically no information — yet enough to be able to vote correctly.

INSISTING that those who want to spend the money must provide adequate information will do 2 things:

1. It will help us see where we can sensibly economize.

2. It will put the requesting official on the spot. If he knows he must make a strong case to pass a request, he may eliminate some items which will weaken his case.

Rep. Louis Beckman of Kankakee, chairman of the Banks and Building and Loans committee, pointed out another reason for the resolution. Last session one official requesting over $200 million came to the Appropriations committee without giving members even a single sheet of data to support his request. The Appropriations committee wisely postponed their decision in that case — but something is wrong when an official will even consider doing that.

During the last session we approved many items which I thought were senseless (like a $55,000 water fountain at the state fair). But I'm sure we voted a great many more senseless expenditures without realizing what we were approving (like a fancy lounge and a $90 wastebasket).

By getting more information, I hope we can do a little better job this session.

When John Alexander Dowie passed away, death ended the most spectacular and remarkable career that modern times have known. Gigantic successes and tragic failures punctuated his life.

He built a creed; he was excommunicated. He built a city; he was exiled from it. He amassed a fortune of millions; he was reduced to virtual poverty. He elevated Voliva to great power. He drew about him thousands who worshipped he died deserted by all save a handful of the faithful.

Dowie termed his advent in this world as "the second coming of Christ."

PALATINE — A number of the people of our village seem to have gained the mistaken idea that the Palatine school is deteriorating, that its scholars are dropping out, that the standard is low, the high school is not accredited; in short that the school is not what it ought to be. Some persons blame this mistaken idea to one source, some to another. Certainly, all who have any of these ideas are mistaken.

There are 192 school children in Palatine, of which 156 attend the public school, while most all of the remainder are found in the parochial schools, few are left to run the streets with a neglected school education. In June of last year, six pupils were allowed to graduate from the eighth grade, four of whom entered high school. This shows a higher percentage going into the advanced department than is found in most schools of the country. No doubt should be entertained as to the standing of the high school. It is fully accredited at the Northwestern University and lacks but 2½ credits at the University of Illinois.

Schaumburg — Louis Meyer and Sophia Wilharm were united in marriage Sunday, At Arlington Heights.

Wm. Liepitz got the highest price, $131.25 per acre for his 120 acre farm of any land ever sold in town of Schaumburg. He has bought 240 acres at Vesper, Kan., where he will make money and take life easy.

Bensenville — Fred Behrens Jr. and Lambert Finke livng north of Bensenville, were bitten by a mad dog last week, and were taken to Indiana for treatment, by the use of a mad stone; in addition, the dog bit several of Behrens' pigs and his stock bull. Behrens shot the dog after it had bitten the animals.

WHEELING — Feed was pretty scarce at Camp 20 and farmers were buying at neighboring towns. Henry Grandt quickly helped them on by having a carload of fine sprouts sent and selling them at a low figure. Henry is a pretty good fellow anyway and aways has the good of the people at heart. It was he who started the Wheeling Local of Cook County Truck Gardeners and Farmers Association. It was he who started the Dairy Question, which it now seems will be solved satisfactorily. He is a wide awake up to date experienced and successful farmer starting without a dollar in his pocket twenty years ago. He has practical ideas as to building good roads and bridges and how to maintain them in good condition at least expense. Tax payers, turn out and elect him road commissioner. He is alright!

Seips Auditorium, Palatine, Sunday, March 18 presents "The Faded Flower." The story shows Mr. Donaldson, a wealthy widower, father of Miss Hanlon, proposing to his stenographer, Miss Snow, who accepts him and his wealth in order to get money for an operation for her mother, who has been accidently blinded. This marriage proved a terrible shock to Miss Snows lover, Mr. Mackay, who was a poor, struggling author. The operation proved unsuccessful and Miss Snow felt her sacrifice was in vain. Success came to Mr. Mackay and he met Miss Hanlon and aked permission to call. When he called, Mr. Donaldson misunderstood his visit and accused his wife of infidelity. Crushed by the accusation, Miss Snow left him and later died. Finally realizing his error, Mr. Donaldson allowed Mr. Mackay to marry his daughter.

Admission 25 and 10 cents. Coming Thursday, March 22, "Charley Chaplin's Dream."

Palatine — A. C. Zimmer has erected a steel garage on the vacant lot south of his store to accommodate his iron steed. A. C. says the building would be a credit to any auto and will be glad to supply anyone interested with a like one.

Miss Ella Comfort is now the "ice cream" girl at the Walter Stroker fountain.

CHICAGO AVENUE gave the appearance of circus day Saturday when nearly fifty teams were lined up waiting their turn to get a load of malt, a car load of which arrived that morning. Mr. Roberts finds difficulty to get his orders for that feed filled.

It has been suggested that J. H. Schierding hurry home and make the personal property assessments while some of those cellars are full of those $5.00 potatoes. It would make a great difference in the taxes of some of the farmers.

The Fence Post

Scavengers

I never knew garbage would raise my blood pressure, but since becoming a home owner, it has.

Garbage to me, at one time, meant putting it into the can, outside my kitchen door, and a friendly janitor would dispose of it. No charge — no bother.

After becoming a home owner I found disposal service another item to stick into the budget. I had a choice of 2 concerns that would pick up in Palatine. One had a rate a little lower than the other, and it just seemed funny that the one with the lower rate suddently discontinued servicing the area and there was but one choice. I like competition, but there was only one to take from.

LAST WEEK I had a caller from another disposal service, and I welcomed him with open arms and signed for his service. After all, we had just gotten another increase in garbage pickup and this one charged less than before the increase. He had been picking up in the area for 2 weeks and the word spread from one housewife to another and quite a number switched. We canceled our business with the other disposal service.

Our garbage was picked up once. The day before the garbage was to be picked up again I received a call from the company and a man asked me a lot of questions — as to how long we had lived here, was their rate lower than the rate from the other company before the increase — and you know, the 2 companies are relatives of each other. No, I didn't know, but would my barbage be picked up? Yes, it would.

Next day—no garbage pickup.

I PHONED the company that day, after hearing various rumors that this one too would be pushed out or an agreement made. I was told (by still another man) that there was a mistake and we would have to switch back to the previous concern. They would even call for me and explain. They didn't have a license to operate in this town and didn't feel as though they should apply for one just yet.

Now, companies know their business more than I do. Would a disposal service pick up garbage for 2 weeks without a license? That is illegal, and what business here in our country is not looking for more business.

This concern could have taken over the entire town. I only hope they apply for a license to operate in this town (and received it from city hall) so we could have a choice. Let's not have one wolf scavenge the town and our pocketbooks. Let's see some competition.

Misunderstood

The news story in last week's Arlington Heights Herald regarding the "paving" of 8 streets in the unincorporated area in Wheeling township by the county and state of Illinois, led me to do a bit of investigating. The streets named to be approved were correct, but the improvement is not "paving"; it is a bituminous surface covering.

This writer is very glad that we residents in the unincorporated area are to have some of our roads improved by the use of state gas tax funds to which we have been contributing many years. It is only fair that we people out in the country have some of that gas tax money expended on our roads as well as the cities and villages.

THE WORD "PAVING" in the news story was in error because paving is only done by actual special assessment in which residents in unincorporated areas are not interested. We need the road improvement as soon as possible, and we hope we will not have to wait too long.

I am informed that if such townships as Wheeling are to continue receiving gas tax money, the present law governing its gas tax allotments, will have to be changed. At present, the road and bridge tax rate must be at least 8 cents to enable a township to receive gas tax funds. Our road commissioner does not pad his expense sheet. As the assessed valuations go up, the tax rate naturally drops.

Wheeling township should not be barred from participation in the gas tax fund because of economies in the township road fund. As more subdivisions are opened up the state collects more gas tax; our roads increase in number and we need that gas tax money.

Residents of Arlington Heights, Mt. Prospect and Wheeling should be vitally interested in township affairs and take an interest in who is elected township officials. You play an important role in township affairs and should take an interest in the township offices which are to be filled on April 2.

Hospital Workers

On occasion, many of us wonder if people in these hectic days will actually serve their fellow man without wondering what's in it for them.

If I've ever had that feeling, I take it all back — after the gratifying experience I've had in managing the office of the Northwest Community Hospital Center. We are seeking to run this office on volunteer help, except for 2 women who are acquainted with office routine, typing, posting, and accounting work. As a retired Harvester executive, I am happy to be able to devote my time to directing this work.

BUT THE AMAZING thing about the job is the help we get from women who have their own homes to take care of — some of them fairly well populated with children. We usually have 6 or 8 women on the job; some work 2 or 3 half days a week, some a few hours.

But all of them are doing good work, and they are saving the hospital real money that will amount to thousands of dollars. I just wanted to take advantage of the well-read columns of the Fence Post to express my thanks to these women, and to invite other civic-minded people who want to lend a hand to call me at Hospital headquarters, CL 5-5791. Our address is 818 E. Northwest hwy.

THURSDAY, MAR. 14, 1957

A RECORD FIELD of 96 teams is expected for the annual bowling proprietors association of America men's doubles championship which will be held Saturday and Sunday, April 6 and 7, in Houston, Texas. With 96 teams, the prize fund for the event would be more than $10,000. Among the early entries for the event were defending champions Ray Bluth and Dick Weber of St. Louis, shown above. The 2 young stars of the Budweiser team won the 1956 BPAA doubles title in McKees Rocks, Pa., with a 24-game total of 10,043 as both averaged well over 200.

Weber and Bluth will be joined by their current BPAA team match game champions as the Budweisers go after a clean sweep of bowling honors this season. Don Carter, current BPAA All-Star champion, will pair with Tom Hennessey and Captain Jerome "Whitey" Harris will team with Pat Patterson.

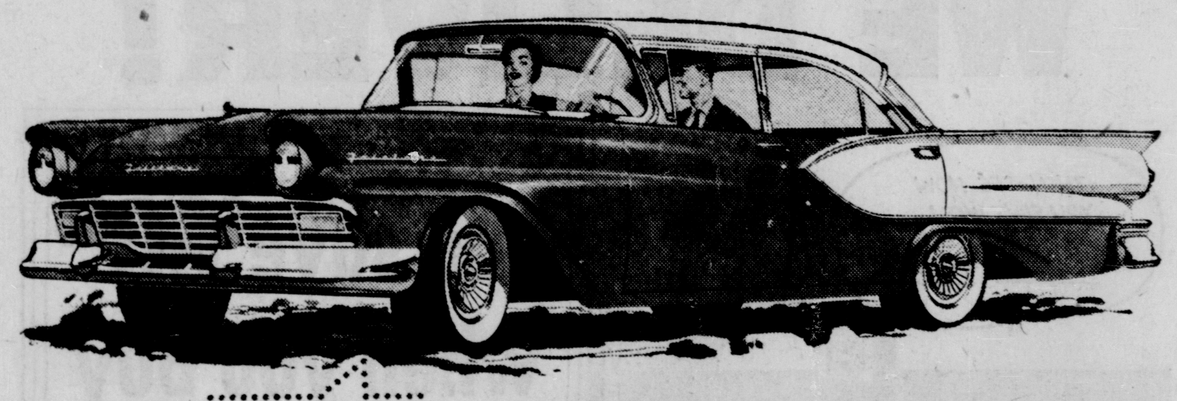
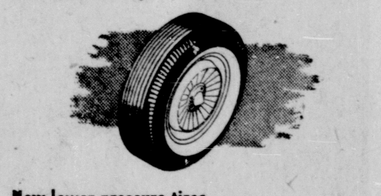
How come the new Ford rides so smooth and solid?



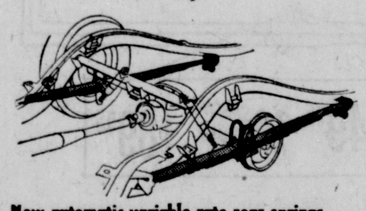
It's the new inner Ford that gives you a big-car ride at low Ford prices

● Folks just naturally love Ford's lower, sleeker silhouette. And they love Ford's new Thunderbird V-8's and Mileage Maker Six. But the thing that's really got 'em buzzing is Ford's new ride. In the new kind of Ford, vital riding features team up to give you the smoothest going in the whole ride world. For example:

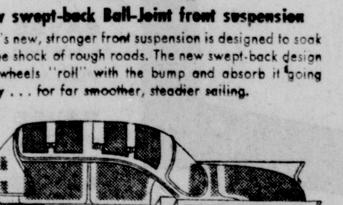
More weight and length
Head for the roughest road in the new kind of Ford. Notice how the biggest bumps lose their "thump"! One reason is that this biggest, longest, heaviest Ford has the extra "beef" to give a smooth, road-hugging ride.



Better balance
One of Ford's nicest back-road habits is to make believe the rough spots aren't there. Proper weight distribution and precise balancing let Ford iron out bumps far better than many of the higher-priced cars.



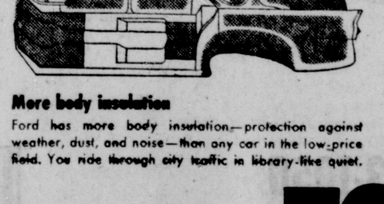
New automatic variable-rate rear springs
Going from a highway to a byway in a Ford, is like going from satin to silk. New design allows Ford's rear springs to "soften" or "stiffen" depending on road conditions. You get a smooth ride all the way!



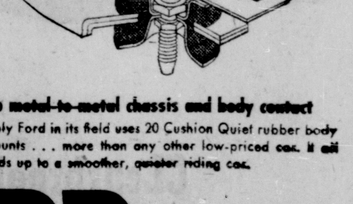
New swept-back Ball-Joint front suspension
Ford's new, stronger front suspension is designed to soak up the shock of rough roads. The new swept-back design lets wheels "roll" with the bump and absorb it going away . . . for far smoother, steadier sailing.

New lower-pressure tires
Even Ford's tires are new for a better ride! Although they require less air pressure, they hold about 17% more air for cushioning the car. This means a softer ride—without sacrifice of Ford's good handling characteristics.

More comfortable seating
There's no sag when you sit in a Ford . . . even on long trips. Comfort-contoured seats, rigidly anchored, have advanced springing for greater comfort and longer life.



More body insulation
Ford has more body insulation—protection against weather, dust, and noise—than any car in the low-price field. You ride through city traffic in library-like quiet.



No metal-to-metal chassis and body contact
Only Ford in its field uses 20 Cushion Quiet rubber body mounts . . . more than any other low-priced car. It all adds up to a smoother, quieter riding car.

Try the new kind of ride in the new kind of FORD

Needed: New Order Out Of Modern Kitchen Chaos

Mother's Doing It All Wrong

If father cluttered his work bench the way mother does her kitchen counter, he would have to do his carpentering on the floor.

So where does that leave mother?

Behind a stack of dishes after every meal, and frequently behind in many of her household chores, answers H. Raymond Swenson, assistant professor of industrial engineering at Illinois Institute of Technology.

WOMEN—Housewives in particular — are creatures of habit," Swenson declared.

"They bemoan the drudgery of housework, yet resist changes in their routine," he said, "especially those suggested by industrial engineers."

Swenson teaches plant layout, production control, material handling, and quality control at Illinois Tech—principles which he says can be applied readily to home management.

"INDUSTRIAL engineering techniques will not eliminate housework," Swenson pointed out, "but they will lighten the burden measurably."

Citing the endless stacks of dirty dishes that plague the housewife, he designated this task as one where material handling principles can be applied.

"Of the many pots and pans involved in meal preparation, few of the utensils are used throughout the entire cooking process," he said.

"If the sink was kept filled with hot, soapy water during meal preparation," he suggested, "The homemaker could place pots and pans in the sink to soak as she finished using them."

DURING PERIODS when the housewife's attention was not required in the cooking process, she could wash the utensils and store them out of the way.

"In addition to eliminating the mountain of dishes she must face after mealtime, the homemaker can be doing two things at once," Swenson said.

In a factory, the production worker turns to another task while waiting for an automatic or semi-automatic machine to complete its cycle. The same principle can be applied to dish washing and meal preparation, according to the industrial engineer.

"Production would slow to a standstill if the employe had to work without the proper tools," asserted Swenson, "yet, too frequently, the housewife will attempt to do her chores without the proper equipment."

THIS NOT only slows her down but makes the task even more difficult, he added.

Planning is the key to conserving time, space, and energy, advised Swenson. The homemaker should determine what she needs space for and reserve an area for that function and for all related utensils and ingredients.

Citing baking as an example, he suggested that the mixmaster, baking ingredients, and necessary utensils be placed in the same area. However, he cautioned, if baking is only a once-a-month chore, the ingredients, appliances, and utensils should be stored out of the way rather than take up counter space.

CLOSET SPACE is another problem for the homemaker, said Swenson. In the factory, the industrial engineer solves the problem of storage by using the "air rights" or unused space below the ceiling. This same principle can be applied to the home.

The 2 or more feet under the ceiling in a closet can be used to store children's clothing or women's blouses by devising a simple pulley system to raise and lower the additional rods, Swenson suggested.

The space over a bathtub or shower can be converted to storage space as well as the open area under stairways.

"Some persons object to storage areas under stairways because of their inaccessibility," said Swenson.

He proposed using storage shelves on wheels that can be pulled out of an enclosing frame under the stairway, thus making stored articles readily available.

"If the homemaker would be open-minded and assume a questioning attitude, she would discover what her problems are as well as better and easier ways to solve them without the advice of an industrial engineer," declared Swenson.

Judy Haran Marries Steve Kyska Jr. Feb. 16

Miss Judy Haran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Richardson of Des Plaines, became the bride of Steve E. Kyska Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Kyska, 710 N. Pine, Arlington Heights, in a double ring service February 16. The service was performed by Fr. Lane at 3:30 p.m. in St. James church, Arlington Heights.

Baskets of white gladioli, snapdragons and carnations decorated the church as the bride approached the altar in a gown of traditional white satin covered with lace and net. Her headpiece was a sequinned crown and held her fingertip veil in place. White roses with an orchid center made up her bridal bouquet.

Miss Linda Scott of Arlington Heights was maid of honor and wore a pale blue taffeta gown with white cummerbund and draped headpiece of blue taffeta with white net. She also wore white pearl necklace and earrings, gifts from the bride, and (Community Camera carried blue and white carnations.

Miss Rosemarie Meyer of Arlington Heights was bridesmaid and wore a gown in pale blue fashioned like the maid of honor's gown.

Best man to the bridegroom was his brother, Robert Kyska, and usher was Jack Csepp, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, also of Arlington Heights.

A reception for 150 guests was held at 7:30 p.m. in the home of the bridegroom's parents after which Mr. Kyska and his bride left on a 2-week Florida honeymoon. They are now residing at 710 N. Pine, Arlington Heights.

The bride attended Maine Township high school and is now employed by Butler Brothers in Des Plaines. The bridegroom attended Arlington high school and is now with Steve's Sheet Metal, Arlington Heights.

Maria Scheibach And Alfred Collard Wed

Following a 2-week wedding trip to Jensen Beach, Fla., Mr. and Mrs. Alfred R. Collard are now making their home at Lake Zurich. Their wedding took place February 16 at 4 p.m. in St. Peter E and R church, Lake Zurich, with the Rev. Dean Plassmann officiating.

The bride is the former Maria Scheibach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Scheibach of Palatine and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Collard of Arlington Heights.

Organist for the double ring ceremony was Miss Mercie Heise and white gladioli and stocks decorated the church.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a gown of embroidered nylon tulle over white satin fashioned with square neckline and floor brush train. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a lace and seeded pearl cap. Her bouquet was of white orchids, roses and stephanotis.

The bride's only attendant was Mrs. Robert Tando of Chicago who wore a blue embroidered satin sheath with net paniers and blue net headpiece and blue satin shoes. She carried a bouquet of salmon glamellias.

Bernard Plunkett of McHenry was the bridegroom's best man and ushers were John Freye of Chicago and Gene Zimmer of La Grange Park.

A reception for 80 guests was held in the church parlors. Mrs. Scheibach received in a scarlet brocade dress while Mrs. Collard received in a peacock blue satin dress. Both mothers wore corsages of Eisenhower carnations.

The bride was graduated from Palatine high school and the bridegroom from Arlington high school. (Jenart Studio

Just Around The Corner From Patty McArdle

First Ballet Excites Megan

Dear Peg:

It was difficult for me to keep my eyes on the stage for watching Megan during last Sunday's matinee of the American Ballet Theatre. I think it's the unusual adult in an audience who is not thrilled by the spectacle, as the curtain rises the first time revealing dancers, posed and motionless, waiting for their musical cue.

But for a child, with yet undeveloped sensitivities, to be visibly moved by the scene is, I think, uncommon. Megan's eyes were glistening as she turned from the edge of her seat and in a breathless whisper exclaimed, "Oh Mother, isn't it beautiful?"

From the moment that the colorful and appealing music of Chopin began and the ballerinas, with restraint, commenced the graceful steps which begin the ballet, "Les Sylphides," Megan was entranced. Only to break into applause with the rest of the audience when some particularly difficult step was performed did she move a muscle. And when the curtain dropped and the lights went on after the first ballet she turned to me with a look of shocked disappointment, Is that all?"

"Oh no, dear, this is just the intermission." Assuring her that there would be more, I suggested that we go out and have some orangeade. Despite the refreshment, intermission seemed to her to be an eternity.

We both enjoyed "Les Sylphides" more than the other 2 presentations that afternoon. Although "Graduation Ball" is a sprightly, happy and generally delirious bit of ballet fun and a new ballet entitled, "The Combat" is an original and compeling departure from the usual, for the pure beauty and grace of human expression, no presentation seems to be as inspiring or fulfilling as the classical ballet. (Also the fact that the ballerinas wore filmy white tutus and the fact that she herself has been dancing at home to the music of this ballet, were major factors in Megan's preference for "Les Sylphides.")

Lupe Serrano, one of the leads in "Les Sylphides" and in "The Combat" was outstanding. Her leaps in the first ballet seemed to hold her suspended in mid air and, slim as a reed in her black tights and vivid jerkin for "Combat," she moved about the stage as lightly and elusively as a shadow.

As Megan watched her, with stars in her eyes, she turned only once to ask me, "Will I ever be a dancer like her?"

This was no time to go into a disillusioning lecture on the trials and tribulations of a prima ballerina, so I answered softly, "Of course, if you want to be."

My love.
Patty.

Janet Benedetti Is Mrs. William Ryan

In a 10 o'clock mass January 19 in St. James church, Arlington Heights, Miss Janet Benedetti, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Benedetti, 202 Ridge rd., Palatine, and William E. Ryan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Graff, 729 S. Mitchell, Arlington Heights, were united in marriage by the Rev. Robert A. Reicher. White mums and ferns decorated the altar and the pews were marked with ribbons.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a gown of white crystal satin fashioned princess style with long sleeves with imported french lace at the bodice. Her veil was of french illusion and was fingertip in length. She wore a seed pearl crown and carried a prayer book with a white orchid.

Miss Rita Benedetti was her sister's maid of honor and wore a seafoam green crystal satin ballerina gown made with push up sleeves and full skirt. She carried pink roses with stephanotis. Bridesmaids were Bernice Barsotti and Yolanda Benedetti, cousins of the bride from Chicago, and Joyce Hast of Champaign. They wore gowns fashioned identically to the maid of honor's gown and carried pink roses.

Donna Benedetti of Franklin Park was flower girl and wore a gown of seafoam green crystal satin fashioned like the older attendants, but with short sleeves. She also carried pink roses. John Benedett of Chicago, was ring bearer. Both children are 5 years old.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Benedetti wore a Dior blue crepe with lace, navy accessories, white hat and a white orchid corsage. Mrs. Ryan wore a navy blue taffeta suit-dress with navy accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Jack Jensen of Chicago, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man and ushers were Earl Christensen of Chicago, cousin of the (Bak Studio bridegroom, Norm Stadtler of Addison and Clarey Getts of Arlington Heights.

A reception was held in Schorsch village hall where a buffet dinner was served to 200 guests.

The couple honeymooned for a week in Kansas City, Mo. and is now residing in the Elms apartments, 539 W. Euclid, Arlington Heights.

Both Mr. Ryan and his bride went to Arlington high school. The new Mrs. Ryan is now with Madison Bank and Trust Co. The bridegroom also studied at De Paul university. He is employed by Lattof Motor Sales, Inc., Arlington Heights, and attends Northwestern evening school.

Janet Davis Becomes Bride Of Nowell Fiene

—Bak Studio

St. Peter Lutheran church in Schaumburg was the scene of a candlelight ceremony February 16 in which Miss Janet Lee Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond C. Davis of Glenview, became the bride of Nowell H. Fiene, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Fiene of Roselle. The service was double ring and was held at 7 p.m. with the Rev. F. A. Hertwig officiating.

Bouquets of white carnations and mums decorated the altar. Standing baskets held carnations, mums and gladioli. Organist was Walter Gerth and soloist was Mrs. Hertwig who sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "O Perfect Love."

The bride was given in marriage by her parents and wore a white lace and tulle gown fashioned with tiers of chantilly lace and tulle in the skirt and a chantilly lace bodice and sleeves. She wore a crown of tiny pearls and sequins to hold her lace-trimmed fingertip veil in place. Pearl earrings and a necklace, gifts from her bridegroom were her only jewelry. Her bridal bouquet was of stephanotis with an orchid center.

Betty Fiene of Schaumburg was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Janet Segesman of Roselle, Evelyn Heimsoth of Medinah, Carla Potts of Palatine, Wendy Mueller of Addison and Deanna Davis of Elm Grove, Wis. They wore identically-fashioned gowns of taffeta in shades of orchid for the maid of honor and yellow, blue, pink, aqua and green for the bridesmaids. Their carnations bouquets were dyed to match their gowns.

Mary Lou Matter of Cary was flower girl and wore an orchid floor-length dress and carried orchid carnations. Gene Ellerbruch of Addison was ring bearer.

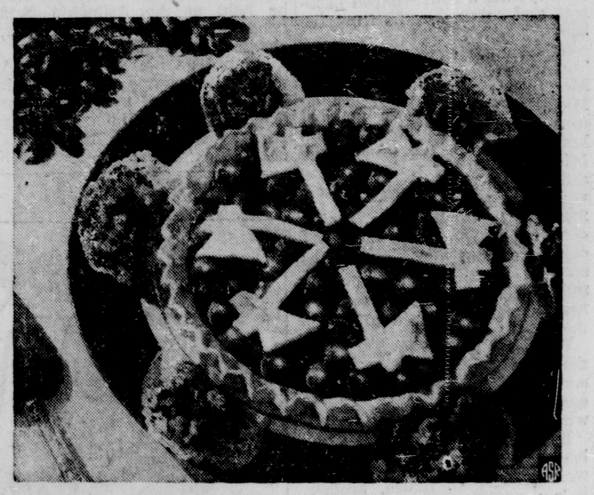
For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Davis wore a light blue lace dress with matching accessories and a corsage of pink roses and carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a red lace dress with white accessories and a corsage of red roses and white carnations.

Ralph Wilkening of Roselle was best man and Larry Wilkening of Palatine, Joseph Davis of Glenview, Leroy Deering and Ray Gerth of Schaumburg and Harvey Hortik of Roselle were ushers.

Four hundred and twenty-five guests attended the reception held in Bensenville Fireman's hall where a buffet supper was served.

The bridal couple honeymooned in Florida for 2 weeks and are now residing in their new home in Schaumburg. The bride was graduated from Glenbard high school and was employed at Illinois Bell Telephone Co. in Glenview. The bridegroom attended Palatine high school and is associated with W. W. Fiene Grain service.

Jog Appetites With Fruit



This is the time of year when meals are apt to become humdrum. It's no secret that flavorsome canned fruits give a big lilt to sluggish appetites. Serve them as:

FIRST COURSE—Fruit cocktail, or chilled grapefruit and orange sections dressed up with a couple of drops of mint flavoring.

SALAD MEAL—Tangy purple plums around a peach half filled with cream cheese and nuts on crispy greens. Serve hearty chowder type soup with this salad.

MEAT GARNISH—Bake spiced fruits to serve with meat, poultry or fish meals.

DESSERT—Canned fruits as they come from the can or jar, alone or in combination, in cobblers, or in pie.

Jubilee Cherry Pie

1 cup sugar
3 tablespoons cornstarch
¼ teaspoon salt
1 cup juice drained from canned cherries
¼ teaspoon red food coloring (optional)
3 cups drained water pack red tart pitted cherries
2 tablespoons butter, or margarine
Pastry

Mix sugar, cornstarch and salt in a saucepan. Add juice and coloring; stir until smooth. Cook until thickened and clear, stirring. Remove from heat; add cherries and butter. Pour into an unbaked 9-inch pastry lined pie pan. Cover with top crust, lattice, or cutouts. Bake in a hot oven (425 degrees) about 40 minutes. One 9-inch pie.

Young Artists Complete Entries for IFWC Contest

Local seventh and eighth grade artists are busy completing their entries in the annual contest sponsored by the seventh district, Illinois Federation of Women's clubs. Mrs. Howard W. Lanyon of Chicago, district art chairman, has asked all local club chairmen to have the paintings in her hnads by Friday, March 29.

Judges for the contest, in which students from more than 30 schools are entered, include Roland Ginzel, teacher of art at the Universities of Chicago and Illinois; Miss Ellen Lanyon, well known artist and former teacher at the Art Institute; Miss Elaine Pappas, former teacher at the Art Institute.

Paintings of the 8 district winners, as well as of the first and second place winners from each school, will be displayed at the annual meeting of the district clubs April 10 at St. Peter Evangelical Church, 2805 Linder, Chicago. State winners, to be announced at the convention in May at the Hotel Sherman, will receive junior scholarships to the school of the Art Institute a painting by an Illinois artist.

Jacqueline Fick Weds Willard J. Kerschke

—Jenart Studio

Miss Jacqueline Bernice Fick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil H. Fick of Des Plaines, approached the altar of St. Andrew church in Park Ridge down an aisle marked with huckleberry greens and white ribbons for her marriage to Willard John Kerschke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kerschke, 13 N. Wille, Mt. Prospect. The service took place February 16 at 7 p.m. with the Rev. Allen H. Fedder officiating.

Candelabra and baskets of white stock, snap dragons and carnations with palms decorated the church. Miss Carol Faulstich was soloist and her selections were "Wedding Benediction," "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer." Elmer R. Jackisch was organist.

The bride wore a gown of imported brocaded silk material which was sent by an aunt in China. The dress was trimmed with seed pearls and sequins around the heart-shaped neckline and had long pointed sleeves and a long torso accented by a front bow. The skirt ended in a long train. Her fingertip veil was attached to a crown of orange blossoms and seed pearls and she carried a cascade of white stock and trailing ivy with a white orchid center. She wore a strand of cultured pearls, a gift from the bridegroom, and also carried a silk handkerchief carried by her paternal grandmother on her wedding day 45 years ago. She was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Marlene Kerschke, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor and wore an imported brocaded Chinese red silk dress fashioned waltz length with scoop neckline. She wore a matching coolie hat trimmed with rhinestones and carried a heart-shaped bouquet of red carnations, ivy and silver lace ribbon. Her jewelry was a heart-shaped necklace and earrings, gifts from the bride.

Bridesmaids were Miss JoAnne Thomas of Evergreen Park and Mrs. Anne Clark of Lansing, Mich. Their gowns were identical to the maid of honor's gown. Miss Lynne Karnatz, cousin of the bride, was flower girl and wore a dress of bright red peau de soie with bustle back. Her hat matched her dress and was accented with rhinestone trim. She carried a miniature heart-shaped bouquet identical to the bridesmaids' bouquets and wore a heart-shaped locket, a gift from the bride.

Wayne A. Tolzien, nephew of the bridegroom, was ring bearer and wore a miniature tuxedo and carried a heart-shaped pillow with the rings.

Best man was Bernard E. Fick, brother of the bride, and ushers were Rodger C. Kruse, brother-in-law of the bridegroom and Alfred Goebbert Jr.

The bride's mother wore a gown of imported peacock blue silk, the material of which was also from China. She wore a pink sequin hat and pink gloves and a corsage of pink camellias. The bridegroom's mother wore a Dior blue peau de soie sheath dress with matching hat and navy accessories. Her corsage was of white camellias and pink roses.

Following the double ring service, a reception for 500 guests was held in Carpenter's hall, Des Plaines, after which Mr. Kerschke took his bride on a wedding trip to New Orleans, Biloxi, Mobile and Birmingham. They will be residing with the bride's parents until their own home in Roselle is completed.

The bride was graduated from Maine township high school and Moser secretarial school and is now a secretary with Florsheim Shoe Co. The bridegroom was graduated from Arlington high school and served 2 years in Germany. He is now employed as a butcher with Carl A. Schletz Foods, Chicago.

August Wede of Itasca and Charles Hamann of Arlington Heights are her great grandparents.

YMCA Teens To Learn Charm

A teen age charm course for seventh and eighth grade girls will start this month as one of the new free programs included in the membership of Northwest Suburban YMCA.

First session will begin Monday, March 25, in Arlington Heights, and Tuesday, March 26 in Des Plaines.

The course will be 5 sessions long and is to iinclude talks on tips on hair, skin and nail care; posture, poise and personality; necessary social etiquette and many of the perplexing problems in the life of a teen aged girl.

This course is basicaliy prepared as a special program for YMCA's throughout the metropolitan area. It will be conducted by Kathy Ellis, Women's and Girls' Secretary of your 'Y'. Miss Ellis has previously taught seventh and eighth graders in the LaGrange school.

Arlington Heights sessions will be held at the Arlington field house at 3:45 to 5 p.m. Mondays, starting March 25.

Membership in the YMCA makes the course free — or it may be attended by any girl for a fee of $5. Teens interested may register through the YMCA office, VA 4-4156. (S

Notre Dame Mothers

Mothers club of the Notre Dame High School for Boys, will hold its monthly meeting Monday, March 18, in the school library, 7655 Dempster st., Niles. Mrs. A. J. Jolie, president, will preside at the business meeting.

Father James d'Autremont, principal of the high school, will be speaker for the open meeting. An invitation is extended to all mothers. (S

Tri Deltas Will Elect Officers;

Northwest suburban Tri Deltas will meet Wednesday, March 20, in the home of Mrs. Maurice Atkinson, 546 Rose ave., Des Plaines, to elect new officers and hear a review of a current novel by Mrs. Thomas H. Beals, 1304 S. Courtland, Park Ridge.

Dessert will be served at 8 p.m., following which Mrs. Richard E. Elling of Des Plaines, president of the group, will conduct the business meeting and election of officers for the coming year. Plans will also be discussed for Tri Delta State day to be held April 6 at Decatur.

After the business meeting, members will be entertained by Mrs. Beals' book review. Mrs. Beals, the former Helen Buckley, is a Tri Delta alumna from Theta Nu chapter at Washington State, Pullman, Wash., and a past president of the northwest suburban Tri Delta alumnae chapter. She is also past president of the Park Ridge Panhellenic group and the Twentieth Century club of Park Ridge.

All Delta Delta Delta members in the Arlington Heights, Mt. Prospect, Des Plaines and Park Ridge area are invited to the March 20 dessert meeting, and should call the hostess, Mrs. Atkinson, VA 4-6516, or Mrs. J. B. Howard, CL 3-7275, for reservations by March 19. (S RECEIVING A WELCOME greeting into the medical staff of nurses of Rockford Memorial hospital is Miss Arlene Patricia Ford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Quentin Ford, 1215 E. Euclid ave., Arlington Heights. Miss Ford is a member of the class of 31 student nurses who were presented caps by Mrs. Glenn A. Erdmier, director of nurses, in a Rockford Memorial hospital candlelighting ceremony March 8. Miss Ford was graduated from Arlington Heights high school in June 1954 and completed 2 years at Ripon college before entering pre-clinical nurses' training at Rockford. (S

Quite Contrary

TV Tepid After 'Mother Goose'

by MARY

There are TV critics who spend practically all their time being indignant as all get out over the bloodshed shown on the westerns that the young dearly love.

Perhaps they have a right to be upset. There is a lot of mayhem on the airways.

But, goodness gracious, has anyone ever taken the time to do research on that old standby called Mother Goose? Just try it. For honest to goodness gore, it can hardly be beaten.

WHAT COULD call forth a more delicious picture than the farmer's wife cutting off the tails of those poor frightened handicapped mice? With a butcher knife, no less, with no anesthetic.

They can say all they want to about Humpty Dumpty's fall being an accident, I call it suicide. He was a mess. Then there was that Goosey Goosey Gander who met an old gentleman in a lady's bedroom. Instead of being shocked because the fellow had gotten in the wrong room, Goosey threw him downstairs because he didn't believe in religion.

For pure unadulterated crime, there was the knave of hearts who lifted the bakery goods and got off with a suspended sentence because he promised to reform. Tom, the piper's son, went in for hijacking livestock, like pigs.

IF I HAD been Peter the pumpkin eater's wife, I would have sued him for divorce on the grounds of cruelty. What self-respecting woman is going to live in a wet soggy pumpkin shell and like it? For bad manners, just get to thinking about Jack Spratt and his fat wife running around licking platters after every meal.

The clincher is the little man with his little gun who shot a little duck right through the head, head, head. Telling his wife to roast the poor little thing, the greedy guy went back to get the drake who by some miracle of chance, got away. Good for him.

The whole book has sickened me to the point where I consider Tales of the Texas Rangers just about right for the toddler class. (S

Future Farmers of America — FFA — 4H CLUB

City Youngsters Invade Rural 4-H Club Program

by CHARLES V. FORT

In 1914, Congress passed a cooperative demonstration act known to the people as the Smith-Lever act. This act provided funds for our land grant colleges in each state and an extension service which would experiment and teach agriculture good farming practices.

Today through the support of the act, our rural boys and girls have the largest rural youth organization in the world. At the end of 1956, there were 2,000,000 boys and girls enrolled in 4-H here in the United States territories. We have somewhere in the vicinity of 82,000 4-H clubs under the leadership of 200,000 volunteer leaders.

OUR COUNTIES in this country have a staff of 1 or 2 extension agents in each county who work to develop future leaders, more efficient breeders, farmers, business men and home makers.

The county agents receive their training from State extension staffs and from land grant colleges where undergraduate and graduate work is offered in agriculture and accepted by the department of agriculture and home economics, Washington, D. C.

Where do the funds come from for cooperative extension service? The cooperative extension service is financed by the federal, state and county governments. Also it is surprising the amount of supplemental funds received from various companies and local organizations.

FOR ORGANIZATION of a 4-H club there are 3 essentials before the club is recognized.

The parents of the boys and girls who are to become members must be interested and cooperate.

Five or more young people have got to fill our enrollment cards, become club officers, regular members, attend at least 2/3 of the club meetings. Last and most important the youngsters must have a qualified adult to be the leader.

The adult must understand the 4-H program and see that the meetings are carried out in order.

USUALLY BEFORE club organization starts the county agent will meet with the parents and youngsters interested in organizing a 4-H club. The work will be explained and the purposes of 4-H work will be presented. Finally the agent will review the projects most suited for the area in which the club members live.

At the present time, work is being done on presenting 4-H club work to urban youngsters. Projects are different because of the area a city boy or girl has. We hope that in the future the program will have progressed until the city youngsters will be offered a strong 4-H plan. (4-H

Future Homes 4-H Has Talk On Sewing

Mary Kaiser gave a talk on sewing at the March 4 meeting of Future Homes 4-H club held at 7 p.m. in the home of Bernice Phluger. Games were played following the business meeting.

Next meeting of the group will be held March 18 in the home of Judith Schiller. (4-H

Ironing Lesson For Elk Grove Home Bureau

Newly elected officers of the Elk Grove Unit of Cook County Home Bureau are Mrs. H. Mahler, chairman, Mrs. O. Dierking, vice chairman, Mrs. D. Kastning, secretary, and Mrs. Marvin Busse, treasurer.

The meeting was held February 27 in the home of Mrs. Bernard Von Bergen. The receptionist, Mrs. G. Horbus, greeted 30 members and 3 guests. Co-hostesses were Mrs. H. Mahler, Mrs. C. Heinkle and Mrs. L. Hattendorf.

Major lesson on "Ironing Made Easier," was given by Mrs. Erwin Behrens and Mrs. H. Sietmann. The group will hold its next meeting March 27 in the home of Mrs. C. Hinkle. (4-H

Proclaim Corn Crop Champions

Ralph and Earl Boesche of Roselle were recently proclaimed county corn growing champions at a banquet held at DeKalb in honor of Northern Illinois corn growing champions.

Their yield of 130.37 bushels per acre was the top yield in Cook county in the 1956 National Selected Five Acre DeKalb Corn Growing contest.

RUNNER-UP WINNER was Henry Haase of Prospect Heights, producing yield of 126.36 bushels per acre. Paul Kreft of Palatine took third, producing a yield of 124.45 bushels per acre.

Fourth place honors were taken by John Garlisch of Arlington Heights with 117.19 bushels per acre.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear parents, Herman and Lena Landmeier, who passed away Jan. 10, 1922-Nov. 19, 1921. Barney and Mary Schoppe, Feb. 12, 1924-Mar. 16, 1952.

The rolling stream of life rolls on,
But still the vacant chairs;
Recall the love, the voice, the smile,
Of those who once sat there.
Beyond the sunset they have gone,
Still loving memories linger on.

Elmer and Alice

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Arthur Kueker our dear father and grandfather who passed away 1 year ago March 14, 1956.

God knows how much we miss him,
Never shall his memory fade;
Loving thoughts will ever wander
To the spot where he is laid.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Otto Dohse, dear husband, father and grandfather, who passed away 1 year ago March 14, 1956.

Loving memories never die,
As years roll on and days pass by;
In our hearts a memory is kept,
Of one we loved and never forget.

Not dead to us who loved him,
Not lost but gone before;
He lives with us in memory
And will forevermore.
